ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

MASS OFFERINGS AND MASS INTENTIONS: MARY IMMACULATE OF LOURDES PARISH, 2018

I want to use this week's Pastor's Note to summarize the current procedure I have in place regarding requests for Masses to be offered for specific intentions.

At present I handle all of the Mass requests myself and keep the Mass Books in my office. We receive your Mass requests variously from envelopes dropped off at the parish office, envelopes deposited together with the Sunday Offertory, phone messages, letters or parish e-mails. Once the request gets to me, if the request is for a public announced Mass I enter it into the parish's Daily Mass Record: if, however, it is for an unannounced Mass, I either fit it into the Daily Mass Record as a Mass Intention of the Donor or I send it on to be said by a priest elsewhere. Fr. Salako has indicated to me that Mass stipends from here would be very helpful for the support of his missionaries.

The custom of the faithful asking for Masses to be offered for their specific intentions and of giving a modest offering for the priest who celebrates it is a praiseworthy one. The requested Mass stipend (offering) for a Mass is set in the Archdiocese of Boston at $10, whether the Mass be announced or unannounced. A priest is allowed to receive 1 Mass stipend a day ($10). If he says more than one stipend-Mass on a given day, he is not allowed to receive those further offerings. They are directed instead to the support of the church in other areas. Any offering amounts we may receive in excess of the $10 stipend for a requested Mass are treated as donations to our parish.

We have many public Masses each week at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes and we are, for the most part, able to accommodate the Mass intention requests we receive. In order to do this, however, we have to make use of the provision Cardinal Seán has allowed for up to two parish Masses per-week being reserved as "Collective Intention" Masses. These two Masses are the Sunday 10:30 AM Latin Mass and the Saturday 9:00 AM Latin Mass. We are a parish church with a single resident parish priest: we are not a shrine with several priests offering Masses, nor do we have connections with any Traditional Latin Mass group to take on any of our Latin Mass-only Mass intention requests which we are unable to satisfy in a timely fashion here. (The requested stipends for Traditional Latin Mass communities are $20 or more in many places, so we cannot simply send them on as we do with the S.M.A. Fathers.)

There are particular Mass times each week which are always reserved hence unavailable for any other Mass-intention request. These are the Sunday 7:30 AM Pro Populo and the Monday 7:30 AM Purgatorial Society of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. Also, I am now reserving the Holy Day Masses for Pro Populo and the Holy Day Intention of the Parish. THIS INCLUDES THE MASSES OF CHRISTMAS EVE AND CHRISTMAS DAY. If someone requests an intention for one such unavailable Mass, I will include their request as a Memento (secondary intention) at that Mass but book the stipend Mass intention itself at the nearest available date.

With regard to our Mass intention request procedures the following pointers might be helpful:

- Please write a contact phone number or e-mail address on the Mass intention envelope in case we have any questions about the request.
- The Mass Card station set up in the vestibule of the rectory is for your convenience, so that you can choose a Mass card and make a request even when the office is closed on Sundays. It is presumed that a card is being chosen at the same time a Mass request is being placed. I ask that people not “stock-up” with Mass cards to bring home and then use as the occasion demands. This causes us to have to replenish our inventory more than we otherwise would have to, and it increases the risk that the eventual giver of the Mass card might forget to actually have the Mass said!
- I reserve the right to decide if the request for an announced Mass intention is inappropriate for a public Mass: it may be too personal, too expressive of a person’s opinions on divisive “issues of the day”, too likely to cause misunderstanding or admiratio (i.e., attracting undue attention), etc. In such case I will list the Mass in the bulletin as Intention of the Donor.
- With multiple Mass requests at once, unless they indicate specific future dates, if they all cannot be satisfied here at the parish in a timely manner, I will send the remaining stipends to Fr. Salako’s S.M.A. Mission.

I hope that this summary of our Mass Intention procedures will clarify how it all “works” within our parish office.

Fr. Higgins

CATECHETICAL CORNER

THE BEST HOMAGE TO MARY: LOVING GOD AND NEIGHBOR

(From Pope St. Paul VI’s “Message to the Mexican People”, 1970)

Christians can do no less than to show solidarity in seeking a solution to the situation of those to whom the bread of culture has not yet come nor the opportunity of honorable and justly remunerated work. They cannot remain indifferent while new generations find no path for the realization of their legitimate aspirations, and while part of humanity continues to be placed at the margins of the advantages of civilization and progress. For this reason, on this celebrated feast [Our Lady of Guadalupe], We urge you from Our heart to give your Christian life a clear social sense—as the [Second Vatican] Council has asked—that you may always be in the front line in all efforts to attain progress, and in all the initiatives for improving the situation of those who suffer want. See in each person a brother or sister—a brother or sister in Christ—in such a way that the love of God and the love of neighbor become united in the same love, alive and operative, which is the only thing that can redeem the miseries of the world, renewing it in its most profound root, the human heart.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9th, 2018:

Third Sunday of Advent: Missale Romanum 1962

For our weekly meditation of the Collects of the Roman Missals, we turn today to the Collect for today's Mass of the Third Sunday in Advent in the MR'62. The following is the translation of this Collect in the Angelus Press edition of the Roman Catholic Daily Missal:

"Incline Thine ear, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to our petitions; and, by the grace of Thy visitation, enlighten the darkness of our minds: Who livest and reignest, etc. Amen."

Today's Collect invites us to consider more deeply how Christ's Nativity saves us. In order to get to that point, however, we must first identify that from which Christ saves us.

The second petition of this Collect asks God to "enlighten the darkness of our minds." Remember that the Collects always assume that those praying are baptized (the sacramental seal or character of Baptism is ordered to divine worship). Therefore, this darkness cannot refer to Original Sin, or the lack of faith that precedes baptismal regeneration. It refers, rather, to the way in which the baptized are struggling to refute the error of the devil in temptation, and to repel his attacks against faith.

At the root of every sin is an error of some kind prompted by the devil. We see this in the Garden of Eden, when the devil questions God's words and twists Adam and Eve's understanding thereof: "Did God say, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden'?" (Cf. Gen. 3:1ff., RSV). The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in its coverage of the First Commandment, likewise identifies error as the root of every sin:

2087: "Our moral life has its source in faith in God who reveals His love to us. St. Paul speaks of the 'obedience of faith' as our first obligation. He shows that 'ignorance of God' is the principle and explanation of all moral deviations. Our duty toward God is to believe in Him and to bear witness to Him."

2088: "The first commandment requires us to nourish and protect our faith with prudence and vigilance, and to reject everything that is opposed to it."

In other words, the "darkness of our minds," is our ongoing struggle against the error of the devil: distorted notions about our good and loving God and who we are in relation to Him, and of the other revealed truths of our Catholic faith.

The hope our Collect proposes is "the grace of [Christ's] visitation." This refers both to the Nativity, as well as to the personal presence of Christ in the soul through sacramental grace. The two are closely related. In regard to the former, the grace of Christ's visitation is precisely the mystery of the Incarnation.

Christ is a divine Person with a full human nature (He is not a human person). Only a divine Person can save the human race from sin, and Christ does so by assuming (taking upon Himself) a perfect human nature, so as to transform and redeem fallen human nature. The forgiveness and grace that Christ offers from His Cross and Resurrection now make it possible for man not to be a slave to sin or the error that undergirds sin (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 1741-2). Christ's Nativity is the manifestation of this truth of the Incarnation: a divine Person has come in the flesh to save us! We can enter more deeply into this truth every Christmas, because we rely continually upon this divine Savior to save us from error and sin.

And this is itself the second way of interpreting the phrase "the grace of Thy visitation." Our increased participation in Christ's divine life in our souls does, in fact, save us. The more we grow in our understanding of our Catholic faith, the more we will know Christ Himself, and be conformed to His image. In this way, we can say that Christ is "born" in our souls each Christmas. Consequently, we can have confidence in the divine truth that forcefully asserts itself against the blasphemous errors underlying sin (cf. Bl. Columba Marmion, Christ in His Mysteries, pp. 10-13).

CHRISTMAS FLOWER DONATIONS

Christmas Flower envelopes are at the entrance tables of the church. Donations to help defray the extra costs of our Christmas Flower decorations are gratefully accepted. If you would like your donation to be a memorial gift, there are spaces for the names of loved ones on the envelopes. Christmas Flower envelopes may be placed in the basket at Offertory time or dropped off at the parish office in the rectory. The Flower Offering Envelopes with the Memorial names will be placed upon the altar at all of our parish Masses during the Christmas Season, through Candlemas Day, February 2nd.

BAPTISMS

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Brian & Nicole (Psaltis) Sopp on the christening of their daughter AUSTYN OLIVIA SOPP at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church on Saturday, December 8th, A.D. 2018. Her godparents are Edward Sopp and Danyelle Ubertini. AUSTYN OLIVIA is their 2nd CHILD.

The Sacrament of Baptism for infants and children under 7 years of age is scheduled upon request. Please contact our Pastoral Associate David Allen through the Parish Office during the week.

*SPECIAL INTENTION: For all the expectant mothers of our parish family.
“St. Gerard Majella, pray for us”*

Prayer for Motherhood:

O good St. Gerard, powerful intercessor before God and Wonderworker of our day, I call upon thee and seek thy aid. Thou who on this earth didst always fulfil God’s designs, help me to do the Holy Will of God. Beseech the Master of Life, from Whom all paternity proceedeth, to render me fruitful in offspring, that I may raise up children to God in this life and heirs to the Kingdom of His Glory in the world to come. Amen.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: GAUDETE SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTROIT: Philippians 4. 4-6; Psalm 84. 2 REJOICE in the Lord always: again I say, rejoice. Let your modesty be known to all men: for the Lord is nigh. Be nothing solicitous: but in every thing by prayer let your petitions be made known to God. Ps. 84. 2. Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. ℟. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Rejoice ...

COLLECT: INCLINE Thine ear, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to our petitions: and, by the grace of Thy visitation, enlighten the darkness of our minds: Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians, 4. 4-7 BRETHREN, rejoice in the Lord always: again, I say, rejoice. Let your modesty be known to all men. The Lord is nigh. Be nothing solicitous: but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 79. 2-3, 2 THOU, O Lord, That sittest upon the Cherubim, stir up Thy might and come. ℟. Give ear, O Thou that rulest Israel: that ledest Joseph like a sheep. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. Stir up, O Lord, Thy might, and come to save us. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John I. 19-28 AT THAT TIME the Jews sent from Jerusalem Priests and Levites to John, to ask him: Who art thou? And he confessed, and did not deny; and he confessed: I am not the Christ. And they asked him: What then? Art thou Elias? And he said: I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered: No. They said therefore unto him: Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? What sayest thou of thyself? He said: I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Isaias. And they that were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said to him: Why then dost thou baptize, if thou be not Christ, nor Elias, nor the Prophet? John answered them, saying: I baptize with water: but there hath stood one in the midst of you, whom you know not. The same is He that shall come after me, who is preferred before me: the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to loose. These things were done in Bethania, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 84. 2-3 LORD, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob: Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of Thy people.

SECRET: MAY the Sacrifice of our devotion, we beseech Thee, O Lord, be continually offered up to Thee: may it both complete the institution of the holy Mysteries, and wondrously accomplish in us Thy salvation. Through our Lord ...

COMMUNION: Isaias 35. 4 SAY: Ye fainthearted, take courage and fear not: behold our God will come, and will save us.

POSTCOMMUNION: WE implore, O Lord, Thy mercy: that these divine helps may expiate our sins, and prepare us for the approaching Feast. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
