ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY

LOW SUNDAY

1 John 5:4-10

The overall theme of today's Mass appears to be a meditation on living the graces of one's baptism. Historically, this Mass is called "Dominica in albis deponendis," or "Sunday for taking off the white garments," because the newly baptized would take off their baptismal albs which they had been wearing at Mass for the entirety of Easter Week, as the liturgical commentary in the 1962 hand Missal explains. As they came down from the "high," as it were, of a whole week of relishing the baptismal grace received at the Vigil, they were then instructed to translate this grace into the normal routines of daily life, with a view towards persevering for the long haul.

The message of today's prayers and readings, while directed principally to the newly baptized, does not fail to address the needs of the rest of the faithful. The Collect of the day, for example, includes the whole Church: "Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that we who have celebrated the Paschal Feast [i.e., all the faithful], may, by Thy bounty, retain its fruits in our daily habits and behavior." The Introit Antiphon, quoting 1 Peter 2:2 exhorts, "As newborn babes, alleluia, desire the rational milk without guile..." This is a metaphor for on-going formation in the truths and practice of the faith. Faith formation never ends for anyone. Like hungry nursing babies, we should all hunger and thirst for more of God, his saving revelation, and the transformative grace of his sacraments. We can never get enough.

St. John provides for our hunger and thirst today with beautiful passages from his Epistle and Gospel, wherein the theme of testifying looms large. In today's Gospel, the Apostles, and Thomas in particular, testify to the Resurrection of Jesus, having encountered the Risen Lord in their midst. This is perhaps one of the most climactic scenes of the whole Gospel, because prior to this point, so many other scenes stress the importance of testifying that Jesus is the Son of God, once one has encountered him. Given its importance in the Gospel, it is only natural that the theme of testimony should reappear in St. John's epistolary work, as well.

In today's Epistle, St. John meditates on the role of testimony in several ways. We read that the believer's testimony that "Jesus is the Son of God" is an act of faith that "overcomes the world" (v. 5, cf. Jn. 16:33). In other words, this is an affirmation of the ultimate Lordship of Christ. The Holy Spirit, in turn, testifies that Jesus is the Truth that he claimed to be (vv. 6-8, cf. Jn. 14:6). The water and blood flowing from Jesus' pierced side on the cross testify that he truly died and is truly risen (vv. 6, 8, cf. Jn. 19:34-35). In other words, Jesus did not just "appear" among men like a ghost that looks human, as the Gnostic heretics were more or less asserting in St. John's time. St. John also tells us that God the Father Himself testifies that Jesus is his Son (v. 9). If we read this verse in light of the Gospels, we can think of moments when God the Father spoke and testified about his Son, such as the baptism, the transfiguration, or another moment of theophany in Jn. 12:28. In sum, the truth of Jesus' identity as the Son of God is utterly beyond dispute. When we believe in Jesus, recognizing by faith that He is who He claimed to be, then we have this testimony within ourselves, the inestimable gift of our Catholic faith (v. 10).

Of all the kinds of testimony St. John treats in his Epistle, the testimony of the water and blood, in particular, is integrally linked to the experience of "doubting" Thomas in today's Gospel. As St. John tells us, Jesus graciously invites St. Thomas to touch the wounds of his Passion and to believe (cf. Jn. 20:27). We are not told whether he did this, or whether seeing Jesus standing before him was proof enough. In any event, St. Thomas demonstrates that he had "the testimony of God in himself" when he exclaims with joy and love, "My Lord and my God!" (cf. Jn. 20:28). May this Eastertide afford us many opportunities to renew our faith in the Risen Lord, to translate this faith into a deeper hope in the promise of the resurrection, and to adore Christ with love, like St. Thomas.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: LOW SUNDAY

INTROIT: 1 Peter 2: 2 As newborn babes, alleluia, desire the rational milk without guile, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 80: 2 Rejoice to God our helper: sing aloud to the God of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that we who have celebrated the Pascal solemnity, may by Thy bounty show forth its effects in our life and conversation. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 John 5: 4-10 Dearly beloved: Whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory, which overcometh the world, our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit which testifieth that Christ is the truth. And there are three who give testimony in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that give testimony on earth: the Spirit and the water and the blood: and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men the testimony of God is greater: for this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because He hath testified of His Son. He that believeth in the Son of God hath the testimony of God in himself.

FIRST ALLELUIA: Matthew 28: 7 Alleluia, alleluia. V. On the day of My resurrection, saith the Lord, I will go before you into Galilee. SECOND ALLELUIA: John 20: 26 Alleluia. V. After eight days, the doors being shut, Jesus stood in the midst of His disciples, and said: Peace be to you. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 20: 19-31 At that time, when it was late that same day, the first of the week, and the doors were shut, where the disciples were gathered together for fear of the Jews, Jesus came, and stood in the midst and said to them: Peace be to you. And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. He said therefore to them again: Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you. When He had said this, He breathed on them, and He said to them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them: and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained. Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him: We have seen the Lord. But he said to them: Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe. And after eight days, again His disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said: Peace be to you. Then He saith to Thomas: Put in thy finger hither, and see My hands, and bring hither thy hand, and put it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said to Him: My Lord and my God. Jesus saith to him: Because thou hast seen Me, Thomas, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed. Many other signs also did Jesus in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God; and that, believing, you may have life in His name.

OFFERTORY: Matthew 28: 2, 5, 6 An angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said to the women: He whom you seek is risen, as He said, alleluia.

SECRET Receive, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts of Thy rejoicing Church, and grant that she to whom Thou has given cause for so great joy, may obtain also the fruit of perpetual gladness. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: John 20: 27 Put in thy hand, and know the place of the nails, alleluia; and be not faithless, but believing, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION We beseech Thee, O Lord our God, to make the most holy mysteries, which Thou hast given to ensure our regeneration, a remedy for us both now and for all time to come. Through our Lord.
