ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

His wife Aseel writes of this picture: "The face of JESUS is reflected by these kids. May God protect you and give you your childhood back." (PHOTO by Aseel Adel Naami.)

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Pastor's Note

IRAQI CHRISTIANS: ONE YEAR LATER

A year ago this month our parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes was filled to capacity for a Mass of solidarity with the Syriac Catholics of the Mission of Our Lady of Mesopotamia whose Christian kinsmen and countrymen in Iraq were being driven from their homes by the brutal ISIS invasion. In its July 26th edition the New York Times Sunday Magazine did its cover story on the fate suffered by these Iraqi Christians.

Last month, Sermed Ashkouri and his wife Aseel Adel Naami, who are leaders of the Iraqi mission in our parish, went back to Iraq with medical supplies and money. I asked them if they would share their experiences with us and they have allowed me to make use of the text and photo album from their Facebook page:

As part of our visit to Erbil, [Iraqi Kurdistan], and from the generosity and caring of families from Boston, MA, we were able to deliver three suitcases of medication to Mart-Shamouny Charitable Health Center in Ankawa in addition to $5000 in financial donations to the Center and a number of Christians and Yazidi families who are living homeless in caravans and tents. These people lost everything to save their faith and dignity. They faced daily killing threat, raping, and all sort of insult by ISIS when they invaded their homes and towns in Mosul-Ninevah. Erbil is an expensive city. The environment there is very harsh as it gets up to 125 degrees Fahrenheit in the summer, with the lack of electricity and clean water. Christians have the support from the church, but Yazidis have no-one helping them except churches and the mercy of some humanitarian organizations. People have been suffering for over a year now with less hope to be able to return to their homes. Please keep them in your prayers and consider supporting them financially. They are in continuous need for medical and financial donations and there are many ways to help and we can provide more information on that. In either case, to send medicine it must be delivered by hand in Erbil. Otherwise if the medicine gets sent by mail it will never get there. With this album you will find documents and pictures for the camps we visited. Thanks a lot for your support. You are the light that Jesus sent to the world, keep shining in this dark world. God bless you and your families. Be grateful that you are safe and have a place to rest your head. Our kids are spoiled, show them how their brothers and sisters are living. Keep them in your prayers, Sermed and Aseel

SCRIPTURE STUDY

ST. LUKE CHAPTER 22: 14-20

St. Luke's begins his account of the Last Supper with poignant words of Jesus which are unique to this Gospel: "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it again until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God" (vv. 15-16).

On a basic level, Jesus is telling the twelve disciples that this is their last meal together. The "fulfillment" to which he refers is the totality of the events of the Triduum: His Passion, Death, Resurrection. Thus, He will eat meals with them again only after He rises from the dead and His mission is fulfilled (cf. Lk. 24:42-43, Jn. 21:10-12). Jesus reiterates His point in vv. 17-18.

In a far deeper spiritual sense, however, the fulfillment to which Jesus refers in these verses is the Eucharist itself: He will share the Eucharist with them again once the Paschal Mystery is accomplished. The first Eucharist on Holy Thursday anticipates the events of Good Friday and Easter Sunday. The second Eucharist with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus on the evening of Easter Sunday represents this "fulfillment," because the sacrifice of the Cross will have been accomplished in time (cf. 24:30).

St. Luke then gives us his version of the Institution Narrative, the awesome words of Jesus in vv. 19-20 which transform bread into His Sacred Body, and wine into His Precious Blood: "This is My body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of Me...This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which will be shed for you." We cannot tire of hearing these words.

Although St. Luke does not highlight the nature of the vessel used for the Precious Blood, it is worth taking a moment to describe what kind of cup Jesus likely used at the Last Supper: a chalice. A chalice is no ordinary drinking cup, but a vessel designed for communal meals. It has two handles on each side which the drinker holds as he tilts it toward himself for drinking. Upon taking his sip, he passes it by the handles to the person next in line with a half turn, so that they may then grip its handles and partake. This sheds more light on Jesus' prayer during his Agony in Gethsemane: "Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from Me" (cf. 22:42). Here, Jesus is asking that He be exempted from His turn of drinking from the chalice of ultimate suffering.

It is also worth taking some time to unpack the meaning of the term anamnesis, the Greek word used by Jesus in v.19: "Do this in memory of Me." According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Jewish and Christian worship "always refers to God's saving interventions in history" (no. 1103). Thus, when a Jew celebrates Passover, the Seder ritual allows him to enter into a once-for-all event as if it were happening in the present, thereby renewing the covenant. This is intensified for Catholics in the Mass, as the Catechism explains in paragraph 1104: "Christian liturgy not only recalls the events that saved us but actualizes them, makes them present. The Paschal mystery of Christ is celebrated, not repeated...in each celebration there is an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that makes the unique mystery present."

We do not merely symbolize the event of His Passion; the liturgy makes the Risen Christ fully present to us. The Communion Hymn "O Sacrum Convivium" eloquently proclaims this truth: "O Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received; the memory of His Passion is renewed; the mind is filled with grace; and a pledge of future glory is given unto us."

LATIN MASS PROPERS: TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 67: 6-7, 36 God in His holy place; God who maketh men of one mind to dwell in a house: He shall give power and strength to His people. Psalm 67: 2. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered: and let them that hate Him flee from before His face. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Almighty and eternal God, who in the abundance of Thy loving kindness art wont to give beyond the deserts and desires of those who humbly pray; pour down upon us Thy mercy, forgiving us these things of which our conscience is afraid, and granting us those blessings which we dare not presume to ask. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 Corinthians 15: 1-10 Brethren: I make known unto you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and wherein you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast after what manner I preached unto you, unless you have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all, which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures; and that He was seen by Cephas, and after that by the eleven. Then was He seen by more than five hundred brethren at once; of whom many remain until this present, and some are fallen asleep. After that He was seen by James then by all the apostles. And last of all He was seen also by me, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the same what I am; and His grace in me hath not been void.

GRADUAL: Psalm 27: 7, 1 In God hath my heart confided, and I have been helped; and my flesh hath flourished again; and with my will I will give praise to Him. V. Unto Thee will I cry, O Lord: O my God, be not Thou silent; depart not from me. ALLELUIA: Psalm 80: 2-3 Alleluia, alleluia. V. Rejoice to God our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob; take a pleasant psalm with the harp. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 7: 31-37 At that time, Jesus going out of the coasts of Tyre, came by Sidon to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring to Him one deaf and dumb, and they besought Him that He would lay His hand upon him. And taking him from the multitude apart, He put His fingers into his ears, and spitting, He touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, He groaned and said to him: Ephphetha, which is, Be thou opened: and immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke right. And He charged them that they should tell no man: but the more He charged them so much the more a great deal did they publish it; and so much the more did they wonder, saying: He hath done all things well; He hath made both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 29: 2-3 I will extol Thee, O Lord, for Thou hast upheld me; and hast not made my enemies to rejoice over me: O Lord, I have cried to Thee, and Thou hast healed me.

SECRET Look down in mercy upon our service, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the gifts we offer may be acceptable unto Thee, and a support in our weakness. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Proverbs 3: 9-10 Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first of all thy fruits: and thy barns shall be filled with abundance, and thy presses shall run over with wine.

POSTCOMMUNION Having received Thy holy sacrament, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may feel supported in soul and body; that being saved in both, we may glory in the fullness of the heavenly remedy. Through our Lord.

St. Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
