ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

THE POPE'S INTENTION FOR EVANGELIZATION FOR THE MONTH OF JULY, 2017:

“LAPSED CHRISTIANS: That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may discover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.” (PHOTO: Pope Francis bestows a kiss on the forehead of Clement Pappin, son of parishioners Gladden and Jeannette Pappin, St. Peter's Square, 2015.)

*SPECIAL INTENTION: For all the expectant mothers of our parish family.
“St. Gerard Majella, pray for us”*

Prayer for Motherhood:

*O good St. Gerard, powerful intercessor before God and Wonderworker of our day, I call upon thee and seek thy aid. Thou who on this earth didst always fulfil God's designs, help me to do the Holy Will of God.
Beseech the Master of Life, from Whom all paternity proceedeth, to render me fruitful in offspring, that I may raise up children to God in this life and heirs to the Kingdom of His Glory in the world to come. Amen.*

Pastor's Note

THE IRAQI CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AND THE CHALDEAN CATHOLIC RITE

Last week in my Pastor's Note I presented some of the photographs Fr. Desiré Salako had given me of his mission work in Niger, one of the world's poorest countries which has an impoverished Catholic population of 2.5% and which has suffered massive communal violence from Muslim fanaticism.

In the work that Father Salako and his missionaries are doing in Africa they are part of some of the newest churches of the Catholic Faith in the world today. The evangelization of most of the continent of Africa dates back to the extraordinary mission work that was done in the late 1800s to the first half of the 1900s by the European missionary congregations. Now there is an abundant native African clergy. They in turn are continuing to spread the Gospel. In the many of the places where Fr. Salako and the S.M.A Fathers go it is where the Church is in its most basic state: the state of "primary evangelization." Fr. Salako's work among us during his summer visits is helping to make us vividly aware of this.

If Fr. Salako represents the newest churches of the Faith, our Iraqi Catholic Community here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes brings the heritage of one of the oldest churches of the Faith. The Catholic Faith beyond the eastern frontier of the ancient Roman Empire received the Gospel from several of the original Twelve Apostles, in particular St. Thomas. According to legend it was St. Thomas who instructed the (then very old) Magi Kings and baptized them.

The Catholic Faith flourished in Mesopotamia and Persia. Due to the political rivalries between the Roman and Persian Empires communication between the eastern Christian churches and Rome was complicated. In the course of the 5th Century A.D. many of these churches drifted into Nestorianism (a christological heresy of Nestorius, bishop of Constantinople, died A.D. 451, who denied the unity of Christ's Person but posited that Christ's human nature was a single, independently existing nature—thus only the human Jesus was born of Mary, only the human Jesus died on the Cross. Nestorius refused the title of Mary as "Mother of God").

The Arab conquests of the 7th-8th centuries A.D. brought with them the new religion of Islam. Over the centuries the Christian population in Mesopotamia and Persia (modern-day Iraq and Iran) diminished but the core of the native Christian civilization proved resilient. Contact between Rome and these Apostolic Churches occurred during the Crusades and the Middle Ages. In the later part of the 16th Century, at the time of the Council of Trent, formal re-union was established between Rome and many Christians in Mesopotamia and Persia who renounced the Nestorian heresy. Our Iraqi Catholics with whom we are sharing our church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes are the descendants of this re-unification.

For the last century, beginning with the calamitous events of World War I, the Chaldean Catholics have suffered devastating blows to their traditional communities. The genocidal war against them by ISIS, destroying the network of Christian communities on the Ninevah Plain in 2014, seems to have put an end to an ancient Christian way of life.

The dispersed Iraqi Catholics who have found refuge in the United States are naturally trying to preserve their religious traditions by re-building church communities.

The former Syriac-rite Mission of Our Lady of Mesopotamia is now under the care of the Chaldean Eparchy of Detroit and the Eastern United States. They will receive their second visit from their new chaplain Fr. Hermiz Haddad next Saturday, July 29th (as the notice above shows).

Consider what a blessing it is for our parish church to have the Chaldean-rite Mass celebrated here: what a sign both of the unity and the durability of the Catholic Church, and of the actuality of Christ's promise: "And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matt. 16)

The elevated and extravagant tone of the prayers of the Chaldean-rite liturgy ought not to be separated from the awareness of what the faithful remnant of Christians in that part of the world has endured. For example, this Antiphon:
Before the magnificent throne of Your glory, O Lord, the exalted and sublime seat of Your majesty, the revered bema of Your intense love, the absolving altar which You have erected, and the place in which Your glory dwells; we, Your people and the sheep of Your flock, along with the innumerable cherubim that praise You, and the multitude of seraphim and archangels that glorify You; we kneel, adore, confess, and glorify You at all times, O Lord of all: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever. Amen.

THE COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: JULY 23rd, A.D. 2017 SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene (July 22). Below is the official ICEL translation of this Collect in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal (2010):

"O God, whose Only Begotten Son entrusted Mary Magdalene before all others with announcing the great joy of the Resurrection, grant, we pray, that through her intercession and example we may proclaim the living Christ and come to see Him reigning in your glory. Who lives and reigns, etc. Amen."

Broken down into its five-part structure, the Collect looks like this:

1. O God (address),
2. Whose Only Begotten Son entrusted Mary Magdalene before all others with announcing the great joy of the Resurrection (ascription),
3. Grant, we pray, that we may proclaim the living Christ and come to see Him reigning in Your glory (dual petition),
4. Through her intercession and example (motive for the petition)
5. Who lives and reigns (concluding doxological formula).

Re-fashioned into a syllogism, we may interpret the Collect like this:

- A) If Christ sent Mary Magdalene to announce the joy of His Resurrection to the Apostles,
- B) And if Mary Magdalene prays for us and inspires us to imitate her example,
- C) Then we too will experience her same joy in proclaiming and seeing the Risen Christ.

Today's Collect stresses the theme of Evangelization, that is, sharing the good news of Jesus with others, especially by word. Last year, Pope Francis raised St. Mary Magdalene's day from a Memorial to a Feast. In the decree establishing this elevation, "Apostle of the Apostles," his reason is clear: she had a crucial role in announcing the Resurrection to the Apostles, and therefore, is a saint of evangelization, par excellence.

This liturgical legislation should not come as a surprise, given the Holy Father's wonderful post-synodal Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) in 2013. In this document, His Holiness reminds the Church that every baptized person is called by Christ to share their faith by word and example (cf. EG nos. 119-121). Of course, this is nothing new; he simply re-articulates the constant teaching of the Church.

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church authoritatively teaches, the responsibility and capability to evangelize are constitutive to the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. In these Sacraments, Christians are configured to Christ as members of His Body, and share in His three offices of Priest, Prophet, and King (cf. Catechism nos. 783-786, 1213, 1268, 1270, 1285, 1304-1305). The second item, the prophetic office, concerns our sharing the good news of Jesus' love to others, especially non-Christians. The Scriptures, the Magisterium, and the lives of the Saints are simply brimming over with this teaching.

Some, however, might be thinking, "I don't know how to do this." This can be settled easily in two ways. Firstly, the Church authoritatively teaches that every Catholic has a duty to form their mind and their conscience in the truths of the faith (cf. Catechism nos. 1783-1785). Begin with some solid spiritual and theological reading, indeed, the Catechism itself, and keep on learning. You can never claim to know or have read enough.

Secondly, we must also consider that St. Mary Magdalene was not a professional theologian. To refer again to Pope Francis' decree "Apostle of the Apostles," he very consciously elevated her status on the Church's calendar because of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, and because her relationship with Christ is characterized by mercy. As the MR '62 aptly identifies her, she is a "penitent," having been exorcised by Christ of seven demons (Lk. 8:2). We, like her, can invite others to the joy of Christ's mercy in His Church's sacramental life (EG nos. 1, 3, 24, 47).

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 46:2 Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46:3 For the Lord is the most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 6:19-23. Brethren; I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:12,6. Come, children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 7:15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY: Daniel 3:40 As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O God who in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel, that what each one of us has brought here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 30:3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
