ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

WELCOME BACK, FATHER SALAKO

We are happy to welcome back Father Desiré Salako, Provincial Superior of the Society of African Mission for Benin/Niger, as our visiting assistant priest for the summer months of July and August. This is Father Salako's 4th summer here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

As the Father Provincial, Father Salako has had to travel a great deal this past year, visiting not only the S.M.A. missions within his province of the countries of Benin and Niger, but also the priests attached to his province who are assigned to missions throughout the continent of Africa. The pictures here show the mission at Sastown in Liberia.

Father Salako has also been overseeing the ongoing construction of their new seminary, which we have been able to contribute to through the support we have given to his annual mission appeals at the end of his summer stay. Here are some pictures of this new seminary. One the classroom is dedicated to Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Newton (Salle M.I.O.L. Newton).

bushes, an appropriate image of the Holy Trinity and of the trinitarian symbolism built into a 30th anniversary observance, 3 x 10. These rose bushes have since been planted around Our Lady's statue in the parish gardens, adding beauty to that space. I was also very touched by the dedication book, and the good will and kind sentiments expressed in the dedication notes. My 30th Anniversary was indeed a day for me to count my blessings and to call blessings down from heaven on you, the parishioners of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church.

REMEMBERING BROTHER SAVIO

We join the Friars of the Atonement in mourning for Brother Savio McNeice, S.A., who died this past month. For many years Brother Savio would accompany Brother Thomas to our Sunday Latin Mass here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. He will be remembered for his kindness and his gentle, teasing sense of humor.

Bro. Savio was celebrating his Diamond Jubilee as a Religious this year—sixty years in Religious Life. Requiescat in Pace.

30th ANNIVERSARY OF ORDINATION

This past week on Monday, June 25th, I celebrated my 30th Anniversary of priestly ordination. In observance of this happy milestone I was presented with a lovely cake at the parish coffee hour after the 10:30 AM Latin Mass on Sunday together with three rose

I also want to acknowledge that Fr. John Tokaz, O.F.M cap., one of our visiting assistant priests, just celebrated his 40th Anniversary of priestly ordination. Ad Multos Annos, Father John!

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, JULY 1st, 2018: PRECIOUS BLOOD

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Post-Communion Collect for the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus (Missale Romanum 1962). Below is the English translation of this prayer in the Campion Missal and Hymnal:

"Admitted to the sacred table, O Lord, we have drawn water in gladness from the fountain of the Savior; may His Blood, we beseech Thee, become unto us a well of water springing up unto everlasting life. Who with Thee liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen."

This Post-Communion Collect contains two wonderful scriptural allusions. Firstly, we have the messianic prophecy of Is. 12:3: "With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation" (RSV). This text fittingly leads us back to today's Gospel (Jn. 19:30-35), where the Blood and Water flowing from Our Lord's pierced Sacred Heart are the Sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist (cf. St. John Chrysostom, Catecheses 3; Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1067).

The second part of this prayer quotes Our Lord in John 4:14: "whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life" (RSV). Here, Jesus speaks of the indwelling of the Holy Ghost and the share He grants us in divine life. This is certainly one of the principal realities of Holy Communion, as we saw in the Post-Communion Collect from Pentecost Sunday a few weeks ago.

Indeed, our reception of the Blood of Christ bears fruit in a beautiful differentiation of graces. For this, we turn to the Litany of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Among its twenty-four invocations, the following four are particularly noteworthy:

"Blood of Christ, without which there is no forgiveness, save us." Quoting Heb. 9:22, this invocation reminds that Christ is the only way to the Father (cf. Jn. 14:6; CDF, Dominus Iesus). The atonement for all human sin effected by Christ's shed Blood is a fundamental doctrine that cannot be trifled with in this age of relativistic pluralism. All of us need to be cleansed in the Precious Blood of Jesus.

"Blood of Jesus, Victor over demons, save us." As St. John Chrysostom teaches us, just as the blood of the Passover Lamb saved the ancient Israelites from the Angel of Death, so too, the Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist delivers and protects us from the Evil One (cf. St. John Chrysostom, Catecheses 3). Catholics must not be obsessed with the devil by using aggressive prayer tactics. Rather, we must simply take full advantage of the means of grace in Christ's Church for protection and salvation, as well as maintaining a regular prayer life marked especially by Marian devotion.

"Blood of Christ, bringing forth virgins, save us." Jesus can and does save us from impurity, whatever our state in life. We observe this truth especially in the lives of the saints. Cultivating innocence of life is integral to our Baptism, as Sts. Peter and Paul clearly teach us (cf. 1 Cor. 6:9-11, Phil. 2:15, 1 Thes. 4:1-8, Heb. 10:19-22, 1 Pet. 1:13-19, 4:1-5- Please read these rich passages). The world is utterly obdurate in its belief that impurity is integral to a normal and happy life, and yet the falsehood of this view is acutely apparent in many ways, including the news. The Precious Blood of Christ transforms the human heart and propels it forward in holiness of life.

"Blood of Christ, freeing souls from Purgatory, save us." One can never say enough about the salutary effects of the Mass for the souls of the faithful departed. Additionally, our ability to unite our good works and sufferings to the mediating Blood of Christ can bring great grace to these Holy Souls.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

INTROIT: Apocalypse 5: 9-10 Thou hast redeemed us, O Lord, in Thy blood, out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, and hast made us to our God a kingdom. Ps. The mercies of the Lord I will sing forever: I will show forth Thy truth with my mouth to generation and generation. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT: Almighty and everlasting God, who didst appoint Thine only-begotten Son the Redeemer of the world, and hast willed to be appeased by His blood; grant unto us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate (with Solemn worship) the price of our redemption, and by its power be so defended against the evils of this life, that we may enjoy the fruit thereof forevermore in heaven. Through the same our Lord.

EPISTLE: Hebrews 9: 11-15 Brethren: Christ being come an High Priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this creation: neither by the blood of goats or of calves, but by His own blood, entered once into the Holies, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and of oxen and the ashes of an heifer, being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who, by the Holy Ghost, offered Himself unspotted unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God? And therefore He is the Mediator of the new testament: that by means of His death, for the redemption of those transgressions which were under the former testament, they that are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: 1 John 5: 6, 7-8 This is He that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. V. There are three who give testimony in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one. And there are three that give testimony on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three are one. ALLELUIA: 1 John 5: 9 Alleluia, alleluia. V. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 19: 30-35 At that time, Jesus, when He had taken the vinegar, said: It is consummated. And bowing His head, He gave up the ghost. Then the Jews (because it was the Parasceve), that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day (for that was a great sabbath-day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers, therefore, came: and they broke the legs of the first and of the other that was crucified with Him. But after they were come to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers with a spear opened His side, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he that saw it hath given testimony, and his testimony is true.

OFFERTORY: 1 Corinthians 10: 16 The chalice of benediction which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? And the bread which we break, is it not the partaking of the body of the Lord?

SECRET: We pray that through these divine mysteries, we may draw near to Jesus, the mediator of the new Testament: and upon Thine altars, O Lord of Hosts, may we renew the sprinkling of that blood which pleadeth better than that of Abel. Through the same our Lord.

COMMUNION: Hebrews 9: 28 Christ was offered once to exhaust the sins of many; the second time He shall appear without sin to them that expect Him, unto salvation.

POSTCOMMUNION: We who have been admitted to the holy table, O Lord, have drawn waters with joy from the fountains of the Saviour; may His blood, we beseech Thee, be within us as a fountain of water springing up unto eternal life: Who with Thee liveth.
