ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

*VIGIL OF THE ASCENSION:
PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS*

Missale Romanum 1970(MR '70)

This week, we are mindful of the approaching Holy Day of Our Lord's Ascension on Thursday. To that end, we will treat the Prayer over the Offerings for the Vigil of this feast in the MR'70:

“O God, whose Only Begotten Son, our High Priest, is seated ever-living at Your right hand to intercede for us, grant that we may approach with confidence the throne of grace and there obtain Your mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.”

This Collect makes direct reference to St. Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews, where we hear the following exhortation: “Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sinning. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:14-16, RSV).

This passage speaks to the critical importance of growing in faith and hope. These are two of the three theological virtues infused into our souls by God in Baptism, which enable us to enjoy friendship with Him. Faith has to do with the assent of our intellect to the truth God has revealed in Christ. It likewise involves a consequent act of entrustment of ourselves to the good God who has revealed Himself to man. Hope has to do with the fiduciary confidence in the good God to provide the graces we need for salvation in this life and for eternal life with Him in heaven. It is an act of our will which exercises a “confident expectation” in God's gracious will to fulfill what He has promised to give us in His loving providence (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 144-165, 1812-1821, 2090).

The Vulgate translation of the Greek original affirms these points regarding faith and hope, according to the sense indicated in the Catechism. In v. 14, we see “teneamus confessionem,” that is, the confession of faith we make in Baptism (i.e., the Creed). In other words, St. Paul exhorts us to take hold of the content of our faith and hold onto it tenaciously. In v. 16, we see “adeamus ergo cum fiducia,” that is, “let us approach with confident trust,” i.e., the virtue of hope.

In what exactly do the virtues of faith and hope terminate? St. Paul tells us: “the throne of grace.” This is a reference to the Israelite Ark of the Covenant, which was God's “throne” on earth, and the place where the High Priest sprinkled the blood of the sacrifice on the Day of Atonement to effect merely symbolic atonement. As we see throughout Hebrews, St. Paul shows us how Jesus is the true High Priest whose shed Blood on the Cross actually effects satisfaction for man's sin, and reconciles the world to the Father.

Thus, the “throne of grace” indicates the real heavenly throne room, where Jesus both reigns as King with the Father, and “permanently exercises His priesthood,” interceding for us (cf. Catechism nos. 662-4). Likewise, the throne of grace may also refer both to Our Lord's Cross and the Altar, where atonement is effected.

Consider the following excerpt from Hebrews 9-10, which constitutes part of one of the optional readings for the Vigil of the Ascension: “For Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.....Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way which He opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith..” (Heb. 9:24, 10:19-22, RSV).

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Isaias 48: 20 Declare it with the voice of joy, and make it known, alleluia: declare it even to the ends of the earth: The Lord hath delivered His people, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 65: 1-2 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His name: give glory to His praise. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, from whom all good things do proceed, grant unto Thy humble servants, that by Thy holy inspiration, we may think those things that are right, and under Thy guidance may perform the same. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: James 1: 22-27 Dearly beloved, be ye doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if a man be a hearer of the word and not a doer, he shall be compared to a man beholding his own countenance in a glass: for he beheld himself and went his way, and presently forgot what manner of man he was. But he that hath looked into perfect law of liberty and hath continued therein, not becoming a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work: this man shall be blessed in his deed. And if any man think himself to be religious, not bridling his tongue but deceiving his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Religion pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation and to keep one's self unspotted from this world.

FIRST ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. V. Christ is risen, and hath shone upon us, whom He redeemed with His blood. SECOND ALLELUIA: John 16: 28 Alleluia. V. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world and I go to the Father. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 16: 23-30 At that time Jesus saith to His disciples: Amen, amen, I say to you: If you ask the Father any thing in My name, He will give it you. Hitherto you have not asked any thing in My name: Ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things I have spoken to you in proverbs. The hour cometh when I will no more speak to you in proverbs, but will show you plainly of the Father. In that day you shall ask in My name: and I say not to you that I will ask the Father for you: for the Father Himself loveth you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father and am come into the world: again I leave the world and I go to the Father. His disciples say to Him: Behold now Thou speakest plainly and speakest no proverb. Now we know that Thou knowest all things and Thou needest not that any man should ask Thee: by this we believe that Thou camest forth from God.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 65: 8-9, 20 O bless the Lord our God, ye peoples, and make the voice of His praise to be heard: who hath set my soul to live, and hath not suffered my feet to be moved. Blessed be the Lord, who hath not turned away my prayer, nor His mercy from me, alleluia.

SECRET Receive, O Lord, the prayers and sacrifices of the faithful, that by these offices of loving devotion we may attain to heavenly glory. Through our Lord.

Preface of Easter

COMMUNION: Psalm 95: 2 Sing unto the Lord, alleluia, sing unto the Lord, and bless His name: show forth His salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION Grant us, O Lord, who have been nourished and strengthened at the heavenly table, both to desire that which is right, and to gain that which we desire. Through our Lord.
