ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

FRONT COVER: On Corpus Christi this year Cody Kwash, son of parishioners Dan & Christina (Steinkrauss) Kwash, made his First Holy Communion. Together with his uncle Thomas Steinkrauss, Cody marched in the Procession ahead of the Eucharistic Canopy. The flowers under his feet are the rose petals laid out by the flower girls in honor of the Eucharistic Christ. (PHOTO by Paul Eldridge.)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

ST. LUKE CHAPTER 21: 1-4

This week, our study begins a new chapter in St. Luke's Gospel (Ch. 21). In reality, the chapter marker is irrelevant, for St. Luke is reporting events that occurred in the same locale and (most likely) on the same day. The chapter and verse designations were not part of the original manuscripts, but were imposed by editors in subsequent centuries. On the one hand, this system can help us find certain passages, or commit them to memory. On the other hand, the chapter and verse designations sometimes artificially divide passages that are intended to be read as a continuous unit, such as the teachings and confrontation scenes of Chapters 20 and 21.

Having just condemned the hypocrisy, greed, and cruelty of the scribes toward widows at the end of Chapter 20, Jesus turns His attention to a humble widow offering two coins in the Temple treasury. St. Luke intentionally juxtaposes this scene in 21:1-4 with Jesus' condemnation of the scribes in 20:46-47 in order to highlight the widow's virtue, as Robert Tannehill explains in his commentary on St. Luke's Gospel. Here is the account of the episode in full: "When He looked up He saw some wealthy people putting their offerings into the treasury and He noticed a poor widow putting in two small coins. He said, 'I tell you truly, this poor widow put in more than all the rest; for those others have all made offerings from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood.'" For Jesus to notice this widow at all reinforces His loathing of the scribe's vain and hypocritical religiosity. Indeed, Jesus shows us that exemplary tithing is about sacrifice, not show. The widow gave well beyond the expected 10% of the Mosaic Law. She gave of her substance!

The message in this simple passage can be challenging when viewed in light of contemporary American tithing practices. Generally speaking, American Catholics could stand to contribute more of their gross income to the Church and the needs of the poor. The weekly tithe should not be an occasion where we give God what is "left over," after we have calculated or made all our other expenses. The consistent teaching of Scripture is that God is owed the first fruits of our labor. Everything we have comes from God, including the income we have earned by our skills, time, and effort. Indeed, our skill, time, and effort are fundamentally His gifts to us, also. Thus, He has ultimate claim on everything in our lives, even before the IRS. Jesus commends the superior quality of the widow's offering, because it demonstrates her acknowledgement of the primacy of God's reign in her life.

Conjoined to this reality about stewardship is the equally important truth that God desires our gifts to be given to him with a "cheerful" attitude, and not under "compulsion," as St. Paul teaches us (cf. 2 Corinthians 9:7). In other words, our sacrifices should be characterized primarily by an attitude of joyful thanksgiving. Such an attitude helps to relieve us of anxieties about money. Even as God gives us the responsibility of being good and prudent stewards of our assets, He expects us to keep first things first. The regular act of submitting our finances to God can actually infuse great joy into our lives, for it reminds us that God is ultimately in control. He cares far more deeply for our temporal needs than we do (cf. Luke 12:22-34)! In this month of the Precious Blood, as we meditate on Jesus' total self-gift to us, let us strive to improve the quality of our offerings to him and to our parish.

(David Allen)

Mr. David Allen, M.T.S., is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

JULY IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

We welcome back Fr. John Rizzo during his summer visit to his family in Massachusetts.

Fr. Rizzo is now working in parish ministry in the diocese of Parramatta, near Sydney, Australia. This year Fr. Rizzo celebrates his 30th Anniversary of priestly ordination.

Welcome to Father Desire Salako, S.M.A.

We welcome Fr. Desire Salako, S.M.A., from the Society of the African Mission Fathers, who will be offering summer assistance through the month of August here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. We are grateful to Fr. Salako and to his congregation for this support.

NECESSARY TREE WORK

As many may have already noticed we have had six pine trees in the parish gardens cut down and the stumps ground. This was necessary because these particular trees had died or were dying. The tree doctor believes that it was the stress of the past winter on their roots which contributed to their dying, especially those that were close to the driveway. They did not show any signs of disease. Fortunately, we still have many other trees in the gardens.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 46:2 Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46:3 For the Lord is the most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 6:19-23. Brethren; I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:12,6. Come, children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 7:15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY: Daniel 3:40 As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O God who in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel, that what each one of us has brought here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 30:3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
