ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

CONFIRMATION: FEAST OF FAITH

Parishioners Rod and Marty Phillips have wonderfully captured the scenes of our Parish Confirmation last Sunday at our 10:30 Mass. It was truly a "Feast of Faith" for the whole parish. The lighted candles the Candidates carry symbolize their Baptism in Jesus Christ. As confirmed Catholics now they have been fully initiated as Christians. Congratulations once again to the Confirmandi, to their Sponsors, and to their families. As they go on with their lives may they always be faithful to the promises of their Baptismal Vows, sealed in the Holy Spirit by their Confirmation.

SAINT MICHAEL

Today's feast of St. Michael the Archangel supersedes the normal Sunday Propers in the Extraordinary Form. The following is the 2010 ICEL translation of the Collect for this feast, whose Latin is identical in both Missals traditions:

“O God, who dispose in marvelous order ministries both angelic and human, graciously grant that our life on earth may be defended by those who watch over us as they minister perpetually to You in heaven. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.”

St. Michael appears in a few places in Sacred Scripture, but most prominently in Rev. 12:7-12, where St. John sees him and the heavenly hosts engaged in a cosmic battle with the devil and the fallen angels. What exactly is the nature of this battle, and on what terms is it being fought? (For a complete summary of the dogmatic truths and theological opinions regarding angels in the Judeo-Christian tradition, read Fr. Jean Danielou's classic work, The Angels and Their Mission, published by Sophia Press).

Firstly, we have to remember that this cosmic battle is non-physical. The angelic nature is pure spirit, like the divine nature. The battle, then, is noetic, that is, it takes place on the planes of intellect and will. The devil and rebel angels misuse their intellects and wills to rebel against God in an attempt to mar His providential designs in the world. St. Michael and the whole angelic hierarchy of heaven, on the other hand, exist in perfect conformity with the divine will. They freely, joyfully, and powerfully use their intellects and wills to carry out God's perfect plan on earth. Unfortunately, this meets with considerable diabolical opposition. As we read, however, the battle is not some kind of dualistic yin-yang conflict, as if the two sides were evenly matched. Far from it! When we read St. John's account of this battle in Rev. 12, we find that the power of Christ exercised in His angelic hosts and His martyrs is infinitely superior.

Scripture and Tradition teach us that angels exist in a hierarchical, that is, an ordered structure in which Christ is King, and those in His service adore Him and obey Him with a free and joyful promptitude. Our Collect's ascription clause praises God for the wonder of this hierarchical structure of creation, both visible (human) and invisible (angelic).

Let us not pass by this phrase without taking it in. Our liturgical prayer is consonant with the witness of Scripture and Tradition: hierarchy is a good thing that testifies to God's beauty, power, goodness, and wisdom! This is in stark contrast to the prevailing anti-hierarchical and anti-religious mentalities of many modern Western cultures. Enlightenment and post-Enlightenment philosophy have permeated the minds of many with the premise that one should view both the invisible world and religious institutions with suspicion as fabricated constructs.

Scripture and Tradition, however, as well as the lives of the saints, all demonstrate in an overwhelmingly clear and wondrous way that the angelic order is integral to our daily lives as Christians, and to the carrying out of God's purposes on earth. Thus, we pray for angelic protection: “graciously grant that our life on earth may be defended by those who watch over us as they minister perpetually to you in heaven.” The latter part of this petition is, in fact, a motive clause, and it is quite important.

The angelic nature can truly “multitask.” The angels are constantly in the presence of God and lovingly adore Him with all their being. And it is from this dynamic and continual state of adoration of God that they simultaneously carry out His will on earth and defend us. Our Lord Himself teaches this in the Gospel (cf. Mt. 18:10).

Oftentimes, the angels operate by way of direct intervention and protection from known or unknown evils, both moral and physical, but most especially by good inspirations leading us to greater union with God and His will. It is for this reason that Catholics and Orthodox foster strong devotion to St. Michael and the Guardian Angels.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: DEDICATION OF ST. MICHAEL ARCHANGEL

INTROIT: Psalm 102. 20, 1. Bless the Lord, all ye His angels: you that are mighty in strength and execute His word, hearkening to the voice of His orders. Psalm: Bless the Lord, O my soul: and let all that is within me praise His holy name. V. Glory be to the Father...

COLLECT: Lord, Thou hast arranged the service of angels and men in wonderful harmony; grant in Thy mercy that those who always serve before Thee in Heaven, may be the protectors of our life on earth. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Apocalypse 1. 1-5. In those days, God signified the things which must shortly come to pass, sending by His angel to His servant John, who hath given testimony to the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, and what things soever he hath seen. Blessed is he that readeth and heareth the word of this prophecy, and keepeth those things which are written in it; for the time is at hand. John to the seven churches which are in Asia. Grace be unto you and peace from Him that is, and that was, and that is to come; and from the seven spirits which are before His throne; and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth, who hath loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood.

GRADUAL: Psalm 102, 20, 1. Bless the Lord, all ye His angels: you that are mighty in strength, that do His will. V. O my soul, bless thou the Lord: and all that is within me, praise His holy name. ALLELUIA: Alleluia, alleluia. V. Holy archangel Michael, defend us in battle: that we may not perish in the dreadful judgment. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 18:1-10 At that time, the disciples came to Jesus, saying: "Who thinkest Thou, is the greater in the kingdom of heaven?" And Jesus calling unto Him a little child, set him in the midst of them, and said: "Amen I say to you, unless you be converted, and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, he is the greater in the kingdom of heaven: and he that shall receive one such little child in My name, receiveth Me; but he that shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of scandals: for it must needs be that scandals come; but nevertheless, woe to that man by whom the scandal cometh. And if thy hand or foot scandalize thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee. It is better for thee to go into life maimed or lame, than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thy eye scandalize thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee. It is better for thee having one eye to enter into life, than having two eyes to be cast into hell -fire. See that you despise not one of these little ones; for I say to you, that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father who is in heaven.

OFFERTORY: Apocalypse 8. 3,4. An angel stood near the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand, and there was given to him much incense: and the smoke of the perfumes ascended before God, alleluia.

SECRET We offer Thee, Lord, the sacrifice of praise, humbly entreating Thee that, through the prayers of the angels on our behalf, Thou wouldst receive it favorably and make it profitable for our salvation. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Daniel 3,58. All ye angels of the Lord, bless the Lord: sing a hymn, and exalt Him above all forever.

POSTCOMMUNION Relying on the intercession of Thy blessed Archangel Michael, we humbly entreat Thee, Lord, that what our lips have tasted we may receive also in our hearts. Through our Lord.
