ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

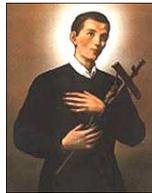

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

THE POPE'S UNIVERSAL INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL, 2017:

“That young people may respond generously to their vocations and seriously consider offering themselves to God in the priesthood or consecrated life.” (PHOTO: Pope Francis bestows a kiss on the forehead of Clement Pappin, St. Peter's Square, 2015.)

*SPECIAL INTENTION: For all the expectant mothers of our parish family.
“St. Gerard Majella, pray for us”*

Prayer for Motherhood:

O good St. Gerard, powerful intercessor before God and Wonderworker of our day, I call upon thee and seek thy aid. Thou who on this earth didst always fulfil God's designs, help me to do the Holy Will of God. Beseech the Master of Life, from Whom all paternity proceedeth, to render me fruitful in offspring, that I may raise up children to God in this life and heirs to the Kingdom of His Glory in the world to come. Amen.

ROGATION PROCESSION TODAY, April 30th, after the 10:30 Mass.

At the conclusion of the 10:30 Latin Mass this Sunday we will hold the St. Mark's Day Rogation Procession of the Greater Litanies. This public procession is a corporate act of penance and petition: imploring God to preserve us from calamities and to send down His blessings on the land to make it fruitful for the harvest.

APRIL IS THE MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

“And at the end of it all we take our palms home, and reverently place them behind our crucifix; and we would do well to use the palms of all the members of our family, placing them in the living room, the kitchen, the bedroom, the garden—in any place where we pass our time—that they may remain there throughout the year...The palms are not instruments of magic; they are not like superstitious amulets supposed to possess any power or virtue of their own; but they are visible signs of the powerful prayer of God’s Church which calls down the blessing of God upon all the places where they are put. We who have faith in the Church should have faith in her prayers, and make use of their power to our sanctification and protection.”

SCRIPTURE STUDY

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN
MISSAL: ST. JOSEPH THE WORKMAN
APRIL 30th, A.D. 2017

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker (May 1). The Latin text is nearly identical in both forms of the Mass. Below is the official ICEL translation of this Collect in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal (2010):

"O God, Creator of all things, Who laid down for the human race the law of work, graciously grant that by the example of Saint Joseph and under his patronage we may complete the works You set us to do and attain the rewards You promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O God, Creator of all things (address),
2. Who laid down for the human race the law of work (ascription),
- 3a. graciously grant that we may complete the works You set us to do (first petition),
- 3b. and attain the rewards You promise (second petition),
4. by the example of St. Joseph and under his patronage (motive for the petitions),
5. Through our Lord, etc. (concluding doxological formula).

Re-fashioned into a syllogism, we may interpret the Collect like this:

- A.) If God, the author of all Creation, has established work for man as a law befitting his dignity,
- B.) And if St. Joseph becomes our model and patron in worthy obedience to God's law,
- C.) Then God will help us to complete what he has commanded and bestow promised rewards.

The Feast of St. Joseph the Worker "was instituted in 1955 by Pope Pius XII on a day when labor was celebrated in many countries," as the commentary in the Catholic Truth Society's New Daily Missal explains (p. 2664).

This is a somewhat mild description. Truthfully, the pope's action was intended to be a robust and pointed response to the Communists. The Communist government "celebrated" the lives of ordinary plebeian workers, the pieces making up the collective, on May 1. In contrast to their false notions of the human person, the pope imposed this new feast directly on top of the secular celebration, symbolically quashing it.

Marxist ideology is radically opposed to the Judeo-Christian notion of the human person with his innate, God-given dignity. Man is not a mechanical functionary whose value hinges upon his limited utility to the whole. Rather, man has infinite value as a person, created in the image and likeness of God, and his work is an integral component of this dignity (cf. Gen. 1:26-30). Human work, therefore, comes from God's beautiful and perfect design before the Fall (its pains being an effect of the Fall). Scripture testifies that God graciously associates men and women in his rule of and care for the world through the law of work. It is integral to human dignity. [Please note that this in no way is meant to suggest that those who cannot work or those whose work does not entail a paycheck have less human dignity. The Church's teaching stresses the dignity of the human person without qualification. The Church also upholds the dignity of work for which there is no monetary remuneration.]

Pius XII chose to uphold St. Joseph as the model worker, because he exemplifies the virtues of Christian work, and the dignity of the human person created in the image of God. Of all the saints, St. Joseph manifests most clearly the personal and professional virtues of faithfulness, diligence, piety and humility. When we, as baptized Christians, offer our work to God in union with Christ, we can merit graces for ourselves and for others, both living and departed (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 2006-2011). These are the rewards to which our Collect refers. May St. Joseph spur us on by his example and prayers to embrace God's will in our work, and to merit the rewards He promises.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY (2nd AFTER EASTER)

INTROIT: Psalm 32: 5-6 The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord, alleluia: by the word of the Lord were the heavens made, alleluia, alleluia. Ps.32:1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: praise is comely for the upright. V. Glory be.

COLLECT O God, who by the humility of Thy Son hast raised up a fallen world, grant to Thy faithful people abiding joy; that those whom Thou hast delivered from the perils of eternal death, Thou mayest cause to enjoy endless happiness. Through the same.

EPISTLE: 1 Peter 2: 21-25 Dearly beloved, Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow His steps. Who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth. Who when He was reviled, did not revile: when He suffered, He threatened not, but delivered Himself to him that judged Him unjustly: who His own self bore our sins in His body upon the tree: that we, being dead to sins, should live to justice: by whose stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls.

FIRST ALLELUIA: Luke 24: 35 Alleluia, alleluia. V. The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread. SECOND ALLELUIA: John 10: 14 Alleluia. V. I am the good shepherd: and I know My sheep, and Mine know Me. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 10: 11-16 At that time Jesus said to the Pharisees: I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. But the hireling, and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and leaveth the sheep and flieth: and the wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep: and the hireling flieth, because he is a hireling, and he hath no care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd: and I know Mine, and Mine know Me, as the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father: and I lay down My life for My sheep. And other sheep I have that are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 62: 2, 5 O God, my God, to Thee do I watch at break of day; and in Thy name I will lift up my hands, alleluia.

SECRET May this holy oblation, O Lord, ever draw down upon us Thy saving blessing; that it may perfect in virtue what it represents in mystery. Through our Lord.

Preface for Easter

COMMUNION: John 10: 14 I am the good shepherd, alleluia: and I know My sheep, and Mine know Me, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION Grant us, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that we who obtain from Thee the grace of a new life, may every glory in Thy gift. Through our Lord.
