ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

We will hold our annual outdoor Memorial Day Mass at our parish cemetery of St. Mary's at 10 o'clock in the morning. All are welcome to attend.

Monday, May 28th, 2018:

4000 Attend Dedication of Cemetery Altar

Monthly Memorial Rites Planned at Needham; Abp. Cushing Officiates

NEEDHAM, May 30—Some 4000 residents of Newton, Wellesley and Needham this afternoon attended the dedication of a new outdoor altar in St. Mary's Cemetery, where Archbishop Cushing officiated.

The altar, constructed of Weymouth granite on a flagstone platform, is in an arbor of gold and green arbor vitae. It will be used for memorial service on each first Sunday of the month from now until the end of October, weather permitting.

A procession of church societies, Legionnaires, clergy and civic dignitaries preceded the ceremony. Rev. Frederick L. Driscoll, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Lynn, officiated at benediction. He was assisted by Rt. Rev. Robert H. Lord, pastor of St. Paul's, Wellesley, and Very Rev. Msgr. Matthew P. Stapleton, vice rector of St. John's Seminary, Brighton.

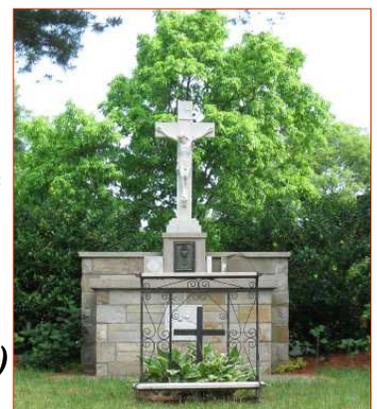

Many thanks to parishioner Martha Phillips who obtained for us an archive photo from the Boston Herald and a news story from the Daily Boston Globe on the dedication of the outdoor altar at our parish cemetery of St. Mary's which took place on May 30th, 1952. According to the news article 4,000 people attended this Dedication, officiated by the Archbishop of Boston Richard Cardinal Cushing. (He had not yet been made a Cardinal then.)

The Herald photo shows Archbishop Cushing assisted by the Pastor of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Rev. John R. Wall. The three priests on the other side are identified as Rev. Michael Noonan of Framingham, Rev. Frederick Driscoll of Lynn and Rev. Cornelius O'Leary of Wellesley. Behind Archbishop Cushing can be seen Sisters of Charity wearing their distinctive habits modeled on the widow's bonnet of their foundress Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton.

As the Globe story indicates, the altar was originally to be used for a Mass for the Dead on each First Sunday of the month until the end of October, "weather permitting". Although this altar is no longer used for our annual Memorial Day Mass it is still preserved at the cemetery and a beautiful reminder of the Sacrifice of Calvary.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, MAY 27th, 2018: ST. AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Post Communion Collect for the Feast of St. Augustine of Canterbury (May 28th) in the Missale Romanum 1962 ed. Below is the English translation of this prayer in the Angelus Press edition of the Roman Catholic Daily Missal:

"O God, Who by the preaching and miracles of blessed Augustine, Thy Confessor and Bishop, didst vouchsafe to shed upon the English people the light of the true faith: grant that, through his intercession, the hearts of the straying may return to the unity of Thy truth, and that we may do Thy will with one accord. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

As we celebrate Trinity Sunday today, we do well to meditate on the life of a missionary who, in his own day, fulfilled the "Great Commission" of our Lord to teach the nations and baptize them in the Name of the Trinity (cf. Mt. 28:18-20).

Pope St. Gregory the Great sent St. Augustine, the prior of his own monastery on the Caelian Hill, on a lengthy journey from Rome to England at the end of the sixth century in order to rekindle the Faith on that island. Christianity had already taken root in some regions of England, but generally speaking, it had suffered decline for various reasons, and was in need of robust renewal. St. Augustine was fearful of what might befall him, but God's grace made his mission a great success, and it has a vibrant legacy. The Collect for this feast can help us to consider more deeply how we may be more faithful to our mission here in the local Church.

In the petition, we pray that "the hearts of the straying may return to the unity of Thy truth." In other words, we must desire and pray for others who do not know or love Christ or His Church, so that they may come to know and love Him in His One Church. In praying for them, we are truly loving them, for to love someone is to desire their good. To pray for someone else's conversion to Christ and His Church is to desire their highest good, namely, a share in divine life!

Praying in this way calls us to an unabashed affirmation that the Catholic Faith is the true religion. In other words, the revelation of Jesus Christ to His Catholic Church is the fullness of truth, which is entirely coherent in its unity, simplicity, mystery, and beauty. We believe this about the truths shown us in divine revelation as well as those of natural revelation, because they proceed from and culminate in Christ, the Word, who is Himself this One Truth (cf. Jn.1:1-14, 14:6; Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 33-5, 38, 41, 50, 107-8, 286, 427, 1698).

In recognizing the unity of the truth, we pray that we may do God's will, i.e., that which is truly good. Our petition carries with it the consequent recognition that there are moral goods and moral evils, whose quality can be determined by their correspondence to what is truly and objectively good for the human person. We pray that we may do those things which correspond to the providential design of the good God for our salvation (cf. Catechism nos. 1733, 1749-56, 1951-8). In this way, Catholics who, by God's grace, live the fullness of the truth will renew both the Church and the whole of society (cf. Catechism nos. 775, 898-9, 908-9). In an intensely relativistic age, wherein the salvation of many souls hangs in the balance, believing Catholics must be knowledgeable, clear, gentle, faithful, and full of joyful conviction in presenting and living the teaching of Jesus and His Church.

Mr. David Allen, M.T.S., is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: TRINITY SUNDAY

INTROIT: Tobias 12:6 Blessed be the Holy Trinity, and undivided unity: we will give glory to Him, because He hath shown His mercy to us. Psalm 8:2 O Lord, our Lord, how wonderful is Thy name in all the earth! V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given to Thy servants grace, in the confession of the true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Thy majesty to worship the Unity; grant that by steadfastness in the same faith we may evermore be defended from all adversities. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Romans 11:33-36 O the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible are His judgments, and how unsearchable His ways! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? Or who hath been His counselor? Or who hath first given to Him, and recompense shall be made him? For of Him, and by Him, and in Him, are all things: to Him be glory for ever. Amen.

GRADUAL: Daniel 3:55-56 Blessed art Thou, O Lord, that beholdest the depths and sittest upon the Cherubim. V. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven, and worthy of praise for ever. ALLELUIA: Alleluia, alleluia. V. Blessed art Thou, O Lord the God of our fathers, and worthy to be praised for ever. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 28:18-20 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: All power is given to Me in heaven and on earth. Going therefore, teach ye all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world.

OFFERTORY: Tobias 12:6 Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit; because He hath shown His mercy to us.

SECRET Sanctify, we beseech Thee, O Lord our God, by the invocation of Thy holy name, the victim of this oblation, and by its means make us an eternal oblation to Thee. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Tobias 12:6 We bless the God of Heaven, and before all living we will praise Him; because He has shown His mercy to us.

POSTCOMMUNION May the reception of this sacrament, O Lord our God, and the confession of the holy and eternal Trinity and of its undivided unity, profit us to the salvation of body and soul. Through our Lord.
