ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

JUNE IS THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Pastor's Note

MUSICAM SACRAM (INSTRUCTION ON MUSIC IN THE LITURGY) IN ITS 50th YEAR

This year marks the 50th Anniversary of an important post Vatican II document on what music should be in the Church's liturgy. That document is Musicam Sacram ("Sacred Music"), Instruction on Music in the Liturgy, dated March 5th, 1967. On account of the turbulent times in which it was written its implementation fell far short. In many parts of the Catholic world the opposite happened in Catholic worship. The music heard at Mass was anything but sacred!

The document still carries papal authority, however, and we can take Musicam Sacram as a sure guide for our own parish liturgy at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

First of all we want to be clear on what sacred music is:

"By sacred music is understood that which, being created for the celebration of divine worship, is endowed with a certain holy sincerity of form." (Musicam Sacram/MS 4a)
"The following come under the title of sacred music here: Gregorian chant, sacred polyphony in its various forms both ancient and modern, sacred music for the organ and other approved instruments, and sacred popular music, be it liturgical or simply religious." (MS 4b)

The true purpose of this sacred music is: "the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful." (MS 4)

A Mass that is sung with music that fits in with this definition of "sacred music" is the preferred way of celebration: "Liturgical worship is given a more noble form when it is celebrated in song, with the ministers of each degree fulfilling their ministry and the people participating in it. Indeed, through this form, prayer is expressed in a more attractive way, the mystery of the liturgy, with its hierarchical and community nature, is more openly shown, the unity of hearts is more profoundly achieved by the union of voices, minds are more easily raised to heavenly things by the beauty of the sacred rites, and the whole celebration more clearly prefigures that heavenly liturgy which is enacted in the holy city of Jerusalem. Pastors of souls will therefore do all they can to achieve this form of celebration." (MS 5)

Prior to the reforms of the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s the Mass was either read (a "low Mass"), or sung (a "high Mass"). In the Pauline Reform Mass of 1970 this distinction is erased in order for parts of the Mass to be sung at every celebration.

The promotion of the active participation of the whole people shown in singing the parts that pertain to them (e.g., acclamations, responses to the greetings of the priest and ministers, antiphons and psalms, refrains or repeated responses, hymns and canticles) applies to the older form of Mass in Latin as well as to the Novus Ordo. "One cannot find anything more religious and more joyful in sacred celebrations than a whole congregation expressing its faith and devotion in song." (MS 16)

Thanks to the excellent work of our parish Music Director Mrs. Bobbie Hoffmann we have in place here a music program in keeping with these principles. Spurred by the occasion of this 50th Anniversary of Musicam Sacram I hope that we will do yet more to refine our application of the Church's instructions on sacred music in the divine worship. It is well worth the effort and the effort itself is a joyous undertaking.

(Fr. Higgins)

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: JUNE 11th, A.D. 2017 TRINITY SUNDAY

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the Feast of The Most Holy Trinity (MR 1962). Below is the unofficial translation provided in the Angelus Press edition of the Roman Catholic Daily Missal:

"O Almighty and everlasting God, Who hast enabled Thy servants, in confessing the true Faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Majesty to adore Its Unity: we beseech Thee, that by steadfastness in the same Faith, we may ever be defended against all adversity. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O Almighty and everlasting God (address),
2. Who hast enabled Thy servants, in confessing the true Faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Majesty to adore Its Unity (ascription),
3. we beseech Thee, may we ever be defended against all adversity (petition),
4. by steadfastness in the same Faith (motive),
5. Through our Lord, etc. (concluding doxological formula).

Re-fashioned into a syllogism, we may interpret the Collect like this:

- A) If the One true God has revealed himself to us as a Trinity of Persons and enabled us to adore Him accordingly
- B) And if we remain steadfastly grounded in this orthodox faith and worship,
- C) Then God will protect us against the adversities of the devil, who seeks to draw us away from a right understanding and worship of God.

Confession and adoration are the two actions that today's Collect proposes for our consideration, for they characterize the fundamental moments of Christian life. In Baptism, we confess the Church's Faith in the Holy Trinity, and receive a share in His divine life by the invocation of His Triune Name with the washing of water. In the other Sacraments, too, and especially in the Holy Eucharist, we confess and adore the Trinity, thanking Him for Creation and Redemption, and receiving grace for daily life in Christ (i.e., the moral life, or the life of grace).

Unfortunately, we have a spiritual adversary in this life, who spares no effort at drawing man away from a right understanding of God, and from receiving His divine life in the Sacraments. As a result of the Fall, moral depravity, concupiscence, a darkened intellect, and a multitude of temptations obscure man's ability to know and love God (and frankly, our ability to know and love one another). Almost every heresy in Church history has aimed to distort some aspect of our faith in the Trinity, the grace of the Seven Sacraments, or man's response to grace in the moral life. All of the above comprise the "adversities" to which the Collect refers. The devil does not want us to know the truth, or to receive and respond to God's grace.

How are we to experience God's protection against these obstacles? Our Collect challenges us today to remain steadfast in the orthodox faith as Mother Church gives it to us. Does anyone in their right mind want to be duped about anything? Whether it is an insurance quote or a matter of our relation to God, we all want (and are owed) the truth. Today's Feast grounds us in what is essential: confession and adoration of the Trinity. Let us be grounded in the truths of the faith, the graces of daily prayer, and the regular infusion of sacramental grace. Let us heed the exhortation of St. John Paul II at his installation Mass as pope: "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ.... We ask you therefore, we beg you with humility and trust, let Christ speak to man. He alone has words of life, yes, of eternal life."

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
