ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

That Christians in Africa, in imitation of the Merciful Jesus, may give prophetic witness to reconciliation, justice, and peace.” (PHOTO: Pope Francis bestows a kiss on the forehead of Clement Pappin, St. Peter's Square, 2015.)

*SPECIAL INTENTION: For all the expectant mothers of our parish family.
“St. Gerard Majella, pray for us”*

Prayer for Motherhood:

*O good St. Gerard, powerful intercessor before God and Wonderworker of our day, I call upon thee and seek thy aid. Thou who on this earth didst always fulfil God's designs, help me to do the Holy Will of God.
Beseech the Master of Life, from Whom all paternity proceedeth, to render me fruitful in offspring, that I may raise up children to God in this life and heirs to the Kingdom of His Glory in the world to come. Amen.*

BLESSING OF THE PASCHAL CANDLE:

“May Thy abundant blessing come down upon this lighted candle, we entreat Thee, Almighty God: and do Thou look down upon it, invisible creator of new life, as it shines in the night; that not only the sacrifice that is offered this night may shine by the secret mixture of Thy light: but also whatsoever place anything of this mystically blessed object shall be brought, there the power of Thy majesty may be present, and all the malice of satanic deceit may be driven out. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.”

SCRIPTURE STUDY

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: OUR LADY OF FATIMA MAY 14th, A.D. 2017

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the memorial of Our Lady of Fatima (May 13). This day commemorates her first appearance 100 years ago to the three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. Below is the official ICEL translation of this Collect in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal (2010):

"O God, who chose the Mother of your Son to be our Mother also, grant us that, persevering in penance and prayer for the salvation of the world, we may further more effectively each day the reign of Christ. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O God (address),
2. who chose the Mother of Your Son to be our Mother also (ascription),
3. grant that we may further more effectively each day the reign of Christ (petition),
4. we, who are persevering in penance and prayer for the salvation of the world (motive),
5. [Christ] who lives and reigns, etc. (concluding doxological formula).

Re-fashioned into a syllogism, we may interpret the Collect like this:

- A. If Christ gave Mary to us as our Mother when He gave her to St. John,
- B. And if we obey Mary's injunctions at Fatima for persevering in prayer and penance,
- C. Then Christ's kingdom will be more effectively realized in our world.

This Collect presents one of the most basic principles of Mariology, namely, that Mary is our Mother "in the economy of grace," a teaching stemming from the Church's age-old interpretation of Jesus' words on the Cross: "Behold, your mother!" (cf. Jn. 19:27, RSV). Mary's intercession for us as our Mother is intimately united to her Son's saving work on the Cross.

Fourth Sunday after Easter

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Newton/Needham, Massachusetts

All of her good works and merits (as well as ours), participate in "the superabundance of Christ's merits" (cf. Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium nos. 60-62). Through her various apparitions, but especially at Fatima, Mary invites us to join our prayer and penance to hers at the foot of the Cross, for our own and others' salvation. In so doing, our Collect envisions that Christ's reign will be furthered more effectively.

For our prayer and penance to yield fruit, however, His kingdom must become ever more concrete in our lives if it is to become something that will be realized more concretely anywhere else. An orthodox profession of faith is critical, but its potency is diminished if it is not matched by holiness of life "each day," in the words of our Collect. Holiness must permeate all. This is Mary's way, she who is "full of grace," that is, full of holiness, full of divine life (cf. Lk. 1:28).

I would like to leave the final word to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith's theological commentary on the third secret of Fatima, entitled "The Message of Fatima," dated June 26, 2000. In its final paragraph, then-Cardinal Ratzinger wrote the following, which leads us to a proper interpretation and application of Fatima:

"I would like finally to mention another key expression of the "secret" which has become justly famous: "my Immaculate Heart will triumph". What does this mean? The Heart open to God, purified by contemplation of God, is stronger than guns and weapons of every kind. The fiat of Mary, the word of her heart, has changed the history of the world, because it brought the Saviour into the world—because, thanks to her Yes, God could become man in our world and remains so for all time...From that time forth, the word that prevails is this: "In the world you will have tribulation, but take heart; I have overcome the world" (Jn 16:33). The message of Fatima invites us to trust in this promise."

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Psalm 97: 1, 2 Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle, alleluia, for the Lord hath done wonderful things, alleluia: He hath revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 97:1 His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him salvation. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, who makest the minds of the faithful to be of one will, grant to Thy people to love that which Thou commandest and desire that which Thou dost promise; that so, among the changing things of this world, our hearts may be set where true joys are to be found. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: James 1: 17-21 Dearly beloved, every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change nor shadow of alteration. For of His own will hath He begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be some beginning of His creature. You know, my dearest brethren. And let every man be swift to hear, but slow to speak and slow to anger. For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God. Wherefore, casting away all uncleanness and abundance of naughtiness, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

FIRST ALLELUIA: Psalm 117: 16 Alleluia, alleluia. V. The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me. SECOND ALLELUIA: Romans 6: 9 Alleluia. V. Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more: death shall no more have dominion over Him. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 16: 5-14 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: I go to Him that sent Me; and none of you asketh Me: Whither goest Thou? But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart. But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go; for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He is come, He will convince the world of sin, and of justice and of judgment. Of sin, because they believed not in Me; and of justice, because I go to the Father, and you shall see Me no longer; and of judgment, because the prince of this world is already judged. I have yet many things to say to you: but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will teach you all truth. For He shall not speak of Himself: but what things soever He shall hear He shall speak, and the things that are to come He shall show you. He shall glorify Me: because He shall receive of Mine and shall show it to you.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 65: 1-2, 16 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His name: come and hear, and I will tell you, all ye that fear God, what great things the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

SECRET O God, who by the sacred intercourse of this sacrifice hast made us partakers of the one supreme divine nature: grant, we beseech Thee, that as we know Thy truth, so we may follow it by a worthy life. Through our Lord.

Preface of Easter

COMMUNION: John 16: 8 When the Paraclete, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will convince the world of sin, and of justice and of judgment, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION Assist us, O Lord our God, that by these gifts which we have received in faith, we may be purified from vice and delivered from all dangers. Through our Lord.
