ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

FRONT COVER

Our weekly bulletin cover for this year's World Mission Sunday is the front of the new out-station chapel built this past year by Fr. Desire Salako, S.M.A., as part of the Catholic parish St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Sennequellie, Liberia. The parishioners helped to build this church themselves with the help of funds from Italy and France.

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

Pastor's Note

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY AND THE "LIFE ISSUES"

I begin this week's Pastor's Note with an update on Fr. Desire Salako, S.M.A. As we were able to see from the pictures he shared with us over the summer, Father and the people from one of the 52 out-stations of his mission parish in Liberia built a new chapel for their worship. With the help of the offerings he received from Mary Immaculate of Lourdes parish he was able to buy suitable vessels and religious ornaments for the altar. Last month Fr. Salako and his parishioners celebrated the dedication of their new church as the chapel of St. Elizabeth.

Since then, however, Father Salako has had to leave his pastorate in Liberia at the request of his Superior in Rome in order to assume a new duty as Father Provincial for a newly-formed province of his missionary congregation, the Society of African Missions. This province includes his home-country Benin, Niger and the Central African Republic. He must see to the care of 71 S.M.A. Fathers and the formation of seminarians for future missionary priests. This, obviously, is a heavy responsibility and we hope to remain in contact with him in order to be of continued help to his mission.

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday in the Church and take up a Collection which goes to support the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Our attention to the missionary efforts of the Church in poor countries also offers us an opportunity to consider the relation of the Church's Social Doctrine and Love for the Poor to the issues around Respect for Human Life.

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church the morality of social justice is addressed under the headings of the Second of the Two Great Precepts of Charity (Love of Neighbor) and the Seventh of the Ten Commandments ("Thou Shalt Not Steal"), particularly under the headings: IV. Economic Activity and Social Justice (PAR 2226-2236); V. Justice and Solidarity Among Nations (PAR 2437-2442); and VI. Love For The Poor (PAR 2443-2449).

It is sometimes objected that linking the defense of unborn children's right-to-life with other issues of social justice is a way of weakening the Church's position on the immorality of abortion. This would certainly be true if a person were trying to justify his indifference to the evils of the abortion industry by claiming that he is very involved in other social justice issues concerning the poor. But it is also not permitted a Catholic to be indifferent to the whole body of the social doctrine of the Church on the excuse that combating abortion is the only moral issue that really counts.

Everything counts! The moral principles which animate the Church's Defense of the Unborn are the same moral principles which animate the Church's Defense of the Poor against the injustices they face and the degradation of their human lives.

Let us consider, for example, this section from the Catechism:

[Human] misery elicited the compassion of Christ the Savior, who willingly took it upon Himself and identified Himself with the least of His brethren. Those who are oppressed by poverty are the object of a preferential love on the part of the Church which, since her origin and in spite of the failings of many of her members, has not ceased to work for their relief, defense, and liberation though numerous works of charity which remain indispensable always and everywhere. (PAR 2248)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST PHILIPPIANS 3:17-21, 4:1-3

Perhaps the most prominent part of today's passage from Philippians is a brief catechetical point regarding the resurrection of the body (one of the articles of the Apostles' Creed which we hold by faith). St. Paul explains that "we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will change our lowly body to be like His glorious body, by the power which enables Him even to subject all things to Himself" (vv. 20-21, RSV). These verses are a perfect preview to next week's commemoration of Christ the King in the 1962 Missal. Our Lord Jesus Christ is the Lord of the cosmos, and human history. No matter how godless the world becomes, or how difficult and burdensome our individual lives become, He is still on his throne (as if anyone or anything could seriously challenge that!).

Sadly, many people in affluent Western culture haven't the slightest idea of how to approach the issues of death or dying, or what to think regarding an afterlife (or if there even is one). This is rooted in their lack of faith in Christ as their Risen King. They do not know Him as their "personal Lord and Savior," as our Evangelical brethren would rightly put it. Our Christian faith, by contrast, gives us a robust picture of what awaits those who are Christ's, namely, bodily resurrection to life. It is on the basis of this promise that St. Paul pleads with his flock in 4:1, "Therefore...stand firm in this way in the Lord, my beloved" (RSV, emphasis mine). What we hold by faith must influence how we live, and by extension, our outlook on eternity. Thus, for example, while we grieve deeply for our beloved dead, and pray diligently for their blessed repose, the Church would also have us stand firm in the promise of their bodily resurrection.

In view of the approaching month of November devoted to prayer for the faithful departed (and just for the sake of comparison with today's passage), let us turn to the following catechesis of St. Paul to the Church in Thessalonica, which is worth quoting in full:

"But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the archangel's call, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first; then we who are alive, who are left, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words." (cf. 1 Thes. 4:13-18).

Thus, St. Paul gives here a fuller treatment of the doctrines of bodily resurrection and the Last Judgment than that which is set forth only briefly in today's passage from Philippians.

While bodily resurrection escapes our personal experience in this life, it is a truth grounded in the certainty of Biblical faith. Our Lady, the Apostles, and many others saw the Risen Lord. Our Lady possesses a risen body now along with her Son. All people will see this Risen Christ again, as St. John tells us in the book of Revelation: "Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, every one who pierced Him" (cf. Rev. 1:7, RSV).

LATIN MASS PROPERS: TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Jer. 29: 11, 12, 14 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84:2 Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Absolve, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the sins of Thy people; that we may be delivered by Thy goodness from the bonds of sins, which by our frailty we have committed. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Philippians 3: 17-21; 4:1-3 Brethren, be followers of me, and observe them who walk so as you have our model. For many walk, of whom I have told you often (and now tell you weeping) that they are enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame; who mind earthly things. But our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Savior, Our Lord Jesus Christ, who will reform the body of our lowliness, made like to the body of His glory, according to the operation whereby also He is able to subdue all things unto Himself. Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and most desired, my joy and my crown: so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved: I beg of Evodia, and I beseech Syntyche to be of one mind in the Lord: and I entreat thee also, my sincere companion: help those women who have labored with me in the Gospel, with Clement and the rest of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GRADUAL: Psalm 43:8-9 Thou hast delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. V. In God we will glory all the day, and in Thy name we will give praise forever. ALLELUIA: Psalm 129:1-2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:18-26 At that time: as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, behold a certain ruler came up, and adored Him, saying: Lord, my daughter is even now dead; but come lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus, rising up, followed him, with His disciples. And behold a woman, who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment. For she said within herself: If I shall touch only His garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler, and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a tumult, He said: Give place; for the girl is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. And when the multitude was put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame thereof went abroad into all that country.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 129:1-2 From the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer: from the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET We offer to Thee, O Lord, this sacrifice of praise to increase our zeal in Thy service: that what Thou hast begun in us Thy unworthy servants, Thou wouldst mercifully bring to completion. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Mark 11:24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive, and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION We beseech Thee, almighty God, that Thou wouldst not permit us to be subject to human dangers, to whom Thou givest to rejoice in the participation of divine mysteries. Through our Lord.

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
