ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

WELCOME, FATHER JOHN TOKAZ, OFMcap

We welcome the pastoral assistance of Fr. John Tokaz, from the Capuchin community of the San Lorenzo Friary, Jamaica Plain, to our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. Fr. John will be helping us by offering one of the Sunday Masses each week, insofar as his other commitments allow him to do so. We are very grateful for his generous assistance.

DECEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE DIVINE INFANCY

Pastor's Note

THE GREAT MESSIAH

I would like to dedicate today's space to reprinting the Boston Pilot column of the late David Goldstein, a Jewish convert to Catholicism, regarding the prophecies of the Old Testament of the Bible which clearly point to Jesus of Nazareth as the long-awaited Great Messiah of the Jewish people. It is very edifying for us to ponder this list especially as we are trying to prepare ourselves for the Advent of the Lord. The source is My Boston Pilot Column (A.D. 1962), which is the book-edition of Mr. Goldstein's columns in our Archdiocesan newspaper over many years.

Twenty-five Prophecies of Jesus of Nazareth
The evidence of the coming, as well as of the life and death of Our Lord, is recorded, as you know, in the Old Testament inspired writings of God's foretelling historians. They announced that the Messiah (Christ) was to be racially of Adam (Gen. 3:15); religiously of Moses (Deut. 18:15); nationally of Jacob/Israel (Gen. 49:24); tribally of Judah (Gen. 49:10); and ancestrally of David (Ps. 131:11). Here are 25 Old Testament prophecies regarding the Messiah that were uttered centuries before His birth.

1. God would send a Prophet who would speak for Him (Deut. 18:15)
2. A messenger (St. John the Baptist) would prepare the way. (Mal. 3:1)
3. Would be born in a stated number of weeks (Daniel 9:25-26).
4. The "seed" (Christ) would be born of a woman (Gen. 3:15).
5. Born of a Virgin Mother (Isaiah 7:14).
6. Born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2).
7. Born of the Royal House of David (Jer. 23:5, Is. 11:1).
8. Born under the Star of Jacob (Numbers 24:17).
9. Born at the time of the Second Temple (Haggai 2:10).

9. Born at the time of the Second Temple (Haggai 2:10).
10. Born when the scepter (authority) was taken away from Judah (Gen. 49:10).
11. Would be called a Nazarite (Judges 13:7).
12. Called the "Emmanuel", God-with-us (Is. 7:14)
13. Called "God the Mighty", "Prince of Peace" (Is. 9:6).
14. Be the Good Shepherd (Is, 40:10-11).
15. Kings would come with presents to adore him (Ps. 71:10).
16. Would flee into Egypt (Hosea 11:1).
17. Would be silent before his accusers (Is. 53:7).
18. Would be hailed as a king, while riding an ass through Jerusalem (Zech. 9:9).
19. Would be a Man of Sorrows (Is. 53).
20. Would be betrayed (Ps. 40).
21. Would be sold for thirty pieces of silver (Zech. 11:13).
22. Would suffer willingly for our sins (Is. 50:6).
23. Would be led like a sheep to the slaughter (Is. 53:7).
24. Would be subjected to the piercing of his hands and feet (Ps. 21:17).
25. Would be resurrected from the dead (Is. 11:10).

I submit that no more convincing evidence has ever been presented of the coming, life, and death of any individual in the history of the world, than are recorded in these 25 prophecies that were foretold centuries before the birth of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. If only a few of these prophecies were fulfilled, they would be evidence sufficient to prove Christ to be what He is, the "Emmanuel": God-with-us; God-the-Mighty; the Prince-of-Peace; our Messianic Lord.
—David Goldstein

(Photocopies of this list with the Scriptural references written out is available in the pamphlet rack of the church this Sunday.)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT: ROMANS 15, 4-13.

One of the major recurring themes in St. Paul's epistles is the unity of Jew and Gentile in Christ and in the Church. It is difficult for us who are removed from the situation of the early Church by 2000 years to comprehend how important (and divisive) this issue was in the pastoral ministry of the Apostles, and especially St. Paul. The issue centered on whether it was possible for Gentiles to become Christians without first embracing Judaism, including circumcision and the dietary laws (cf. Acts 15:1-29).

Despite the unanimity of the Apostles on this question, namely, that it indeed was possible for Gentiles to become Christians without first becoming Jews, various false teachers and other people held views on the matter that were divergent from the apostolic teaching (we see this, for example, in the epistles to the Galatians and Colossians, as the commentaries point out). This created problems in fledgling church communities from time to time, and especially for those churches that were likely a mixture of Jews and Gentiles, such as the church in Rome. St. Paul addresses this issue in our Epistle reading today, underlining for his readers the consistent witness of the Scriptures to God's election of the Gentiles along with the Jews as members of the covenant people. He demonstrates this by citing multiple passages that testify to this truth, and exhorts them to foster communion of mind in the truth. The Introit for today's Mass celebrates this great truth of the salvation of the Gentiles explicitly.

The beginning of today's selection from Romans highlights the importance of prophecy in Sacred Scripture as it relates to its application today in the lives of believers. What does Scripture do for us? Why is it given to us?

1. For learning: we come to know the truth about God and ourselves. If we are not paying attention to the message of Scripture, we are seriously missing out on many graces that God desires to give us, which serve to enhance our openness to the graces of the Sacraments. St. Jerome famously tells us that "ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." One could even go further and say that ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of self, insofar as Christ fully reveals what it means to be human, as the Second Vatican Council so wonderfully teaches: "In reality it is only in the mystery of the Word made flesh that the mystery of humanity truly becomes clear" (Gaudium et Spes no. 22).

2. For patience: Reading the life of Christ and the lives of his saints in the Old and New Testaments fortifies our spiritual lives. Scripture encourages us to continue carrying our cross and press on in virtue.
3. For comfort: God's promises concerning our redemption and salvation, which are found throughout the whole of the sacred text, are completely trustworthy. Consequently, reading Scripture in faith engenders real consolation, not the vague and unreliable notions of good feelings that we hear about so often in the Holiday Season.
4. For hope: Ultimately, such authentic comfort nurtures the theological virtue of hope, because it issues from the Holy Ghost, the Inspirer of Sacred Scripture, who is the Comforter (cf. Jn. 14:16).

As you read Scripture, ask God to enlighten you, and to make these above-mentioned points more and more real in your life. The following is an Anglican Use collect that incorporates elements from today's Epistle:

"Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of Thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen."

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTROIT: Psalm 30: 30 People of Sion, behold the Lord shall come to save the nations: and the Lord shall make the glory of His voice to be heard, in the joy of your heart. Psalm 79: 2 Give ear, O Thou that rulest Israel: Thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to prepare the ways of Thine only-begotten Son; that through His coming we may attain to serve Thee with purified minds. Who with Thee liveth and reigneth.

EPISTLE: Romans 15: 4-13 Brethren, What things soever were written, were written for our learning: that, through patience and the comfort of the Scriptures, we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind one towards another, according to Jesus Christ; that with one mind and with one mouth you may glorify God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honour of God. For I say that Christ Jesus was minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers but that the Gentiles are to glorify God for His mercy, as it is written: Therefore will I confess to Thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles and will sing to Thy name. And again He saith: Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with His people. And again: Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and magnify Him, all ye people. And again, Isaias saith: There shall be a root of Jesse; and He that shall rise up to rule the Gentiles, in Him the Gentiles shall hope. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing: that you may abound in hope, and in the power of the Holy Ghost.

GRADUAL: Psalm 49: 2-3, 5 Out of Sion the loveliness of His beauty: God shall come manifestly. V. Gather ye together His saints to Him, who have set His covenant before sacrifices. ALLELUIA: Psalm 121: 1 Alleluia, alleluia. V. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 11: 2-10 At that time, when John had heard in prison the works of Christ, sending two of his disciples, he said to Him: Art thou He that art to come, or look we for another? And Jesus making answer, said to them: Go and relate to John what you have heard and seen. The blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead rise again, the poor have the gospel preached to them: and blessed is he that shall not be scandalized in Me. And when they went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: What went you out into the desert to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went you out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold they that are clothed in soft garments are in the houses of kings. But what went you out to see? A prophet? Yea I tell you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written: Behold I send My angel before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 84: 7-8 Thou wilt turn, O God, and bring us to life, and Thy people shall rejoice in Thee: show us, O Lord, Thy mercy, and grant us Thy salvation.

SECRET Be appeased, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the prayers and offerings of our humility: and where we have no merits to plead for us, do Thou help us with Thine aid. Through our Lord.

Preface of Advent

COMMUNION: Baruch 5: 5; 4: 36 Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and behold the joy that cometh to thee from thy God.

POSTCOMMUNION Filled with the food of this spiritual nourishment, we suppliantly entreat Thee, O Lord, that through our participation in this Mystery Thou wouldst teach us to despise earthly things and to love heavenly ones. Through our Lord.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY
 St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.
 For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
