Pastor's Note

(Front cover: A contemporary photograph of the grotto at the Massabielle, outside of the town of Lourdes in the French Pyrennees, where Bernadette Soubirous saw the Blessed Virgin Mary. The first apparition occurred on February 11th, A.D. 1858.)

LOURDES AT 155 YEARS

The 155th Anniversary of the first Apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to Bernadette Soubirous—February 11th, 1858—will fall on Monday this year. This is our parish patronal feast day. I encourage those who are able to attend Mass at the parish on Monday, either at 7:30 AM or at the Latin Low Mass at 12:30 PM. Please remember at least to pray for the intention of our parish on this day.

This year, since Ash Wednesday comes so close upon February 11th, we will not have a special sung Mass in the evening as we have had in recent years. Instead, we will wait until Monday, April 8th, to celebrate a Traditional Latin High Mass for the Feast of the Annunciation. (The Annunciation is March 25th, but owing to the early date of Easter it is transferred this year to April 8th.) You will recall that this Feast of the Annunciation has an important connection in the history of the Apparitions at Lourdes. It was on March 25th, 1858, when the mysterious heavenly lady finally answered Bernadette's question: What is your name? She replied: "I am the Immaculate Conception."

In 1858, February 11th fell on the Thursday before Ash Wednesday. The Second Apparition, February 14th, was on this Sunday before Lent, and the third, February 18th, was Thursday-after-Ash. It was at this 3rd Apparition that Bernadette first heard the beautiful lady speak. It is always poignant then when the occurrence of the Feast of Lourdes falls around the beginning of Lent, as it does this year.

On Wednesday of this coming week, February 13th, we observe Ash Wednesday, and begin the Great Fast of Lent in preparation for Easter. These next three days are the days to make our Lenten resolutions for 2013 and lay out our personal Lenten program for our hoped-for spiritual growth. The Mass times for Ash Wednesday and the Lenten Regulations are in the announcements on the next page.

DAVID ALLEN: OUR NEW PASTORAL ASSOCIATE

This Sunday I want to introduce a new member to our Parish Staff from among our parishioners. He is David Allen and he will begin working in the parish on a part-time basis. David is currently working on his Master's degree in Theological Studies for the New Evangelization at St. John's Seminary, Brighton. He completed his undergraduate degree in Biblical and Theological Studies at Gordon College in Wenham, MA, in 2009. He also taught Theology at St. Clement's High School in Medford. David and his wife Ellen are both cantors in our Music Ministry. I have asked David initially to concentrate his work in assisting with the pastoral care of the Catholic residents in the two nursing homes we cover: the Stone Institute and the Wingate Manor. Please pray for his special intention as he begins his pastoral ministry at Mary Immaculate around the time of our parish Feast Day.

(Fr. Higgins)

Our new parishioners among the Syric-Rite Iraqi Catholics celebrated the Rite of Baptism during their Epiphany Mass on Saturday evening, January 5th. Here are some photos the family has shared with us:

Bernadette's Account:

"I had gone down one day with two other girls to the bank of the river Gave when suddenly I heard a kind of rustling sound. I turned my head toward the field by the side of the river but the trees seemed quite still and the noise was evidently not from them. Then I looked up and caught sight of the cave where I saw a lady wearing a lovely white dress with a bright belt. On top of each of her feet was a pale yellow rose, the same color as her rosary beads. At this I rubbed my eyes, thinking I was seeing things, and I put my hands into the folds of my dress where my rosary was. I wanted to make the Sign of the Cross but for the life of me I couldn't manage it and my hand just fell down. Then the lady made the Sign of the Cross herself and at the second attempt I managed to do the same, though my hands were trembling. Then I began to say the rosary while the lady let her beads slip through her fingers, without moving her lips. When I stopped saying the Hail Mary, she immediately vanished. I asked my two companions if they had noticed anything, but they said no. Of course they wanted to know what I was doing and I told them that I had seen a lady wearing a nice white dress, though I didn't know who she was. I told them not to say anything about it, and they said I was silly to have anything to do with it. I said they were wrong and I came back next Sunday, feeling myself drawn to the place... The third time I went the lady spoke to me and asked me to come every day for fifteen days. I said I would and then she said that she wanted me to tell the priests to build a chapel there..."

LATIN MASS TEXTS: Traditional Propers

Quinquagesima Sunday

Vestments: Violet

INTROIT: Ps. 30. 3-4 Be Thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of refuge to save me: for Thou art my strength and my refuge: and for Thy name's sake Thou wilt lead me, and nourish me. Psalm In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded: deliver me in Thy justice, and save me. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT We beseech Thee, O Lord, mercifully hear our prayers, that being loosed from the bonds of our sins, we may be defended by Thee against all adversity. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: I Corinthians 13. 1-13 Brethren: If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And if I should have prophecy, and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge; and I should have all faith so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind; Charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never falleth away; whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away the things of a child. We see now through a glass in a dark manner; but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know even as I am known. And now there remain faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

GRADUAL: Ps. 76. 15-16 Thou art the God that alone dost wonders: Thou hast made Thy power known among the nations. V. With Thy arm Thou hast delivered Thy people, the children of Israel and of Joseph.

TRACT: Ps. 99. 1-2 Sing joyfully to God, all the earth: serve ye the Lord with gladness. V. Come before His presence with exceeding great joy: know ye that the Lord He is God. V. He made us, and not we ourselves: but we are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

GOSPEL: Luke 18. 31-43 At that time Jesus took unto Him the twelve and said to them: Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things shall be accomplished which were written by the Prophets concerning the Son of Man. For He shall be delivered to the Gentiles, and shall be mocked and scourged and spit upon: and after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death, and the third day He shall rise again. And they understood none of these things, and this word was hid from them, and they understood not the things that were said. Now it came to pass, when He drew nigh to Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the wayside, begging. And when he heard the multitude passing by, he asked what this meant. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying: Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus standing, commanded him to be brought unto Him. And when he was come near, He asked him, saying: What wilt thou that I do to thee? But he said: Lord, that I may see. And Jesus said unto him: Receive thy sight, thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he saw and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 118. 12-13 Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy justifications: with my lips I have pronounced all the judgments of Thy mouth.

SECRET May these sacrifices, we beseech Thee, O Lord, cleanse our offenses, and sanctify the bodies and minds of Thy servants for the celebration of this sacrifice. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Ps. 77. 29-30 They did eat and were filled exceedingly, and the Lord gave them their desire: they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

POSTCOMMUNION We beseech Thee, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly nourishment, may be strengthened by it against all adversities. Through our Lord.
