ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

JULY IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

Fr. Danahy was very attached to his two dogs whom he named "Christmas" and "Easter". Some parishioners found this name-choice objectionable. In grudging concession he re-named Christmas "Winter".

Little thought was given to handicapped-access in 1910. The remains of the foundation of the original iron fence which enclosed the church property can be detected under the privet hedges.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Romans 8:12-17

Today's Epistle highlights the Person and grace of the Holy Spirit. St. Paul continues his catechesis regarding the effects of baptism and the new life of grace, as we saw in previous two weeks from chapter 6 of Romans. As he explains, "if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live" (v. 13, RSV). The terms "flesh" and "body" here are not meant to denigrate the human body, which is created by God and is good (cf. Gen. 1-2). Rather, St. Paul uses these terms to refer to the presence of concupiscence and sin in an individual, and the way in which these things oppose the supernatural work of the Spirit.

St. Paul explains that the gift of the Holy Spirit makes one an adopted son of God: "For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God" (v. 14, RSV). Every baptized Christian must view of all of life as being "led by the Spirit of God," for all of life indeed belongs to God. How we think, will, and act must be formed by Him if we are going to be true disciples. As Jesus Himself says in the Sermon on the Mount, "Not every one who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven" (cf. Mt. 7:21, RSV). The test of discipleship is obedience to the will of God, in union with the Spirit.

Our Collect for today echoes these points above. Although it does not refer to the Holy Spirit directly, it implies His action in the soul of a baptized person: "Graciously grant to us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the spirit to think and do always such things as are rightful: that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may be enabled to live according to Thy will. Through our Lord, etc."

Firstly, we acknowledge our utter dependence upon God for existence itself. How often we and all mankind take this for granted! Secondly, we acknowledge that we need God's grace to form and strengthen our own intellect and will to think and act in a Christ-like manner.

The logic of this Collect, therefore, is as follows: (1) if we cannot even take our next breath apart from God's grace, and (2) if He has called us not only into existence, but also to think and to act righteously, then (3) we need His grace all the more to enable us to observe His will.

Such grace, as we know from our Epistle today, is not merely a thing, but a Person who assists us in prayer and acts of obedience. As St. Paul explains further on in chapter 8, "the Spirit helps us in our weakness...[He] intercedes for the saints according to the will of God" (vv. 26-27, RSV). This is in accord with what Jesus promises the disciples at the Last Supper: "If you love Me, You will keep My commandments. And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Counselor [in Greek, parákleton], to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth...He dwells with you, and will be in you" (cf. Jn. 14:15-17, RSV).

The term "Paraclete," speaks to His role of coming alongside us and strengthening us by His indwelling as Comforter and Advocate in the trials of life. It is so crucial for us to note that as soon as Jesus lays down the demands of discipleship, He assures us of all the supernatural grace we need to abide in His love. Provided we cooperate with the Holy Spirit's inspirations, He will also enable us to "suffer with [Christ] in order that we may also be glorified with Him," as we hear in the final verse of today's Epistle (v. 17, RSV). Thanks be to God!

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 47:10-11. 2 We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple. according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. Ps. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised in the city of God, in His holy mountain V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Grant us, we pray, Lord, in Thy goodness, the spirit to think and to do always what is right, so that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may be able to live according to Thy will. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 8:12-17. Brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but You have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 30, 3; 70, 1. Be Thou unto me a God, a protector and a place of refuge, to save me. V. In Thee, O God, have I hoped, let me never be confounded. ALLELUIA: Psalm 47, 2. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 16, 1-9. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him: 'How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer.' And the steward said within himself: 'What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.' Therefore calling together every one of his master's debtors, he said to the first: 'How much dost thou owe my lord?' But he said: 'A hundred barrels of oil.' And he said to him: 'Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.' Then he said to another: 'And how much dost thou owe?' Who said: 'A hundred quarters of wheat.' He said to him: 'Take thy bill, and write eighty.' And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say unto you: Make unto yourselves friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings."

OFFERTORY: Psalm 17: 28, 32. Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but Thee, O Lord?

SECRET Receive, Lord, we pray, the offerings which we make to You, of what You Yourself have given us, so that by the power of Your grace these holy mysteries may sanctify our present life and bring us to everlasting joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 33: 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

POSTCOMMUNION: May this heavenly mystery, Lord, restore us both in soul and in body, so that we may feel within us the power of the sacrament which we celebrate. Through our Lord.
