ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

ANNIVERSARY OF THE PARISH CHURCH DEDICATION

THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 24th, 1910

Each year on Thanksgiving Day we celebrate the Anniversary of the Dedication of our parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. This year, the 106th Anniversary, has the happy co-incidence of corresponding exactly with the calendar date (November 24th) and the civic holiday (Thanksgiving Day) of the Dedication in 1910.

On Thanksgiving Day this week I will offer two parish Masses. The first, at 7:30 AM, will be the Mass of Thanksgiving Day in the United States. The second, at 9:00 AM, will be the Mass on the Anniversary of a Church's Dedication.

On the day of the Dedication in 1910, the Post-Communion Prayer read as follows:

We pray Thee, almighty God, that in this place which we, though unworthy, have dedicated unto Thy name, Thou wouldst incline the ears of Thy loving kindness unto all who call upon Thee. Through our Lord.

Each year on the Anniversary Mass of the Dedication this Post-Communion Prayer is read:

O God, from living and chosen stones Thou preparest an eternal dwelling-place for Thy majesty; assist Thy suppliant people, that Thy Church, whilst benefiting by material enlargement, may also expand by spiritual increase. Through our Lord.

Note the clear theological thoughts of these prayers. The material building, however beautiful it may be, is not the primary blessing. In the Dedication Post-Communion the primary blessing is that this place, especially dedicated to God, may be a place wherein people's prayers will find favor and that the people may experience God's loving kindness towards them. In the Anniversary Post-Communion, the primary blessing recalled is that human souls have grown closer to God and found their way to Heaven by means of this church building (from living and chosen stones Thou preparest an eternal dwelling-place for Thy majesty). The Church's success is measured by the "spiritual increase" in the parishioners' souls.

Let us give heartfelt thanks to God for our parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes on the Anniversary of its Dedication because it is the domus Dei (the House of God) and the porta caeli (the Gate of Heaven).

(Fr. Higgins)

THANKSGIVING DAY MASSES, NOVEMBER 24th, 2016.

7:30 AM: Thanksgiving Day Mass

9:00 AM: (Latin Low Mass) Mass on the Anniversary of the Dedication of a Church & Thanksgiving Day commemoration.

For those who come to Mass on Thanksgiving Day, you are invited to bring food prepared for your table to be blessed at the end of each of these two Masses. (Please note there will be no 5:30 PM Mass on Thanksgiving Day.)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY LAST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST INTRODUCTION TO THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

Beginning next Sunday, the First Sunday of Advent, I will offer weekly reflections on the Collect prayers of our Roman liturgical patrimony. Since we are a dual-form parish, I will draw from both the 1962 and 1970 editions of the Roman Missal. Since we are likewise a parish entrusted to the patronage of Our Lady, I will tend to emphasize the Collects of Marian feast days as a way of deepening our devotion to her.

Unfortunately, so many times we hear the Collects at Mass and we are not in the warmth of devotion. They go in one ear and out the other (they are short and direct, after all). If we pause to break them open, however, we begin to discover virtually never-ending riches and spiritual insights that can deeply nourish our minds and hearts for prayer. The Collects can even become for us particularly beloved parts of the Mass, and a stalwart aid to our personal devotion, increasing and fortifying our knowledge and love of Christ.

In today's Epistle, St. Paul prays for his flock in Colossae, "that [they] may be filled with the knowledge of his [i.e., God's] will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding" and may be "increasing in the knowledge of God" (vv. 9-10, RSV). One of the best ways to grow in this kind of spiritual knowledge is to study and love the liturgical prayers of the Church, as the lives of the saints often show us. The fathers of the Second Vatican Council explicitly desired that both clergy and laity alike understand the riches of the liturgy in order to enhance authentic participation (Sacrosanctum Concilium nos. 11, 14). If we want to know our faith well, and if we want to learn how to pray better, it is in our best interest to learn from the source texts at the heart of the Church's life.

Before examining our first Collect next week, I want to set forth our working method for examining and interpreting these prayers (cf. Adrian Fortescue, The Mass: A Study of the Roman Liturgy, pp. 244-253, and Anscar Chupungco, The Prayers of the New Missal: A Homiletic and Catechetical Companion, 9-17). We look first at the structure of a Roman Collect. Generally, it has five elements:

1. The Name of God in one form or another (e.g., "Almighty, ever-living God," or "Lord")
2. An ascription of God in the form of a relative clause, telling us something about one of God's qualities or His work of creation and redemption, (e.g., "who _____"),
3. A central petition, sometimes cast in two parts, (e.g., "mercifully grant that _____"),
4. Another clause which lays out the hoped-for outcome of the petition, or one or more motives for the petition, (e.g., "so that _____" or "we who _____"),
5. And the concluding doxological formula, "Through Christ our Lord," or the longer, "Through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen."

One may apply this five-fold schema to virtually any Collect and identify its constitutive parts. Having laid these out, one may then reform them into a syllogism, that is, a three-part "argument," in order to identify the controlling idea or main point, and it looks like this:

- A) If God does/is... (the ascription of God),
- B) And if we... (the hoped-for outcome or the motive for the petition),
- C) Then God will... (the petition).

This is just a generic way of looking at the terms of a syllogism, and it will make more sense when we look an example. But I show you this methodology, because it is when we have broken down the Collects to their most basic elements and reworked them into a syllogism, that we really can begin to see very clearly what the liturgy is teaching us about God, Christ, and the saints, as well as how we are to understand and pray within the mysteries of the faith we are celebrating (Chupungco, Prayers of the New Missal, 10). I hope you enjoy this new series!

LATIN MASS PROPERS: LAST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Jeremias 29: 11, 12, 14 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Psalm 84:2 Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Stir up the wills of Thy faithful people, we beseech Thee, O Lord: that more earnestly seeking the fruit of good works, they may receive more abundantly the gifts of Thy loving kindness. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: Colossians 1: 9-14. Brethren: We cease not to pray for you, and to beg that you may be filled with the knowledge of the will of God, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that you may walk worthy of God, in all things pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might according to the power of His glory, in all patience and long suffering with joy; giving thanks to God the Father; who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the saints in light; who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the remission of sins. GRADUAL: Psalm 43: 8-9

Thou hast delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. V. In God we will glory all the day: and in Thy name we will give praise for ever. ALLELUIA: Psalm 129: 1-2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 24: 15-35 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: When you shall see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place; (he that readeth, let him understand) then they that are in Judea, let them flee to the mountains; and he that is on the house-top, let him not come down to take anything out of his house; and he that is in the field, let him not go back to take his coat. And woe to them that are with child, and that give suck, in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter, or on the sabbath: for there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been found from the beginning of the world until now neither shall be: and unless those days had been shortened, no flesh should be saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say to you: Lo, here is Christ, or there; do not believe him; for there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold I have told it to you beforehand: if therefore they shall say to you: Behold He is in the desert, go ye not out; behold He is in the closets, believe it not. For as lightning cometh out of the east, and appeareth even into the west, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Wheresoever the body shall be, there shall the eagles also be gathered together. And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven shall be moved; and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn; and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with much power and majesty; and He shall send His angels with a trumpet and a great voice, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest parts of the heavens to the utmost bounds of them. And from the fig-tree learn a parable: when the branch thereof is now tender, and the leaves come forth, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see all these things, know ye that it is nigh even at the doors. Amen I say to you that this generation shall not pass till all these things be done. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 129: 1-2 From the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my prayer: from the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord. SECRET Be favourable, O Lord, to our supplications, and accepting the offerings and prayers of Thy people, convert the hearts of all to Thee: that being delivered from earthly desires, we may pass on to heavenly desires. Through our Lord. COMMUNION: Mark 11: 24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by this sacrament which we have received, that whatsoever is corrupted in our souls may be restored by the gift of its healing power. Through our Lord.

St. Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
