ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

Pastor's Note

THE SEASON OF THE ADVENT OF OUR LORD

In the stational Mass for the First Sunday of Advent in Rome the Church selected is the Basilica of St.

Mary Major at the Crib. Here is where the precious relic of Christ's manger is kept. It is as if Mary the Mother of Christ is greeting us as she prepares the Crib to lay her Divine Son Jesus. The Introit Psalm 24 may be applied to the lips of Mary as the prayer of her expectation: "To You I lift up my soul, O my God. In You I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in You be put to shame" (Psalm 24(25): 1-3). We shall return again to this stational Church of the Crib on Christmas Eve when we celebrate our Savior's Birth. Let us make good use of these days of Advent which are given to us in order to prepare our hearts anew for the coming of the Lord.

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2nd, 2018:

St. Andrew Apostle

For our weekly meditation of the Collects of the Roman Missals, we turn today to the Collect for the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle, which we celebrated on Friday (11/30). The following is the official ICEL translation of this Collect in the MR'70, and it is identical to that of the MR'62:

"We humbly implore Your majesty, O Lord, that, just as the blessed Apostle Andrew was for Your Church a preacher and pastor, so he may be for us a constant intercessor before You. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, etc., Amen."

This prayer is deceptively simple, but it actually speaks eloquently of the person and character of St. Andrew in particular, as well as the heavenly office of the Twelve Apostles collectively. On earth, they brought others to Jesus in their preaching, sanctifying, and governing. In heaven, this mission continues uninterrupted, as they exercise powerful solicitude for the Church by their intercession. Indeed, this is why the celebration of their feasts, the veneration of their relics, and pilgrimages to their tombs (and the sites connected with their lives and miracles) have always been integral to the Church's life.

If we recall from St. John's Gospel, there are three instances where St. John shows St. Andrew bringing other people to Jesus. He acts as a mediator by introducing his brother Simon Peter to Jesus (1:40-42), by bringing the boy with the five loaves and two fish to Jesus prior to the miraculous multiplication (6:8-11), and by making a bold intercession to Jesus on behalf of some Gentiles who wanted to see Him (12:20-22). In doing all these things (and probably more), St. Andrew is just like his previous teacher, St. John the Baptist, whose sole mission and desire was to point other people to Jesus (cf. John 1:29, 36; 3:30). In this way, St. Andrew was St. John the Baptist's model disciple, which made him especially fit to be one of Jesus' Twelve Apostles.

In his life, just like the rest of the Apostles, St. Andrew boldly preached Christ to many peoples after the Resurrection, and suffered a terrible martyrdom (crucifixion on an X-shaped cross). His martyrdom testifies to his deep share in the love which Jesus demonstrated and proclaimed so beautifully before His Passion: "This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (cf. John 15:12-13, RSV).

In heaven, the love of the Apostles for Christ and His Church is not diminished, but intensified, as are the spiritual capacities of all the saints who stand before the Throne and the Lamb (cf. Rev. 4-5; 21:14). Thus, St. Andrew's love for us as a spiritual father is quite strong. His will is in perfect conformity with the will of Jesus, and so, he desires for us every grace that we need to become the saints that God has called us to become.

In view of this, we could apply these words of St. John in his Third Letter to any of the Apostles, including St. Andrew: "No greater joy can I have than this, to hear that my children follow the truth" (cf. 3 John 1:4, RSV). In heaven, St. Andrew continues to be the mediator that he always was while on earth, doing all possible to bring us, his spiritual children, into greater communion with Christ.

The following excerpt from St. John Chrysostom, read in the Divine Office for St. Andrew's feast, is certainly worthy for our meditation: "Andrew's words [We have found the Messiah] reveal a soul waiting with the utmost longing for the coming of the Messiah, looking forward to His appearing from heaven, rejoicing when He does appear, and hastening to announce so great an event to others. To support one another in the things of the spirit is the true sign of good will between brothers, of loving kinship, and sincere affection."

Like St. Peter, we can confidently count on St. Andrew's "support, good will, loving kinship, and sincere affection" in his powerful intercession for us. Thanks be to God!

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTROIT: Psalm 24. 1-4. TO Thee have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed: neither let my enemies laugh at me: for none of them that wait on Thee shall be confounded. Ps. ibid. 4. Show me, O Lord, Thy ways: and teach me Thy paths. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — To Thee ...

COLLECT: STIR up Thy power, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and come: that from the threatening dangers of our sins, we may deserve to be rescued by Thy protection, and be saved by Thy deliverance: Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans, 13. 11-14 BRETHREN, knowing that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. The night is passed and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day: not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 24. 3, 4. ALL they that wait on Thee shall not be confounded, O Lord. V. Show, O Lord, Thy ways to me: and teach me Thy paths. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 84. 8 O Lord, hear my prayer; and let my cry come to Thee. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Luke, 21. 25-33 AT THAT TIME Jesus said to His disciples: There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the roaring of the sea and of the waves: men withering away for fear and expectation of what shall come upon the whole world. For the powers of heaven shall be moved. And then they shall see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is at hand. And He spoke to them a similitude: See the fig tree and all the trees: when they now shoot forth their fruit, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is at hand. Amen, I say to you, this generation shall not pass away till all things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but My words shall not pass away. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 24. 1-3. TO Thee have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed: neither let my enemies laugh at me: for none of them that wait on Thee shall be confounded.

SECRET: MAY these holy Mysteries, O Lord, cleanse us by their powerful efficacy, and enable us to come with greater purity to Him who is their foundation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: Psalm 84. 13. THE Lord will give goodness: and our earth shall yield her fruit.

POSTCOMMUNION: MAY we receive Thy mercy, O Lord, in the midst of Thy temple: that we may with becoming honor prepare for the approaching solemnities of our redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...
