ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

DECEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE DIVINE INFANCY

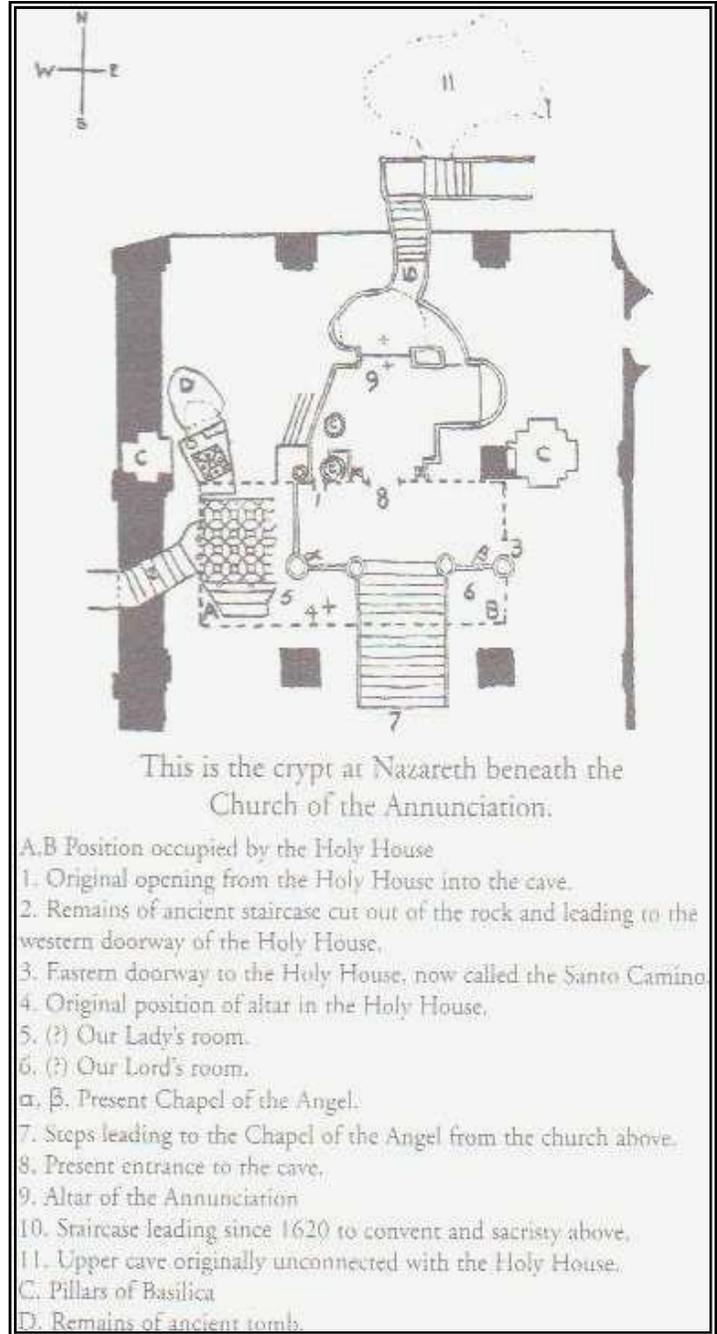

Pastor's Note

THE HOLY HOUSE OF LORETO: "NOTHING SHALL BE IMPOSSIBLE WITH GOD"

The final part of the answer that the Angel Gabriel gives to Our Lady when she asks how she is to become the Mother of the Savior — "For nothing shall be impossible with God"— might also be considered as one of the refrains of praise which Christians can sing to God along with "Alleluia!", the "Benedicite" ("Bless the Lord") of the Canticle of the Three Young Men (Daniel 3. 57-88, 56), and the "For His mercy endureth forever" ("quoniam in aeternum misericordia eius") refrain of Psalm 135. From the great public miraculous signs God gives to the world, to the miracles of grace we become aware of in our own personal life, our wonderment should proceed to praise: "For nothing shall be impossible with God."

The four miraculous translations of the Holy House of Jesus, Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to the Croatian coast and then to Loreto in southern Italy between 1291-1294 A.D. were a great public miraculous sign. The diagram to the right shows how the Holy House would have stood in the crypt of the Church of the Annunciation at Nazareth before its Translation. It helps us also to understand how the cottage was built up against the cave on the hillside which the family used as another room and which is venerated as the actual place Our Lady was when she received the visit of the Archangel Gabriel. (Source: Rev. G.E. Phillips: Loreto and the Holy House: Its History Drawn from Authentic Sources, originally published 1917 A.D.)

One of the fascinating facts about the Holy House of Loreto is that it still stands today, more than 700 years after its Translation, without a foundation. How? It is as if this fact echoes Gabriel's words spoken in that House two millennia ago: "For nothing shall be impossible with God" as the answer to that question.

On this Fourth Sunday of Advent so close to Christmas let us ask Our Lady to obtain for us graces of faith to believe more firmly still in the Mystery of the Incarnation—that God became Man in Jesus Christ "for us men and for our salvation."

(Fr. Higgins)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the principal Collect for the Fourth Sunday of Advent (MR 1970), which is also the Collect prayed at the end of the Angelus devotion. Below is the official ICEL translation of this Collect in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal (2010):

"Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O Lord (address),
2. Who sent Gabriel to announce your Son's Incarnation [Note: The Collect implies God's action even as it uses the passive voice: "the Incarnation...was made known by the message of an Angel." God sent the Angel Gabriel, according to St. Luke 1:27.]
3. Pour forth your grace into our hearts, we beseech you (central petition),
 - 4a. We, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel (motive for the petition),
 - 4b. That we may be brought by Jesus' Passion and Cross to share in the glory of his Resurrection (hoped-for outcome),
5. Who lives and reigns, etc. (concluding doxological formula)

Before forming a syllogism, we do well to hear from St. Thomas Aquinas on the Annunciation. In Article 1 of Question 30 of the tertia pars of the Summa Theologica, St. Thomas argues, "It was reasonable that it should be announced to the Blessed Virgin that she was to conceive Christ...that she should be informed in mind concerning Him, before conceiving Him in the flesh." Going on further, St. Thomas quotes St. Augustine, who says of this matter, "Her nearness as a Mother would have been of no profit to Mary, had she not borne Christ in her heart after a more blessed manner than in her flesh." (ST III, q. 30, a. 1). In other words, Our Lady conceived Jesus in her mind and heart before she conceived him in her womb.

One may argue that Mary's conception of Jesus in this first manner is similar to the infusion of grace mentioned in the Collect's central petition: "pour forth your grace into our hearts." The Collect also appears to link the faithful to Mary in regard to the Angel's message in the motive for the petition: "we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel." Thus, we may even say that the announcement of Gabriel is itself an infusion of grace which we pray for and receive anew every Christmastide (and March 25th, and any time we pray the Angelus!). This announcement prompts the faithful to journey with Mary from the moment of the Incarnation, through the Passion, and towards the glory of the Resurrection and the Beatific Vision. Thus, when re-formed into a syllogism, the Collect looks like this:

- A) If God, who poured forth into Mary's mind and heart an infusion of grace, also gives us an infusion of his grace through the same message (which we joyously celebrate each Advent and Christmastide),
- B) And if we, like Mary, fully accept and enter into the plan of salvation in God's Incarnate Son,
- C) Then the Incarnate Christ will lead us to the resurrected life of heaven by a share in the saving merits of His Passion and Cross.

This Collect is fittingly placed in Advent for it summarizes the whole sweep of the liturgical year, which initiates us into the mysteries of Christ's life, Death, and Resurrection (cf. CCC no. 1194). By embracing the message of God-with-us, we will be on the right road for experiencing the totality of the plan of salvation as it unfolds during this new liturgical year.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: RORATE SUNDAY

INTROIT: Isaiah 45: 8 Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just: let the earth be opened and bud forth a Saviour. Psalm 18: 2 The heavens show forth the glory of God: and the firmament declareth the work of His hands. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Stir up Thy power and come, we pray Thee, O Lord, and with great might succour us; that our deliverance, which our sins impede, may be hastened by the help of Thy grace and the forgiveness of Thy mercy. Who livest and reignest God.

EPISTLE: 1 Corinthians 4: 1-5 Brethren, let a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ and the dispensers of the mysteries of God. Here now it is required among the dispensers that a man be found faithful. But to me it is a very small thing to be judged by you or by man's day: but neither do I judge my own self. For I am not conscious to myself of anything: yet am I not hereby justified, but He that judgeth me is the Lord. Therefore, judge not before the time, until the Lord come; who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise from God.

GRADUAL: Psalm 144: 18, 21 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him: to all that call upon Him in truth. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless His holy name. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. V. Come, O Lord, and tarry not: forgive the sins of Thy people Israel. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 3: 1-6 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and Philip his brother tetrarch of Iturea and the country of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilina, under the high-priests Annas and Caiphas: the word of the Lord was made unto John, the son of Zachary, in the desert. And he came into all the country about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of penance for the remission of sins, as it was written in the book of the sayings of Isaias the prophet: A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make straight His paths: every valley shall be filled: and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways plain: and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

OFFERTORY: Luke 1: 28, 42 Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

SECRET Look down favourably upon these sacrifices, O Lord, we beseech Thee: that they may be profitable to our devotion and salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of Advent

COMMUNION: Isaias 7: 14 Behold a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son: and His name shall be called Emmanuel.

POSTCOMMUNION Having received Thy gifts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that with the frequentation of the mystery, the work of our salvation may increase. Through our Lord.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
