SEPTEMBER IS THE MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

FRONT COVER: The "Angeli Cantantes" parish Latin Mass Choir under the direction of Mrs. Bobbie Hoffmann. The choir sings at the 10:30 AM High Mass every Sunday throughout the year as well as at Christmas, Holy Week and Holy Days. At a High Mass, the entire Mass is sung and the choir/schola sings the parts which belong to the faithful. The beauty of sacred music helps to draw everyone assisting at Mass in some small way to the thought of the heavenly liturgy where the Angels and Saints forever sing the praises of Christ the Lamb of God. This photo was taken by Paul Eldridge on June 30th, 2013.

Pastor's Note

SAINT JOSEPH AND THE MASS

A little known fact is that the first liturgical change to come out of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) was the insertion of the name of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, into the Canon of the Mass. This was a personal intervention of Pope John XXIII, an expression of his own great devotion to St. Joseph. Recently, Pope Francis approved the insertion of St. Joseph's name into the new Eucharistic Prayers II, III & IV in a decree Paternas Vices. Here is the text of that decree.

Exercising his paternal care over Jesus, Saint Joseph of Nazareth, set over the Lord's family, marvelously fulfilled the office he received by grace. Adhering firmly to the mystery of God's design of salvation in its very beginnings, he stands as an exemplary model of the kindness and humility that the Christian faith raises to a great destiny, and demonstrates the ordinary and simple virtues necessary for men to be good and genuine followers of Christ. Through these virtues, the Just man, caring most lovingly for the Mother of God and happily dedicating himself to the upbringing of Jesus Christ, was placed as guardian over God the Father's most precious treasure.

Therefore he has been the subject of assiduous devotion on the part of the People of God throughout the centuries, as the support of that mystical body, which is the Church. The faithful in the Catholic Church have shown continuous devotion to Saint Joseph and have solemnly and constantly honored his memory as the most chaste spouse of the Mother of God as the heavenly Patron of the universal Church. For this reason Blessed Pope John XXIII, in the days of the Most Holy Second Ecumenical Council of the Vatican, decreed that Saint Joseph's name be added to the ancient Roman Canon. In response to petitions received from places throughout the world, the Supreme Pontiff Benedict XVI deemed them worthy of implementation and graciously approved them. The Supreme Pontiff FRANCIS likewise has recently confirmed them. In this the Pontiffs had before their eyes the full Communion of the Saints who, once pilgrims in this world, now lead us to Christ and unite us with Him...the name of Saint Joseph is henceforth to be added to Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV, as they appear in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal, after the name of the Blessed Virgin Mary. (Fr. Higgins)

KNOW YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH

SCRIPTURE STUDY COLUMN

GOSPEL OF SAINT LUKE BIBLE STUDY

Luke 2:21

St. Luke's account of Jesus' circumcision is a mere verse, but it merits volumes of reflection. To my knowledge, it is also the shortest Gospel passage of the liturgical year, read annually at the Latin Mass on the feast of the Circumcision, and the following day, the feast of the Holy Name. In the Novus Ordo, this one verse is included in the longer Gospel reading for the feast of Mary, Mother of God.

For faithful Jews, circumcision is the definitive entrance into the Abrahamic covenant, and thus, into a distinct and privileged relationship with the One God and his chosen people. God gave the covenant of circumcision to Abraham in Genesis 17 as a sign of His three-fold promise to him: (1) to make him "the father of a host of nations", (2) "to be [His] God and the God of [His] descendants" forever, and (3) to give his descendants the land of Israel as their inheritance (cf. 17:4-8). God then proceeded to explain that "every male" Jew (and even Abraham's non-Jewish male slaves) had to be circumcised, because it was "the mark of the covenant" (cf. 17:11-13).

Perhaps someone might wonder why God chose to seal His covenant with Abraham in this manner, of all the other ways He might have done so. As my liturgy professor at St. John's, Fr. McManus explained, God was demonstrating to Abraham that even in the most intimate and natural processes of his life (conjugal relations and the transmission of life), he needed God's grace and blessing. After all, God had promised Abraham a son in his old age (cf. Gen. 15:1-6). Indeed, it was (and remains) a profound symbol of God's loving concern for and faithfulness to Abraham and his descendants. It likewise serves as a reminder that God is the author of life.

All of this constitutes the rich and ancient religious background into which Jesus was born. Presumably, He may have been circumcised in Bethlehem, since the ceremony was (and still is) performed eight days after birth (Mary and Joseph likely did not travel far, if at all). It was on this occasion that Jesus received His Name. This fulfills the instruction that the angel Gabriel had given to Mary at the Annunciation (cf. Luke 1:31). Here again, as in many places, the Lucan theme of promise and fulfillment resurfaces. We learn from St. Matthew's Gospel that the Name of Jesus means "God saves" (cf. Mt. 1:21). In Jewish culture, one's name encapsulates one's "identity" and "mission" (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 430, 432). Thus, Jesus' mission and identity are salvation.

It is extremely important that Jesus received His Name at his circumcision, for the following reason. As God progressively revealed Himself to the nation of Israel, the observance of the entire Mosaic law became inseparably bound to the religious and cultural identity that was bestowed in the covenant of circumcision. However, the people of Israel repeatedly failed to keep the law (this should remind us of ourselves). Therefore, by entering into the Jewish covenant whereby he was bound to keep the entire law, Jesus began the process of redeeming all mankind (cf. Catechism nos. 517, 527, 592). Only Jesus could keep the whole law, which is precisely what he claimed to do (cf. Mt. 5:17-18; Catechism nos. 577, 578). As the Catechism explains, "The perfect fulfillment of the Law could be the work of none but the divine legislator, born subject to the Law in the person of the Son" (cf. Catechism no. 580).

Mr. David Allen is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. He is currently working towards a Master's Degree in Theological Studies (MTS) at St. John's Seminary.

MARY IMMACULATE OF LOURDES:
PARISH PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

By this Purgatorial Society, the names of our dead friends and relatives may be enrolled (either as individuals or in aggregate), and prayed for especially in the 52 Masses that will be offered in the parish
each year for the intention of the Purgatorial Society.
The requested offering for a perpetual enrollment is $20.00. (White leatherette enrollment envelopes are available in the vestibule of the rectory.) The prayers we have offered at Mass for the souls of the faithful departed are both an expression of our belief in individual survival after the event of bodily death and
of a charity towards our neighbor which reaches beyond the grave.

A partial list of the souls enrolled, including the most recent additions:

Eva Liscomb, Ethel Gagne, John Joseph Sullivan, Dorothy Stickney, Florence Gainey, Loretta Droney.

(New members' names will be printed in the parish bulletin at the end of each month. Please let us know if any names have been transcribed incorrectly or if you think your enrollment may have been overlooked.)

"It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins."

(II Machabees 12:46)

"If a compassionate charity towards all that are in any distress, even towards the most undeserving, be an essential ingredient of a Christian spirit, and one in which the very soul of religion and piety towards God consists, how much more should we exert our charity for those in spiritual need, no longer able to help themselves, and perhaps bound to us by ties of blood or friendship?"
