ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

JANUARY IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

FR. DESIRE SALAKO, S.M.A.: CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FROM WEST AFRICA

Joy to the World! We have received the New Born here also in our heart. I was in Niger and in the North of Benin for Christmas and the New Year. My confreres were happy to see me in their various missions. It is for them a sign of hope that they are not alone in all those missions given to them by God Himself. I was happy to see them full of strength but with fears also because of 'Islamic menaces or risk of kidnapping', especially the white missionaries. I assured them of my prayers and my support.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY, JANUARY 15th, A.D. 2017

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the principal Collect for the Feast of the Holy Family (MR 1962). In the Extraordinary Form, this Feast is celebrated on the First Sunday after Epiphany (i.e., last week). In the Ordinary Form, the Holy Family is celebrated either on the Sunday after Christmas, or, in the case of this year, on December 30th (the Sunday after Christmas this year was Jan. 1, the Feast of Mary, Mother of God, which is an immovable Solemnity). We will treat the remaining Collects (Secret and Post-Communion) for this feast the next two weeks. As we continue to bask in the glow of Christmastide, it seems most fitting to meditate on the love of the Holy Family. Below is the unofficial translation provided in the Angelus Press edition of the Roman Catholic Daily Missal:

"O Lord Jesus Christ, Who, being subject to Mary and Joseph, didst sanctify home life with ineffable virtues: grant that, with the aid of both, we may be taught by the example of Thy Holy Family, and attain to eternal fellowship with them. Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O Lord Jesus Christ (address to Christ, which is unusual, as Collects normally address the Father),
2. Who, being subject to Mary and Joseph, didst sanctify home life with ineffable virtues (a double acclamation of Christ),
3. grant that we may be taught by the example of Thy Holy Family (petition),
- 4a. with the aid of both (motive for the petition),
- 4b. and attain eternal fellowship with them (while one may argue that this is a secondary petition, it is essentially the hoped-for outcome of the first petition)
5. Who livest and reignest, etc. (concluding doxological formula).

Re-fashioned into a syllogism, we may interpret the Collect like this:

- A) If Christ made ordinary family life holy by infusing it with virtues through submission to Mary and Joseph,
- B) And if we submit to the aid and teaching of Mary and Joseph, striving as much as we can to make our homes like theirs in Nazareth,
- C) Then we may hope to attain fellowship with them in the eternal home of heaven.

This Collect links each Christian home (what Tradition immemorial calls the "Domestic Church") to the Universal Church, by way of the personal protection of the Holy Family. Just as Mary and Joseph cared for Christ on earth, so too, even now, they exercise a unique solicitude and protection over his Mystical Body on earth, guiding and providing for all the faithful on their pilgrimage to heaven. How often then should we seek their intercession in all of the daily aspects of life! Indeed, what an awesome consolation that they are so prompt and so fit to help us shoulder our daily crosses!

Perhaps the most important thing we learn in this Collect, however, is the humility of Our Lord. The Son of God was obedient to His mother and His foster-father, both of whom he had created. If Christ stooped to this level of docility to two of His creatures (albeit, His two most excellent creatures), who are we to rebel against the commandments of Our Heavenly Father?

Indeed, Jesus shows us that humility is possible, and even desirable in domestic life, for it creates an atmosphere harmony and peace (a fore-taste of heaven). Such humility is motivated by the love of God and is ordered to that same love. If we live this way now (which is certainly no cake walk, hence the need for grace), we will be well on our way to heaven. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph show us the way, and they likewise give us the grace we need to live and love as they do.

(David Allen)

2. Mass intentions may be “announced” or “unannounced”, according to the preference of the one requesting the Mass.
3. The requested offering amount (set by the Archdiocese of Boston) is $10 per Mass, announced or unannounced. An amount given over-and-above the $10 will be treated as an offering to the Parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.
4. Only 1 Mass intention is allowed per Mass according to the instructions of the donor (e.g., the donor may have several distinct intentions bundled into the one Mass.)
5. Two parish public Masses per week are “Collective Intention” Masses, per the instruction of the Archbishop Cardinal Seán. At Mary Immaculate of Lourdes these Collective Intention Masses are the Sunday 10:30 Latin Mass and the 9:00 Saturday Latin Mass. At these Masses multiple Mass requests and offerings are accepted, the theological “fruits” of the Mass being divided accordingly.
6. One Mass per week is reserved for the Parish Purgatorial Society (usually, Mondays at the 7:30 AM Mass.)
7. At the 9 AM Saturday Mass, the first of the Collective Intentions is for All the Souls in Purgatory.
8. Mass offerings are distinct from other donations made to the parish and should be designated as such.
9. “Unannounced Masses” will appear in the Bulletin as either “Intention of the Donor” or “Intention of the Celebrant” with no requester’s name given.
10. Masses will be scheduled according to the requested date and time insofar as possible. Otherwise, the date/time will be approximate.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

INTROIT: Ps. 65. 4 Let all the earth adore Thee, O God, and sing to Thee: let it sing a psalm to Thy Name, O Most High. Psalm 65.1-2 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His Name: give glory to His praise. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace all the days of our life. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Romans 12: 6-16 Brethren: Having different gifts, according to the grace that is given us: either prophecy, to be used according to the rule of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he that teacheth, in doctrine; he that exhorteth, in exhorting; he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with carefulness; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good: loving one another with the charity of brotherhood: with honor preventing one another: in carefulness not slothful: in spirit fervent: serving the Lord: rejoicing in hope: patient in tribulation: instant in prayer: communicating to the necessities of the saints: pursuing hospitality. Bless them that persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice, weep with them that weep: being of one mind towards one another; not minding high things, but consenting to the humble.

GRADUAL: Psalm 106. 20-21 The Lord sent His word, and healed them: and delivered them from their destruction. V. Let the mercies of the Lord give glory to Him: and His wonderful works to the children of men.
ALLELUIA: Psalm 148. 2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. Praise ye the Lord, all His Angels: praise ye Him, all His hosts. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 2. 1-11 At that time there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus was also invited, and His disciples, to the marriage. And the wine failing, the mother of Jesus saith to Him: They have no wine. And Jesus saith to her: Woman, what is that to Me and to Thee? My hour is not yet come. His mother saith to the waiters: Whatsoever He shall say to you, do ye. Now there were set six water-pots of stone, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece*. Jesus saith to them: Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And Jesus said to them: Draw out now, and carry to the chief steward of the feast. And they carried it. And when the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the waiters knew who had drawn the water: the chief steward calleth the bridegroom, and saith to him: Every man at first setteth forth good wine: and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee; and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 65. 1-2, 16 Shout with joy to God, all the earth: sing ye a psalm to His Name: come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what great things the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

SECRET Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts which we offer, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

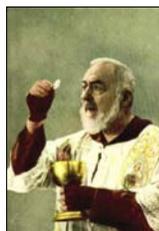

COMMUNION: John 2. 7, 8, 9, 10-11 The Lord saith: Fill the water, and carry to the chief steward. When the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, he saith to the bridegroom: Thou hast kept the good wine until now. This first miracle did Jesus in the presence of His disciples.

POSTCOMMUNION May the operation of Thy power be increased within us; we beg Thee, O Lord, that being quickened by Thy divine sacraments, we made by Thy bounty, be prepared to receive that which they promise. Through our Lord.The Jews wash their hands several times before eating (St. Mark 7. 3). One measure would contain about 8½ gallons. Each water-pot, therefore, held between 17 and 25½ gallons and the six together between 102 and 153 gallons.*

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
