ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME
TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

Pastor's Note

BUILDING A CHAPEL IN LIBERIA

Last week's Bulletin showed photographs of the building of a new mission chapel in one of the 52 "outstations" of Fr. Desire Salako's parish, St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Sennequellie, Liberia. This week, we see photos of the finished chapel. Next Sunday, August 28th, Fr. Salako will preach a Mission Appeal on behalf of his apostolate in West Africa. A second collection will be taken up for his support.

Fr. Desire Salako, S.M.A., stands before the new outstation chapel. Here on the stone altar the priest will re-present the one true sacrifice of Christ on Mount Calvary. “Christ yesterday and today, the Beginning and the End, Alpha and Omega—His are the times and ages. To Him be glory and dominion through all ages of eternity. Amen.” (Blessing of the Paschal Candle, Easter Vigil)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Galatians 5:16-24

St. Paul's words for today's Epistle- "walk by the Spirit, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh" (v. 16, RSV)- constitute a call to live out the grace of our baptism, and not to regress into sin. The term "flesh" in this passage refers not to the body, but to concupiscence, i.e., sinful and disordered desires, which we must strive to overcome with the graces of baptism. The Church teaches that concupiscence "cannot harm those who do not consent but manfully resist it by the grace of Jesus Christ" (Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1264). This is why St. Paul says that "those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires" (v. 24, RSV). It is through union with Christ crucified in baptism that man can mortify the "works of the flesh" listed in vv. 19-21, and produce the "fruit of the Spirit" listed in vv. 22-23.

The Collect for today's Mass alludes to the necessity of the grace of Christ's Passion and Death for protection from sin and guidance in holiness: "Custodi, Domine, quaesumus, Ecclesiam tuam propitiatione perpetua...Guard your Church, we beseech you, Lord, with perpetual propitiation" (also translated as clemency, mercy, or forgiveness). Propitiation is a term referring to the reconciliation of two parties through the offering of atoning sacrifice. We hear this term in 1 John 2:2 applied to Jesus (sometimes the Greek word in this text is also translated into English as "expiation"). By calling on God to protect the faithful with perpetual propitiatione in this Collect, the Church invokes the eternal efficacy of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. She asks the Father that Christ's perfect atoning sacrifice- the propitiatory grace coming from the Liturgy of our High Priest in Heaven- be her principal form of protection from sin. Such a reading of this Collect is supported by the use of the same word (propitiatio) in the Secret Prayer of the Offertory, wherein "the propitiation of [God's] power" is linked directly to the offering of the hostia salutaris, the "Saving Victim," which is Christ.

The Church's communion with the graces of the Mass gives increase to the fruit of the Spirit in her children, provided they take advantage of these graces and "walk by the Spirit." Reconciliation with the Father through Christ's Precious Blood gives man the grace to take on the characteristics and virtues of Christ himself: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (vv. 22-23, RSV). This adds new weight to St. Paul's words "Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh." Christians are not called to mortify the flesh as an abstract exercise in will power or character development. Rather, in baptism, Jesus himself associates our mortifications with His perfect offering on the cross.

We know how badly sometimes we fail to measure up, and thus, how desperately we need His grace. As today's Collect accurately notes, "apart from Thee, frail man is wont to fall." In the same vein, our Gradual from Ps. 118 declares, "It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. It is good to trust in the Lord, rather than to trust in princes." Indeed, the fruit of the Spirit is a supernatural work of grace that takes place in baptized souls docile to the Spirit's action. We are not Pelagians, who dispense with the need for and power of grace. We are Catholics, and thus, we glory in the primacy of God's grace in all things. Hence, we cry out with the Psalmist today once again in our Communion Antiphon, "O taste and see that the Lord is sweet!" (Ps. 33), a verse long interpreted as a prophecy of Holy Communion.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 83: 10-11, 2-3 Behold, O God, our protector, and look on the face of Thy Christ: for better is one day in Thy courts above thousands. Ps. How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Guard Thy Church, O Lord, we pray, with Thy continued mercy, and since our human mortality must fail without Thee, keep it always by Thy help from all that may hurt it, and direct it in the way of salvation. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Galatians 5: 16-24 Brethren: Walk in the spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh: for the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to another, so that you do not the things that you would. But if you are led by the spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are fornication, uncleanness, immodesty, luxury, idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects, envies, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I foretell you, as I have foretold to you, that they who do such things shall not obtain the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the spirit is: charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, longanimity, mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity. Against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified their flesh with the vices and concupiscences.

GRADUAL: Psalm 117: 8-9 It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. V. It is good to trust in the Lord, rather than to trust in princes. ALLELUIA: Psalm 94: 1 Alleluia, alleluia. V. Come, let us praise the Lord with joy; let us joyfully sing to God our Savior. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 6: 24-33 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will sustain the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, be not solicitous for your life, what you shall eat, nor for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than the meat, and the body more than the raiment? Behold the birds of the air; for they neither sow nor do they reap, nor gather into barns, and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not you of much more value than they? And which of you, by taking thought, can add to his stature one cubit? And for raiment, why are you solicitous? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they labor not, neither do they spin; but I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. Now if God so clothe the grass of the field which is today, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more you, O ye of little faith! Be not solicitous therefore, saying: 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'Wherewith shall we be clothed?' for after all these things do the heathens seek. For your Father knoweth that you have need of all these things. Seek ye therefore first the Kingdom of God, and His justice; and all these things shall be added unto you."

OFFERTORY: Psalm 33: 8-9 The angel of the Lord shall encamp round about them that fear Him, and shall deliver them: O taste and see that the Lord is sweet!

SECRET Grant us, we pray, Lord, that this saving Victim may both purify us from our sins and propitiate for us Your almighty power. Through Our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Matthew 6:33 Seek first the Kingdom of God: and all things shall be added unto you, saith the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION May Thy sacraments, Lord, at all times purify and defend us; and may they bring us to the fullness of eternal salvation. Through our Lord.

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
