ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

Third Sunday after Easter

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, APRIL 22nd, 2018:

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the principal Collect for the Mass of the Fourth Sunday of Easter in the Missale Romanum 1970, which is devoted to the theme of Christ as the Good Shepherd. (Last week was "Good Shepherd Sunday" in the Missale Romanum 1962). Below is the official ICEL English translation of the original Latin Collect for today's Mass in the MR'70:

"Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before. Who lives and reigns, etc. Amen."

Today's Collect, like the one we examined last week from the MR'62, links us once again to Christ's self-description as the Good Shepherd in John 10. One of the most striking lines in our Gospel today is the following declaration of our Lord: "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that I may take it again. No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of My own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again; this charge I have received from My Father" (cf. Jn. 10:17-18, RSV).

Jesus clearly predicts His Death and Resurrection. He is not a pawn, but goes freely to His Passion. Furthermore, Jesus rises again from the dead of His own power. No mere man can do this: only the God-man, Jesus Christ, has the power to rise from the dead, and to grant a share in His Resurrection to any who seek Him with faith.

When the prayer speaks of Christ as "the brave Shepherd," it indicates especially the victory of His Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension over death, sin and the devil. Comforting images of Christ and cuddly lambs aside (I have no problem with these by any means), we do well to be reminded that this analogy of Christ as the Good Shepherd is not meant to be cute. Rather, it is a dramatic image of brave combat, sacrifice, death, victory, and triumph.

The Church's liturgy also looks at the whole of the Paschal Mystery in exactly this way. We can see this especially in certain lines of the Easter Paschal Sequence hymn, Victimae paschali laudes:

"A Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless, reconciles sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal....Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!"

We can see, then, that the theme of Christ as the Good Shepherd has been present with us ever since Easter morning itself.

In our Collect, we ask God that we, Christ's flock, may reach heaven, where Christ, the brave Shepherd, has preceded us. We may argue that the Collect implies that in following our brave Shepherd, we also must be brave, in order to merit heaven. A flock can only reach good pastures by following the course set by the Shepherd. Christ's course is this: a free and loving embrace of the Father's will, and consequently, a self-sacrificing love for others, even if this should entail suffering. Christian bravery consists in uniting our sufferings with Christ's glorious wounds in the hope of redemption and resurrection (cf. Easter Vigil, Blessing of Paschal Candle). By our communion with our brave Shepherd, that is, by sharing in the triumph of His risen life, Christ will give us the grace to imitate Him and to be vessels and channels of His love.

DOMINIC GUNDRUM UPDATE:

Over five years ago we welcomed the family of Mark and Mary Gundrum to Mary Immaculate of Lourdes when they brought their baby son Dominic for a high-risk operation at Boston's Children's Hospital. Today Dominic is leading the life of a normal boy: he is in regular kindergarten, talks a lot and loves playing basketball. Here are some family photos Dominic's father has shared with us:

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EASTER SUNDAY

INTROIT: Psalm 65. 1-3 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia: sing ye a psalm to His Name, alleluia: give glory to His praise, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Say unto God: How terrible are Thy works, O Lord! In the multitude of Thy strength Thine enemies shall lie to Thee. Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Shout with joy ...

COLLECT: O God, who to those that go astray dost show the light of Thy truth, that they may return to the path of justice: grant that all who are enrolled in the Christian faith, may both spurn all that is hostile to that name, and follow after what is fitting to it. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son...

EPISTLE: From First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 2. 11-19) Dearly beloved: I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain yourselves from carnal desires, which war against the soul, having your conversation good among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by the good works which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation. Be ye subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake: whether it be to the king as excelling, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of the good: for so is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not as making liberty a cloak for malice, but as the servants of God. Honor all men: love the brotherhood: fear God: honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy before God: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PASCAHL ALLELUIA: Psalm 110. 9; Luke 24. 46 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 110. 9.) The Lord hath sent redemption to His people. Alleluia. (Luke 24. 46.) It behooved Christ to suffer and to rise again from the dead, and so to enter into His glory. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 16. 16-22 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: A little while, and now you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me: because I go to the Father. Then some of His disciples said to one another: What is this that He saith to us: A little while, and you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me, and, Because I go to the Father. They said therefore: What is this that He saith, A little while? We know not what He speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him. And He said to them: Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said: A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me. Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also you now indeed have sorrow: but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man shall take from you. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 145. 2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: in my life I will praise the Lord: I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, O Lord, by these Mysteries, that checking our earthly longings, we may learn to love heavenly things. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: John 16. 16 A little while, and you shall not see Me, alleluia; and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the Sacraments which we have received, we beseech Thee, O Lord, renew us with spiritual refreshment and defend us with bodily help. Through our Lord ...
