ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

FRONT COVER: The sanctuary of our parish church, "Gospel side" of the high altar: the two angel sculptures on either side of the altar remind us of the presence of the Holy Angels, in particular the "Angel of the Mass", who is St. Gabriel Archangel, and the Guardian Angel of the parish, who is invoked in the closing prayers of the Asperges ("The Rite of Sprinkling" with Holy Water, which reminds us of our Baptism) in these words: Hear us, Holy Lord, Almighty Father, Eternal God: and be pleased to send Thy Holy Angel from heaven to guard, cherish, protect, visit and defend all that dwell in this house: through Christ our Lord. Amen. The Sodality banner in the background is of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. (PHOTO by Jan Paul Von Wendt.)

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

SEPTEMBER IS THE MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Pastor's Note

SEPTEMBER PARISH CALENDAR

I like very much the bracketing of the American Summer between Memorial Day and Labor Day, thus dedicating a solid part of the calendar year to all of the good things associated with the word "summertime". It is after Labor Day that we can pick-up-the-pace again, with (we hope!) renewed energies and a sense of purpose.

In the life of the parish our summer extends liturgically up until the Ember Days which consecrate the coming autumn season (this year they fall on September 23rd, 25th & 26th). There is in these Masses, still observed in the 1962 Missal, an echo of the Jewish High Holy Days from the Old Testament and the Life of Christ. The Jewish people's celebration of them this year is September 14th, 1st day of Rosh Hashana, September 23rd, Yom Kippur/Day of Atonement, and September 28th, Succot/Feast of Tabernacles.

September also gives us several important feasts: The Nativity of Our Lady, September 8th, Holy Cross Day, September 14th, The Seven Sorrows of Our Lady, September 15th, St. Matthew the Apostle, September 21st, and the culminating feast of the month: St. Michael's Day, September 29th, also known in older English as Michaelmas.

Our first September activity as a parish family is our annual end-of-summer Parish Picnic which is scheduled for next Sunday, September 13th, beginning at 12 noon after the 10:30 AM Mass. Please see the notice on Page 6. This is a wonderful occasion for us to come together as a parish community in Christian fellowship. With a Confirmation Mass scheduled for the Sunday after, we cannot have a rain-date this year, so, pray for good weather on the 13th!

Sunday, September 20th, His Excellency Most Reverend Walter Edyvean will visit our parish to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on several of our parishioners. This will take place at the 10:30 Mass and the Confirmation will be done according to the Extraordinary Form.

Our children's Religious Education program for the 2015-2016 school year begins in the fall. Notices about the start-dates will appear in the parish bulletin. As in the past two years, our lay Pastoral Associate David Allen will be offering his survey course on the Catholic Faith. Please see the notice on Page 6. The course is especially suited for adults who are interested in becoming Catholics or for baptized Catholics who were never catechized or received little instruction in their faith, but anyone is welcome to take the course. The first class is Sunday, October 4th.

The Parish Pastoral Council will have its first meeting for the year on Wednesday, September 16th, 7-8:30 PM. I am very grateful to all of these parishioners who have committed to the sacrifice of their time for the sake of the up-building of our parish life. We are, I hope, in the final stages of the "Sale Pending" of our former parish center the St. Elizabeth's Center. When it is accomplished I will inform the parish.

Finally, we look forward to the assistance of a Jesuit deacon during the coming year. Mr. Juan Carlos Rivera, SJ, will be ordained to the diaconate at St. Ignatius Church, Boston College, on Saturday, October 3rd. He has received permission from his Superior to help us at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes during these months of his transitional diaconate leading up to his ordination to the priest in June, 2016. Please pray for his special intention as he prepares himself during these days of September for ordination to the first stage of Major Orders, the diaconate.

(Fr. Higgins)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

ST. LUKE CHAPTER 22:39-46

Jesus' Agony in Gethsemane reiterates certain themes in the Last Supper discourse. For example, Jesus tells the disciples in v. 40, "Pray that you may not undergo the test," recalling the devil's intention to sift the disciples like wheat (v. 31), and indicating that this time has now begun.

Jesus also prays to be excused from his turn of drinking from the chalice of suffering (v. 42), which is linked to the chalice of "the new covenant in [His] Blood" at the Passover meal (v. 20), although each has its own distinctive meaning, as the commentaries indicate. Finally, Jesus demonstrates His loving servitude, the elect model of ministerial leadership for his disciples (v. 27), by freely and fully submitting His will to the will of the Father: "not My will but Yours be done" (v. 42). Thus, Gethsemane is in direct continuity with the Last Supper, and flows out of Jesus' self-gift at that first Mass in the Cenacle.

A unique feature of the Lucan account of Gethsemane is the angelic apparition sent "to strengthen Him" (v. 43). This heavenly moment is typical of St. Luke's repeated depictions of Jesus at prayer, wherein the efficacy of His prayers is often confirmed by a sign or a revelatory teaching. St. Luke is also unique among the evangelists in his visceral description of Jesus' intense suffering: "He was in such agony and he prayed so fervently that His sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground" (v. 44). This is a symptom of extreme distress. The Litany of the Precious Blood recalls this moment in one of its petitions: "Blood of Christ, falling upon the earth in the Agony, save us."

Jesus' Precious Blood shed in the Agony brings the weight of His Passion (and its implications for our lives) to the fore. If we pause to think seriously on this scene, and mentally place ourselves near Jesus during His suffering, we can begin to see our anxieties with better perspective. We can also see more distinctly the priority that must be given to our spiritual life: the Agony helps us to sense a deeper call to union with Jesus in the Mass, and to union with His will in subsequent daily activities and duties according to our state in life. The unparalleled intensity of Jesus' suffering also elicits our compassion, while at the same time calling us to show compassion to those suffering intensely within our own sphere of influence.

After this intense period of prayer, Jesus goes to the disciples, who are "sleeping from grief" (v. 45). Jesus again urges them to pray in light of the spiritual danger of the devil's wheat-sifting: "Get up and pray that you may not undergo the test" (v. 46). He gently, yet firmly reminds them of their duty, so as to strengthen their resolve to do God's will. We do well to heed Jesus' command for prayerful vigilance, since we are not exempt from temptation, either.

One very practical way to observe Jesus' command is to say the Office of Compline ("Night Prayer") before bed, in either form (Ordinary or Extraordinary). It is short, easy to learn, and can be found in part or in full in many Missals, as well as the popular Magnificat publication. An even easier method of praying at night, especially when one cannot sleep, is the Rosary. Jesus' exhortation to pray to avoid temptation is in direct continuity with the final petitions of the Our Father (cf. 11:4). His submission to the Father's will is likewise in direct continuity with the petition, "Thy will be done." Each evening, let us join Our Lord in Gethsemane, and seek to be strengthened in our calling to carry out the will of the Father.

(David Allen)

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 85: 1, 2-4 Bow down Thy ear, O Lord, to me and hear me: Save Thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in Thee all day. Ps. Give joy to the soul of Thy servant; for to Thee, O Lord, I have lifted up my soul. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Lord, may Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Your Church, and, since it cannot be preserved in safety without You, govern it always by Your Providence. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Galatians 5: 25-26; 6:1-10 Brethren: If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be made desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, and if any man be overtaken in any fault, you, who are spiritual, instruct such a one in the Spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so you shall fulfill the law of Christ. For if any man thinks himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let everyone prove his own work, and so he shall have glory in himself only, and not in another. For everyone shall bear his own burden. And let him that is instructed in the word, communicate to him that instructeth him, in all good things. Be not deceived: God is not mocked; for what things a man shall sow, those also shall he reap. For he that soweth in his flesh, of the flesh shall reap corruption: but he that soweth in the spirit, of the spirit shall reap life everlasting. And in doing good, let us not fail; for in due time we shall reap, not failing. Therefore, whilst we have time, let us work good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of the faith.

GRADUAL: Psalm 91:2-3 It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Thy name, O Most High. V. To show forth Thy mercy in the morning, and Thy truth in the night. ALLELUIA: Psalm 94: 3 Alleluia, alleluia. V. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King over all the earth. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 7:11-16 At that time, Jesus went to a city called Naim; and there went with Him His disciples, and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and much people of the city were with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her, and said to her: "Weep not." And He came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said: "Young man, I say to thee, Arise": and he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all: and they glorified God, saying: "A great prophet is risen up amongst us," and "God hath visited His people."

OFFERTORY: Psalm 39: 2,3,4 With expectation I have waited for the Lord, and He had regard to me; and He heard my prayer, and He put a new canticle into my mouth, a song to our God.

SECRET May Thy sacraments, Lord, protect us and always defend us against the devil's attacks. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: John 6:22 The bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world.

POSTCOMMUNION May the power of this heavenly gift take possession, Lord, we implore Thee, of our minds and bodies, so that we may be always guided not by our natural impulses but by its working in us. Through our Lord.

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.
 For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
