ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

ST. LUKE CHAPTER 21: 5-38

Most of the 21st Chapter of St. Luke's Gospel is devoted to Jesus' teachings on two separate events: the fall of Jerusalem on the one hand, and the Second Coming, on the other. Jesus' lengthy discourse is prompted by comments of the crowd regarding the beauty and splendor of the Jerusalem Temple (v. 5).

This is an interesting juxtaposition with the immediately preceding episode, in which Jesus commends the seemingly insignificant but spiritually rich offering of the widow (vv. 1-4). In response to the people's comments on the Temple's "costly" trappings, Jesus calls their attention to its impermanence, and He foretells its utter destruction as an event that will occur in their lifetime: "All that you see here- the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down" (v. 6). The Roman general Titus besieged Jerusalem and looted its Temple in 70 A.D.

Jesus also foretells the rise of false messiahs (linking this phenomenon with the general time-frame of the Temple's destruction) and He strictly warns the people not to follow them (v. 8). This reiterates His earlier teaching in 17:22-23. Jesus then comments upon events that will precede His Second Coming: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky" (vv. 10-11).

Before all of these cataclysmic events that will precede the end of the world, however, Jesus foretells the suffering of His followers, and particularly those in the first generation of the Church. They certainly apply to all eras of persecution. As He explains, "...they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony" (vv. 12-13). Indeed, the Book of Acts directly fulfills this prophecy, and it is likely that St. Luke has the plan of this book in mind as he records Jesus' teaching. St. Luke was an eye-witness of some of St. Paul's sufferings, and even experienced some of the same hardships alongside him.

Jesus then reiterates four instructions given earlier in chapters 12-13. Firstly, He promises to endow His disciples with unassailable wisdom in giving verbal testimony to Him (v. 15). Secondly, He foretells that His followers will experience persecution and betrayal even by their own families and friends (v. 16). Thirdly, He elicits their complete trust by assuring them of His providential protection in figurative terms- "not a hair on your head will be destroyed" (v. 18). Fourthly, He exhorts them to persevere nonetheless in their suffering, because such perseverance has eternal consequences (v. 19). Again, one sees all of these things unfold in the Book of Acts.

Jesus again treats the subject of the siege of Jerusalem, "surrounded by armies" (vv. 20-24), and then shifts to the subject of his Second Coming, preceded by cosmic signs of woe (vv. 25-26). The most stirring verse of the whole chapter is v. 27: "And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." Jesus refers here to Daniel's prophetic vision of the Messiah, clearly identifying himself as this figure (cf. Dan. 7:13-14).

Ultimately, amid whatever chaos the world endures, the Church's gaze must be fixed on her Risen Lord, for he alone will outlast the turmoil: "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away" (v. 33). Keeping our inward gaze fixed on Jesus means practicing vigilance in our prayers, thoughts, and conduct, as Jesus himself exhorts us at the end of his discourse in vv. 34-36: "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap...Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man."

Jesus' exhortation here anticipates His words to the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane (cf. 22:40, 46). As we pray the mystery of Jesus' Agony in the Garden in the Holy Rosary, let us pray for an increase in the gifts of vigilance and fortitude as we prepare to meet Our Lord face to face.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 47:10-11. 2 We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple. according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. Ps. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised in the city of God, in His holy mountain V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Grant us, we pray, Lord, in Thy goodness, the spirit to think and to do always what is right, so that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may be able to live according to Thy will. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 8:12-17. Brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but You have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 30, 3; 70, 1. Be Thou unto me a God, a protector and a place of refuge, to save me. V. In Thee, O God, have I hoped, let me never be confounded.

ALLELUIA: Psalm 47, 2. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 16, 1-9. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: “There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him: ‘How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer.’ And the steward said within himself: ‘What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.’ Therefore calling together every one of his master’s debtors, he said to the first: ‘How much dost thou owe my lord?’ But he said: ‘A hundred barrels of oil.’ And he said to him: ‘Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.’ Then he said to another: ‘And how much dost thou owe?’ Who said: ‘A hundred quarters of wheat.’ He said to him: ‘Take thy bill, and write eighty.’ And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say unto you: Make unto yourselves friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.”

OFFERTORY: Psalm 17: 28, 32. Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but Thee, O Lord?

SECRET Receive, Lord, we pray, the offerings which we make to You, of what You Yourself have given us, so that by the power of Your grace these holy mysteries may sanctify our present life and bring us to everlasting joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 33: 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

POSTCOMMUNION: May this heavenly mystery, Lord, restore us both in soul and in body, so that we may feel within us the power of the sacrament which we celebrate. Through our Lord.

St. Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
