ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

FIVE KEY GOSPEL LESSONS FOR THE LOURDES APPARITIONS

A most important dimension of the Apparitions of Our Lady at Lourdes to Bernadette

Soubirous is the way in which their correlation to the liturgical days of that Year 1858 manifests the Church's own Easter Catechesis. The Apparitions began with three preparatory visions: the Thursday before Ash Wednesday (Shrovetide), February 11th, "Forty Hours Sunday", February 14th; and Thursday after Ash Wednesday, February 18th.

Then there followed 12 Apparitions occurring within the fortnight during which Our Lady asked Bernadette to visit her there at the Grotto. This fortnight encompassed the first two weeks in Lent. On the 9th Apparition, Thursday, February 25th, there occurred the revelation of the Lourdes underground spring, which began flowing steadily out of the side of the rock towards the River Gave. By the following day, Friday, February 26th, a day on which the Lady did not appear, the sign of the water from the rock was very evident to all.

Contrary to popular expectation, no great sign occurred at the end of the fortnight. It was on March 25th, however, the Feast of the Annunciation—"Lady Day"—and Thursday in Passiontide, that Bernadette received her 16th Apparition and the revelation of her mysterious visitor's identity: "I am the Immaculate Conception."

The next to last Apparition, the 17th, was on Easter Wednesday, and the final one on July 16th, the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Therefore, 17 out of the 18 Apparitions occurred during the time of the Church's "sacred spring".

Five Gospel Lessons on three days in particular help us to trace out the Easter Catechesis within the Lourdes Apparitions. These are Gospel Lessons according to the Roman Missal of those times. When a special Mass formula superseded the Lenten daily Mass, the Gospel for that Lenten Mass would be read after the priest's final blessing as a "Last Gospel", hence two Gospels for one day.

*FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER:
PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS*

Missale Romanum 1970 (MR '70)

For this week's column on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we turn to today's Prayer over the Offerings for Fourth Sunday of Easter (also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday") in the MR'70. The following is the 2010 ICEL translation:

"Grant, we pray, O Lord, that we may always find delight in these paschal mysteries, so that the renewal constantly at work within us may be the cause of our unending joy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

This prayer, characteristically simple in its shape, leads us to examine our faith and love for Jesus in this great Sacrament. Such knowledge and love together constitute the purpose of our worship, and the prayer categorizes them under the single reality of delight. More delight in Jesus begets more joy in possessing Him.

The Psalmist, like the Liturgy, takes the same approach: "Take delight in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart" (Ps. 37:4, RSV). To delight in God is to know Him by faith and to love Him. This particular verse should prompt us to consider the degree to which God is the primary object of our desire. Is He the choice treasure of our hearts? God has revealed to mankind that He alone can fully satisfy the heart's deepest desires for love and communion. Thus, while other noble and good desires exist, the psalmist is leading us to see that only when we consciously make God the supreme object of our desire, will our deepest desire truly be fulfilled. In effect, the keeping of the First Commandment is the key to happiness.

In view of this, we return to our Collect, which begs God for the grace of increased delight in the paschal mysteries, that is, increased faith and love for Jesus himself, crucified and risen, and present to us in His eternal Sacrifice. Eastertide is the season, par excellence, wherein we may relish the mysteries of faith and the charity of God bestowed on us in the Paschal Sacraments, especially Baptism and Eucharist. Eastertide celebrates the crucified, risen and exalted Christ who, from heaven, sanctifies His Church in her sacramental economy which He Himself instituted while on earth. Thus, this season is the fulcrum around which everything else turns. Our own personal sanctification is possible only because of what Easter celebrates: Jesus crucified and risen.

This sanctification is the interior renewal of which the Collect speaks. The effects of the paschal mysteries include increased delight in Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The more we delight in Christ, the more He increases such faith and charity within us, the fruit of which is increased joy. And the biblical sense of joy is the deep-seated happiness Jesus promised His disciples on Holy Thursday, having just instituted the Eucharist: a joy which cannot be taken away (cf. Jn. 16:22). This is the joy of the martyrs: their persecutors cannot rob them of sanctifying grace, that is, their union with Christ in faith and charity.

In view of these things, we might consider the quality of our preparation for Holy Communion. In the harried pace of life, it is not always easy to make an excellent preparation for Holy Communion, but we should always strive to improve it. Besides regular confession and Prayers-before-Communion another time-tested approach is to read and meditate briefly upon the Gospel of the day. This exercise tends towards kindling the faith and love (holy desire) which Jesus deserves when we approach Him at the altar. (cf. Lk. 24:32, RSV, the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus)

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas & Regina (Davulis) Noguez on the christening of their son MARCUS ANGELUS NOGUEZ at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church on Saturday, May 4th, A.D. 2019. He is the grandson of Bill & Terina Davulis. Marcus Angelus is their FIRST BORN.

"IF YOU ARE WILLING TO SERENELY BEAR THE TRIAL OF BEING DISPLEASING TO YOURSELF, THEN YOU WILL BE FOR JESUS A PLEASANT PLACE OF SHELTER."—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

LATIN MASS PROPERS: THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Psalm 65. 1-3 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia: sing ye a psalm to His Name, alleluia: give glory to His praise, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Say unto God: How terrible are Thy works, O Lord! In the multitude of Thy strength Thine enemies shall lie to Thee. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Shout with joy ...

COLLECT: O God, who to those that go astray dost show the light of Thy truth, that they may return to the path of justice: grant that all who are enrolled in the Christian faith, may both spurn all that is hostile to that name, and follow after what is fitting to it. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son...

EPISTLE: From First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 2. 11-19) Dearly beloved: I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain yourselves from carnal desires, which war against the soul, having your conversation good among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by the good works which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation. Be ye subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake: whether it be to the king as excelling, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of the good: for so is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not as making liberty a cloak for malice, but as the servants of God. Honor all men: love the brotherhood: fear God: honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy before God: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PASCAHL ALLELUIA: Psalm 110. 9; Luke 24. 46 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 110. 9.) The Lord hath sent redemption to His people. Alleluia. (Luke 24. 46.) It behooved Christ to suffer and to rise again from the dead, and so to enter into His glory. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 16. 16-22 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: A little while, and now you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me: because I go to the Father. Then some of His disciples said to one another: What is this that He saith to us: A little while, and you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me, and, Because I go to the Father. They said therefore: What is this that He saith, A little while? We know not what He speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him. And He said to them: Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said: A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me. Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also you now indeed have sorrow: but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man shall take from you. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 145. 2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: in my life I will praise the Lord: I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, O Lord, by these Mysteries, that checking our earthly longings, we may learn to love heavenly things. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: John 16. 16 A little while, and you shall not see Me, alleluia; and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the Sacraments which we have received, we beseech Thee, O Lord, renew us with spiritual refreshment and defend us with bodily help. Through our Lord ...
