JANUARY IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

Pastor's Note

EPIPHANY BLESSING

The high-point of the Christmas Feast is the celebration of the Epiphany, when the Magi Kings from the East come to adore the Christ Child at Bethlehem. This is symbolic of all of the different nations of the earth recognizing Jesus Christ as the Universal Savior. As St. Peter says in the Acts of the Apostles: For there is no other name under heaven given to men, whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:12).

The Epiphany is also an occasion to bless our homes for the New Year. Blessed chalk is provided to you this Sunday, together with a photo-copy of the Epiphany blessing. (The sticks of chalk are by the holy water font outside the sanctuary of the church, near the Christmas crib.)

With the chalk, the head of the household writes the following inscription over (at least) the main door of the home:

20 + C + M + B + 14

The New Year brackets the initials of the three Magi (Caspar/Gaspar, Melchior and Baltasar).

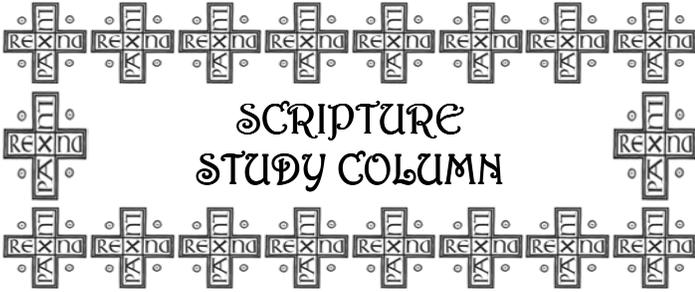

Here are the texts of the chalk-blessing and the inscription blessing:

O Lord God, bless this chalk which Thou hast created, that it may be helpful to mankind, and grant that through the invocation of Thy Most Holy Name all those who use this chalk or write with it over the doors of their houses the names of Thy Saints: Caspar, Melchior and Baltasar, may by their merits and intercession receive health of body and protection of soul. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear us, O Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, and send Thy Holy Angel from heaven to watch over, cherish, protect, be with, and defend all who live in this house. I call upon Thy Saints: Caspar, Melchior and Baltasar to protect our family and home from every harm and danger, and I place the marks of their holy name over the doors of our home to remain there as a constant reminder to us and to all who enter here that this house is truly a House of the Lord.

KNOW YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH

GOSPEL OF SAINT LUKE BIBLE STUDY

Luke 5:27-32

Ofentimes when Billy Graham would preach to thousands during his crusades all over the world, he would exhort his listeners to seize the opportunity to put their faith in Christ, and to come to repentance, because they might not have another chance. Indeed, this is a message that is ever timely. We should always seek to be more and more converted, because we do not know when the Lord will come, or when He may take us to Himself (cf. Mt. 24:44).

This notion of preparedness and immediate responsiveness to the invitation of the Lord is the heart of St. Luke's description of the call of Levi (Matthew). Matthew was busy doing his job (he was a tax collector) when Jesus came to him. The timing could not have been more inconvenient, engaged as he was in financial transactions. Nevertheless, he gets up from what he's doing, and never looks back (v. 28). Imagine if he had said something like this: "Just a minute, Lord. Let me finish what I'm doing, and then maybe we can talk," or "Call my secretary." Jesus would have been long gone, and might have moved on to another town. Billy Graham is right, as far as Matthew's call is concerned.

Matthew probably had heard plenty about Jesus (the setting of this episode is likely Capernaum). For all we know, he may have even wanted to meet Him at some point, since Jesus had already made it clear that He cared for social outcasts, such as the leper. We must remember that the Jews at this time hated tax collectors, and so, Matthew was most definitely a social outcast. This is confirmed by the objection of the Pharisees in v. 30.

Perhaps Matthew was ready to accept the Lord's invitation, because he had experienced so much rejection by others, or maybe he had tasted the dryness of greed, recognizing the fleeting nature of wealth, and was thirsting for something better. Notice that Jesus does not condemn him. All he says is, "Follow me." Matthew already knew he was a sinner. All he needed was Jesus' irresistible invitation. His immediate acceptance cannot be explained in any other way. Great joy results from this exchange, indeed, festive joy. He throws a banquet for Jesus and His disciples, and invites all his tax collector/social outcast friends (v. 29). This is the most basic (and effective) form of evangelism: inviting others to come and meet Jesus for themselves. We should be mindful, too, that Middle Eastern banquets are no mere pizza party. Rather, they are lavish dinners of the utmost hospitality. Matthew truly demonstrates his gratitude to the Lord by throwing such a party.

Lest we become haughty and judgmental of others, Jesus reminds us that we are all sinners. When the Pharisees object to Jesus' companionship with "tax collectors and sinners" (for eating a meal with someone back then implied being friends with them), Jesus replies that this is precisely the company that He intends to keep. As He explains, "Those who are healthy do not need a physician, but the sick do. I have not come to call the righteous to repentance but sinners" (vv. 31-32). It does not take much logic for us to recognize that we are all in that company of tax collectors and sinners, with whom Jesus shares the joy of conversion and repentance.

WEEKLY BIBLE STUDY: "THE GOSPEL OF LUKE"

David Allen, our Pastoral Associate, hosts a weekly Bible Study on the Gospel of Luke every Friday morning at 8:20 AM (after the 7:30 Parish Mass). The Bible Study meets in the Lower Rectory Conference Room (in rectory basement). It is an open group and all are welcome to attend.

This class is particularly appropriate for any inquirers who might be seeking to learn more about the Faith, or might desire to be baptized and/or confirmed, as well as for those who are already Catholic, and who wish to have a deeper knowledge of their Faith.

The two texts for the class are the Catechism of the Catholic Church, as well as Peter Kreeft's excellent book Catholic Christianity, both of which will be provided at the class for a suggested donation to the parish of $25.00.

Where? Rectory sun porch (on first floor; please enter rectory at front door)

When? Sundays, 12:15-1:15 PM
This is an open class and new participants are invited to join at any time during the course-year.

Ps. O Lord, how admirable is Thy Name in the whole earth! V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. In the Name of Jesus . . .

COLLECT O God, Who didst appoint Thine only-begotten Son to be the Savior of mankind, and didst bid that He should be called Jesus; mercifully grant that we, who venerate His Holy Name on earth, may also enjoy the vision of Him in Heaven. Through the same Lord.

EPISTLE: Acts of the Apostles 4. 8-12 In those days Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said to them: Ye Princes of the people and ancients, hear: if we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, but what means he hath been made whole, be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel: that by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God hath raised from the dead, even by Him this man standeth here before you whole. This is the stone which was rejected by the builders, which is become the head of the corner: neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men, whereby we must be saved.

GRADUAL: Psalm 105. 47; Isaias 63.16 Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations: that we may give thanks to Thy holy Name, and may glory in Thy praise. V. Thou, O Lord, our Father and our Redeemer: from everlasting is Thy Name. ALLELUIA: Psalm 144. 21 Alleluia, alleluia. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy Name. Alleluia.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 85. 12, 5 I will praise Thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify Thy Name for ever: for Thou, O Lord, are sweet and mild: and plenteous in mercy to all that call upon Thee. Alleluia.

SECRET We beseech Thee, most merciful God, that Thy blessing by which every creature liveth, may sanctify this our sacrifice, which we offer unto Thee to the glory of the Name of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; that it may please Thy majesty as an act of praise and profit us unto salvation. Through the same Lord.

Preface of Christmas

COMMUNION: Psalm 85. 9-10 All the nations Thou hast made shall come and adore before Thee, O Lord, and they shall glorify Thy Name: for Thou art great, and dost wonderful things: Thou art God alone. Alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION Almighty and everlasting God, Who hast created and redeemed us, graciously be mindful of our prayers, and vouchsafe to accept with a benign and favorable countenance the sacrifice of the saving victim which we have offered to Thy majesty, in honor of the Name of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; that, through the infusion of Thy grace in us, we may rejoice to see our names written in heaven under the glorious Name of Jesus, as a pledge of eternal predestination.
