ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

THE "GREAT COMMISSION" CONTINUES IN OUR DAY

On Thursday of this past week we celebrated the feast of St. James the Greater, "proto-martyr", that is, "first-martyr", of the Twelve Apostles. The martyrdom of James, twelve years after the Ascension, marked the definitive going forth of the Apostles from Jerusalem out into the larger world in order to preach the Gospel, as Christ the Lord had commanded them in His "Great Commission". Last Sunday's preaching mission by Fr. Robert Byamukama on behalf of his diocese of Fort Portal, Uganda was a testament to the ongoing work of Christ's Great Commission in our day. Here follows some pictures Rod Phillips took of the 10:30 Solemn High Latin Mass at last Sunday's Mission Appeal.

"GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS."—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

PRECIOUS BLOOD

Missale Romanum 1962 (MR62)

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Post-Communion Collect for the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus (MR'62). Below is the English translation of this prayer in the St. Edmund Campion Missal and Hymnal:

"Admitted to the sacred table, O Lord, we have drawn water in gladness from the fountain of the Savior; may His Blood, we beseech Thee, become unto us a well of water springing up unto everlasting life. Who with Thee liveth and reigneth, etc. Amen."

This Post-Communion Collect contains two wonderful scriptural allusions. Firstly, we have the messianic prophecy of Is. 12:3: "With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation" (RSV). This text fittingly leads us back to the Gospel text for the feast of the Precious Blood- Jn. 19:30-35- where the Blood and Water flowing from Our Lord's pierced Sacred Heart are the Sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist (cf. St. John Chrysostom, Catecheses 3; Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1067).

The second part of this prayer quotes Our Lord in John 4:14: "whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life" (RSV). Here, Jesus speaks of the indwelling of the Holy Ghost and the share He grants us in divine life. This is certainly one of the principal realities of Holy Communion.

Indeed, our reception of the Blood of Christ bears fruit in a beautiful differentiation of graces. For this, we turn to the Litany of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus (English translation taken from TAN Books' "A Prayerbook of Favorite Litanies").

Among its twenty-four invocations, the following four are particularly noteworthy:

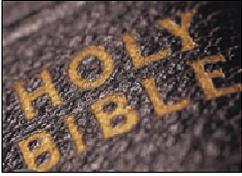

"Blood of Christ, without which there is no forgiveness, save us." Quoting Heb. 9:22, this invocation reminds that Christ is the only way to the Father (cf. Jn. 14:6; Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, Dominus Iesus). The atonement for all human sin effected by Christ's shed Blood is a fundamental doctrine that cannot be trifled with in this age of relativistic pluralism. All of us need to be cleansed in the Precious Blood of Jesus.

"Blood of Jesus, Victor over demons, save us." As St. John Chrysostom teaches us, just as the blood of the Passover Lamb saved the ancient Israelites from the Angel of Death, so too, the Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist delivers and protects us from the Evil One (cf. St. John Chrysostom, Catecheses 3). We are nothing in our own strength. We must open our hearts to receive the grace of God issuing forth from the wounds of Christ that will make us victors in the strife. Let us take full advantage of the means of grace in Christ's Church for protection and salvation.

"Blood of Christ, bringing forth virgins, save us." Jesus can and does save us from impurity, whatever our state in life. We observe this truth strikingly in the lives of the saints. Cultivating innocence of life is integral to our Baptism, as Sts. Peter and Paul clearly teach us (cf. 1 Cor. 6:9-11, Phil. 2:15, 1 Thes. 4:1-8, Heb. 10:19-22, 1 Pet. 1:13-19, 4:1-5- Please read these rich passages). The world is utterly obdurate in its belief that impurity is integral to a normal and happy life, and yet the falsehood of this view is acutely apparent in many ways (just read the sad stories in the news!). By contrast, the Precious Blood of Christ transforms the human heart and propels it forward in holiness of life.

"Blood of Christ, freeing souls from Purgatory, save us." One can never say enough about the salutary effects of the Mass for the souls of the faithful departed. Additionally, our ability to unite our good works and sufferings to the mediating Blood of Christ can bring great grace to these Holy Souls.

"If a compassionate charity towards all that are in any distress, even towards the most undeserving, be an essential ingredient of a Christian spirit, and one in which the very soul of religion and piety towards God consists, how much more should we exert our charity for those in spiritual need, no longer able to help themselves, and perhaps bound to us by ties of blood or friendship?"

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 46:2 Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46:3 For the Lord is the most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 6:19-23. Brethren; I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:12,6. Come, children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 7:15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY: Daniel 3:40 As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O God who in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel, that what each one of us has brought here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 30:3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.
