ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

EASTER GREETINGS FROM FATHER DESIRE SALAKO, S.M.A.

We received the following message from Fr. Desiré Salako, S.M.A., in Africa for Easter, together with some photos. The fate of Fr.

Pierluigi, the missionary priest of his province who was abducted by an Islamist gang in Niger last September, remains unknown. We continue to pray for his deliverance and for all captives who are in similar circumstances.

Sunday, April 7th, 2019:

Bonjour, Père:

I'm well. I'm back from Niger, where we had an ecumenical prayer for Fr. Pierluigi Maccalli. We didn't get any news. We continue to pray. I'm in Benin now where I'm supervising the construction of our Seminary Chapel, the one you contributed to build through my summer appeal. Works are going well. Thank God for that. I pray for you—pray for us. By the grace of God, we will see each other the 1st of July. Greet all the parishioners.

*God bless you,
Fr. Desiré Salako, S.M.A. (Société des Missions Africaines)*

“GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS.”—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Missale Romanum 1970(MR '70)

For this week's column on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we turn to today's Collect for Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday) in the MR'70. The following is the 2010 ICEL translation:

“God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made Your own, increase, we pray, the grace You have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.”

According to our prayer, our yearly observance of Holy Week and Easter communicates a special grace of strengthening our faith in Christ. On the basis of this gift, we ask God for an increase of faith and a deeper understanding of three things: (1) Baptism itself, (2) the effect of Baptism, i.e., our adoption as God's children, and (3) the price of our redemption, i.e., Christ's Blood. [We do well to recall that faith is about the “assent” of our intellect to what Jesus has revealed and accomplished for our salvation. It is likewise a “personal adherence” or entrustment of ourselves to Christ as our Savior and God (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 150-1)].

The whole of the Easter cycle (Septuagesima thru Pentecost) is the Church's choice season for fostering and strengthening such faith, especially for the catechumens and neophytes, but also for those already baptized. Indeed, the Church truly centers herself upon the central mysteries of our redemption at this time of year, especially the mysteries of Baptism and Eucharist. The liturgy and St. John's writings focus on these two Sacraments, in particular.

According to the Church's ancient interpretation of St. John's Gospel, as is evident in her liturgy, the water and blood flowing from the wounded side of Christ on the Cross are the Sacraments of the Church, especially Baptism and Eucharist (for a modern example of this, see the Preface for the Sacred Heart in the MR'70). In his account of the Passion, St. John emphasizes the flow from Christ's side on the Cross, since he himself was an eyewitness (Jn. 19:34-35). As one of my professors indicated, the water and the blood are the two drinks Jesus has specially promised in St. John's Gospel (see especially Jn. 4 and 6).

In his First Letter, St. John proclaims the effective power of this water and blood: “For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree” (1 Jn. 5:4-8, RSV).

As St. John shows us, the Spirit (who dwells in us by sanctifying grace), the water (Baptism), and the blood (Eucharist) are the effective means of enabling us to enter into the divine embrace. Such union with Christ overcomes the sin and deceit of the world which would separate us from God's love. Thus, St. John shows us the depth and power of the very three realities for which our Collect prays for a deepened understanding.

Our Collect was composed decades before St. John Paul II designated this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday in 2000. The Collect's focus on Christ's blood and water is nevertheless wonderfully fitting. The blue and red rays issuing from the risen Christ's side in the Divine Mercy image represent the sacramental realities we have been treating here, especially Baptism and Eucharist. Let us, therefore, receive with grateful hearts the grace Christ dispenses anew today from his Sacred Heart.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (LOW SUNDAY)

INTROIT: I Peter 2. 2; Psalm 80. 2 As newborn babes, alleluia, desire ye the rational milk without guile, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Rejoice to God our Helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — As newborn babes ...

COLLECT: Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that we who have celebrated the Paschal Feast, may, by Thy bounty, retain its fruits in our daily habits and behavior. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the First Epistle of Blessed John the Apostle (I John 5. 4-10) Dearly beloved: Whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory, which overcometh the world, our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit which testifieth that Christ is the truth. And there are three who give testimony in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that give testimony on earth: the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater: for this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because He hath testified of His Son. He that believeth in the Son of God hath the testimony of God in himself.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Matthew 28. 7; John 20, 26 Alleluia, alleluia. On the day of My Resurrection, saith the Lord, I will go before you into Galilee. Alleluia. After eight days, the doors being shut, Jesus stood in the midst of His disciples and said: Peace be to you. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 20. 19-31 At that time, when it was late that same day, the first of the week, and the doors were shut, where the disciples were gathered together for fear of the Jews, Jesus came, and stood in the midst and said to them: Peace be to you. And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. He said therefore to them again: Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent me, I also send you. When He had said this, He breathed on them, and He said to them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them: and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained. Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him: We have seen the Lord. But he said to them: Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe. And after eight days, again His disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said: Peace be to you. Then He saith to Thomas: Put in thy finger hither, and see My hands, and bring hither thy hand, and put it into My side; and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said to Him: My Lord and my God. Jesus saith to him: Because thou hast seen Me, Thomas, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed. Many other signs also did Jesus in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that, believing, you may have life in His Name.

OFFERTORY: Matthew 28. 2, 5, 6 An angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said to the women: He whom you seek is risen, as He said, alleluia.

SECRET: Receive, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts of Thine exultant Church: and to whom Thou has given cause for so great joy, grant the fruit of perpetual happiness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: John 20. 27 Put in thy hand, and know the place of the nails, alleluia; and be not faithless, but believing, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: We beg Thee, O Lord our God, that these sacred and holy mysteries which Thou hast given us to safeguard our rebirth, may be for us a remedy both now and in the future. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son ...
