ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

THE POPE'S INTENTION FOR EVANGELIZATION FOR THE MONTH OF JULY, 2018: "PRIESTS AND THEIR PASTORAL MINISTRY: That priests who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests."

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

Pastor's Note

THE LOURDES PILGRIMAGE OF THE MOTHER OF ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX

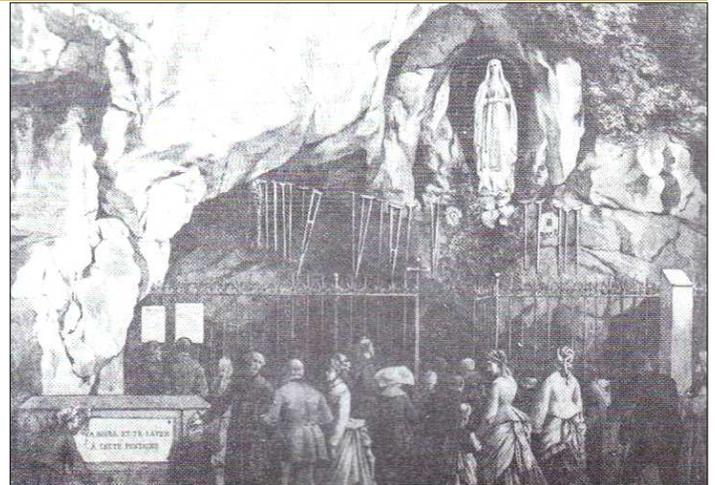

Between 18-22
June 1877, Zélie
Martin, the mother of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, the “Little Flower”, made a pilgrimage to Lourdes seeking a miraculous cure from the metastasizing breast cancer that was rapidly killing her. (Zélie and her husband Louis are themselves now canonized saints of the Church: they were canonized by Pope Francis in 2015. Their feast-day is July 12th, for the anniversary of their marriage. They were married in a church at midnight on the night of July 12th-13th, 1858.)

As strong Catholics the Martin were believers in the Apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Lourdes, which had received the approbation of the Church. Louis Martin had been part of the first national pilgrimage in 1873, for the spiritual regeneration of France, and again in 1875. Given her deteriorating condition Zélie Martin went in haste to Lourdes on the first organized pilgrimage she could find. She went without her husband, accompanied only by her three oldest daughters Marie, Pauline and Léonie.

She went with the conviction of faith that she would be miraculously healed, if God willed it for her through Mary. As she wrote in a letter to her sister-in-law: “I do not count on anything by the help of the Good Mother. If she wishes it, she can cure me, she has cured many other sick people.”

The pilgrimage, however, filled with mishaps and personal misfortunes, did not result in a miraculous cure. Madame Martin died on August 28th, 1878, at the age of 46. Her youngest daughter Thérèse was only four years old.

The Grotto at Lourdes as it was in 1877

It was a struggle for Zélie to come to terms with her impending death, but she accepted it, as we know now from her letters to family members at the time. Just before the pilgrimage to Lourdes she had confided to her brother how she was praying that if the Blessed Virgin would not obtain a cure for her, then that she would cure her daughter Léonie, who had what we would identify today as severe developmental problems. After the pilgrimage she was inspired to meditate deeply on the words of Our Lady to Bernadette, “I do not promise to make you happy in this life, but in the next,” and their application to her in her situation.

And in a letter to her daughter Pauline the mother counseled against disappointment:

I wish to know in what spiritual dispositions you find yourself in and if you're still angry against the Blessed Virgin? Don't expect a lot of joys on this earth, you will have a great many disappointments. Courage and confidence [“courage et confiance”] Pray with faith to the Mother of Mercies, she will come to your aid with the goodness and the sweetness of the most tender of Mothers.

(Fr. Higgins)

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, JULY 22nd, 2018: VOTIVE MASS OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD (Missale Romanum 1970)

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, as July is the Month devoted to the Precious Blood, we consider the Collect for the Votive Mass of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Missale Romanum 1970. Although the new calendar folded the Feast of the Precious Blood into the Feast of Corpus Christi, the MR'70 nevertheless contains a beautiful Votive Mass for the Precious Blood. The following is the official ICEL English translation of the Collect of this Mass:

"O God, who by the Precious Blood of Your Only Begotten Son have redeemed the whole world, preserve in us the work of Your mercy, so that, ever honoring the mystery of our salvation, we may merit to obtain its fruits. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

This Collect skillfully articulates the Church's teaching on human salvation as a movement of redemption, justification, and sanctification. It claims simultaneously that Christ has redeemed the world by His Precious Blood (the ascription clause), and at the same time, that those who have accepted this redemption must continue to cooperate with God's grace ("preserve in us the work of Your mercy").

The motive clause and the result clause flowing out of the petition further demonstrate that salvation is not "once-and-done" in this life. Rather, they indicate that our salvation hinges upon our continued worship of Christ in the Mass ("ever honoring the mystery of our salvation"), as well as in doing good works as an outgrowth of the baptismal grace of charity ("so that we may merit heaven"). And, of course, all of this rests upon our initial conversion and Baptism (a gift which no one can merit).

The Church explains all of this doctrine so clearly and convincingly in the Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 1987-2016, which I strongly encourage you all to read (you may even read just the summary of these paragraphs in the "in brief" section- nos. 2017-2029-in order to get clarity on these doctrines). Our baptismal regeneration both equips us and calls us to know exactly what we believe, and consequently, to be able to articulate and defend it. No Catholic should ever be in doubt about the central truths that concern his or her eternal salvation (especially when digital and hard copies of the Catechism are easily obtained). A good prayer life, and indeed, a good Catholic life in general, depend in large part upon nourishing our minds and hearts with the truths of the faith each day. We have the charge from Scripture to do so (cf. Phil. 4:8-9). A mind attuned to divine things does transform the way we think and live for the better, as the saints show us most beautifully (cf. Rom. 12:1-2).

At this point, let us consider again the Collect's petition: "preserve in us the work of Your mercy." Essentially, it is a restatement of one of the petitions in the Litany of the Precious Blood, "Blood of Christ, which in the Eucharist nourishes and cleanses our souls, save us." After initial justification in Baptism and through faith, we continue to stand in need of purification and sanctification from God in this life and in Purgatory. The height of such purification, both for the Church Militant (those on earth) and for the Church Suffering (those in Purgatory), is reached in the Liturgy, and for the Church Militant, also in a worthy reception of Holy Communion.

One good method of preparation for Holy Communion, or for one's thanksgiving afterwards, is to pray the Litany of the Precious Blood, and to reflect especially on these five petitions: "Blood of Christ...which in His agony ran down upon the ground...which welled up under the scourging...which flowed from beneath the crown of thorns...which was poured out upon the cross...which paid for our salvation...save us."

CHALDEAN MISSION at MARY IMMACULATE of LOURDES

Fr. Hirmiz Haddad celebrates his last Mass for the Chaldean-rite Iraqi Catholic Community this Saturday, June 21st, 2018.

After a year working to establish the Community in its new identity as a Chaldean-rite Mission of the Eparchy of the Eastern United States, Fr. Hirmiz has been appointed Pastor of the oldest Chaldean-rite Catholic Church in the United States, which is in Chicago. Bishop Francis has appointed a new chaplain for the Mission here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes and this new chaplain-priest will celebrate his first Mass here next month. We say farewell to Fr. Hirmiz with our best wishes for his new assignment and the promise of our prayers.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 53: 6-7 Behold God is my helper, and the Lord is the protector of my soul: turn back the evils upon my enemies, and cut them off in Thy truth, O Lord my protector. Psalm 53: 3 Save me, O God, by Thy name, and deliver me in Thy strength. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT: Let Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy suppliant people; and that Thou mayest grant them their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please Thee. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 Corinthians 10: 6-13 Brethren, let us not covet evil things, as they also coveted. Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them: as it is written: The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither do you murmur, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them in figure, and they are written for our correction, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall. Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human: and God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able; but will make also with temptation issue, that you may be able to bear it.

GRADUAL: Psalm 8: 2 O Lord our Lord, how admirable is Thy name in the whole earth! V. For Thy magnificence is elevated above the heavens. ALLELUIA: Psalm 58: 2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God: and defend me from them that rise up against me. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 19: 41-47 At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it saying: If thou also hadst known, and that in this day, the things that are to thy peace: but now they are hidden from thy eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, and thy enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and straiten thee on every side; and beat thee flat to the ground, and thy children who are in thee; and they shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone, because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation. And entering into the temple, He began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, saying to them: It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves. And He was teaching daily in the temple.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 18: 9, 10, 11, 12 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts, and His judgments sweeter than honey and the honey-comb: for thy servant keepeth them.

SECRET Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, worthily to frequent these sacred mysteries: for as often as this memorial sacrifice is offered, the work of our redemption is wrought. Through Our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: John 6: 57 He that eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in him, saith the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION May our reception of Thy holy Sacrament, O Lord, both purify us from sin and grant us unity in Thy service. Through Our Lord.
