AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

FRONT COVER:
The front of our parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. This week (AUGUST 15th) we celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady into Heaven, body and soul.

56 ) regarding the Church's teaching on the veneration of Mary.) The engagement of our outward senses with sacred images, however, can awaken our spiritual sensitivity to the reality they signify. Sacred images naturally lead us toward a fuller interior participation in the liturgy, where we encounter the real presence of God and the assembly of his saints.

Now, a word about the Assumption (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 966). The mystery of Mary's Assumption into heaven is about the fulfillment of her earthly life: the full and unending joy of seeing God face to face (the beatific vision). We know that this is indeed our destiny after we die, (provided we die in a state of friendship with God), since this is what Christ promises us repeatedly in the Gospels. Mary's vision of God, however, is far more profound than that of our deceased relatives and friends. One of Christ's most important promises for our salvation is the resurrection of our bodies (cf. John 11:25-26). In Mary, this promise has been fulfilled. Her earthly body was raised up into heaven, where it was fully divinized, (filled with God's life), sharing the glory of Christ's resurrected body. Although she was filled with grace (both in body and soul) from the moment of her Immaculate Conception, nevertheless her body was still subject to the limitations and sufferings of earthly existence, until Christ deigned to bestow on her the grace of this new state of being. The faithful departed have yet to experience this mighty miracle of grace. However, they have experienced (and we continue to experience) the pledge of this promise in Holy Communion.

According to Christ, if we eat His flesh and drink His blood, He dwells in us, and we in Him, and He will raise us up on Judgment Day (cf. John 6:35-58). Our reception of Jesus in Holy Communion is similar to Mary's reception of Him at the Annunciation, which is depicted, (again, very intentionally), to the left of the tableau of the Assumption in the apse. In view of her Assumption, the Annunciation was a...

Pastor's Note

THE ASSUMPTION TABLEAU

David Allen is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish.

One of the most theologically significant pieces of religious art in our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes is the central mural painting of Our Lady being assumed into heaven, located in the apse above the high altar. While it is perfectly natural for the three tableaus in the apse to have Marian themes, (given the patronage of our parish), the choice of portraying the Assumption in the center of the apse is more than coincidental. Indeed, it has everything to do with what the Mass is all about.

Firstly, a word about the use of images in divine worship. Catholic worship utilizes visual imagery to help us enter into worship. We do not worship the images themselves, as if plaster, canvas, and/or paint had divine properties. Likewise, we do not worship Mary, but God alone (I refer you to my column on Luke 1:46-foretaste of what was to come, when Mary's body would be fully alive in the power of Jesus' resurrection. Thus, beholding Mary in the apse above the high altar should remind us of the ultimate end for which God created us, an end in which Mary shares and to which she beckons us with outstretched, receptive arms (Catechism no. 972). Mary reminds us that every Mass we attend is preparing us to meet the Lord face-to-face in heaven. Each Mass is preparing us to become more and more like Our Lady: completely overflowing with the love and presence of God. May our participation at Mass aim at her participation in God's divine life and love.

(David Allen)

Adult Education

FAITH FORMATION

The class will run Sundays from mid-September through mid-May.

David will be using two texts: the Catechism of the Catholic Church, as well as Peter Kreeft's excellent book Catholic Christianity, both of which will be provided at the class for a suggested donation to the parish of $25.00.

LATIN MASS PROPERS
12th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Vestments: Green

INTROIT: Psalm 69: 2-3 Incline unto my aid, O God: O Lord, make haste to help me: let my enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul. Psalm 69: 4 Let them be turned backward and blush for shame, who desire evils to me. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Almighty and merciful God, of whose gift it cometh that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service; grant, we beseech Thee, that we may run without hindrance toward the attainment of Thy promises. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: 2 Corinthians 3: 4-9 Brethren: Such confidence we have through Christ towards God. Not that we are sufficient to think anything of ourselves, as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God. Who also hath made us fit ministers of the new testament, not in the letter, but in the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit quickeneth. Now if the ministration of death, engraven with letters upon stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which is made void: how shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather in glory? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more the ministration of justice aboundeth in glory.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33: 2-3 I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall ever be in my mouth. V. In the Lord shall my soul be praised: let the meek hear, and rejoice.

ALLELUIA: Psalm 87: 2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day, and in the night before Thee. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 10: 23-37 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear, and have not heard them. And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him, and saying: Master, what must I do to possess eternal life? But He said to him: What is written in the law? How readest thou? He answering, said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And He said to him: Thou hast answered rightly: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus: And who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering, said: A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who also stripped him, and having wounded him went away, leaving him half dead: and it chanced that a certain priest went down the same way, and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan being on his journey, came near him, and seeing him, was moved with compassion, and going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine; and setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him: and the next day he took out two pence, and gave to the host, and said: Take care of him, and whatsoever thou shalt spend over and above, I, at my return will repay thee. Which of these three, in thy opinion, was neighbour to him that fell among robbers? But he said: He that shewed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him: Go and do thou in like manner.

OFFERTORY: Exodus 32: 11, 13, 14
 Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said: Why, O Lord, is Thy indignation enkindled against Thy people? Let the anger of Thy mind cease; remember Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to whom Thou didst swear to give a land flowing with milk and honey: and the Lord was appeased from doing the evil which He had spoken of doing against His people.

SECRET Mercifully regard, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the sacrifices, which we lay upon Thine altar: that they may obtain pardon for our sins, and give glory to Thy name. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Psalm 103: 13, 14-15
 The earth shall be filled with the fruit of Thy works, O Lord that Thou mayest bring bread out of the earth, and that wine may cheer the heart of man: that he may make the face cheerful with oil; and that bread may strengthen man's heart.

POSTCOMMUNION May we be quickened, O Lord, by participation in this holy mystery, and may it grant us both the expiation of our sins and the strengthening of our souls. Through our Lord.
