ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

THE MACCABEE REVOLT AND THE GOSPEL BOOKS

At this time of year, as the Church looks to the “end-times” and the fulfillment of all things in Christ’s Second Advent, readings from the last two Books of the Old Testament, the First and Second Books of the Maccabees occur in the readings for Mass and the Divine Office. The events of the Maccabee Revolt are important for understanding the social context of the Gospel Books.

What was the Maccabee Revolt? About 167 years before Christ’s Birth, the Jewish nation was threatened with destruction by its Greek overlords. Alexander the Great’s generals had divided up his vast conquests after his death and set themselves up as kings in their own right. (This occurred about 300 years before Christ.)

The Jews in Judea and Jerusalem were a vassal state of one of these Greek Kingdoms. Ruled by their High Priest in Jerusalem, they paid annual tribute to the Greek King in Antioch and were left to run their own internal affairs. Conspiratorial plotting from within Jerusalem to depose the High Priest, however, ended up bringing in the Greek King Antiochus Epiphanes who set about to level the Jewish religious customs and make them conform to Greek pagan ways.

The violence used against the Jews to accomplish this provoked two reactions. Some resisted by simply refusing to comply. Even when faced with torture and death, they would not disobey the commandments of the Torah. These people were known as the “pious ones” or the Hasidim. Others, however, resisted the king’s violence with a violence of their own. They killed Jewish “traitors” and they formed a guerilla army in the hill country of Judea.

They were led by the five brothers of a priestly family, particularly a man called Judas “Maccabeus”—the “Hammer”. These were the “Holy Warriors”. Their re-conquest of Jerusalem and the re-dedication of the Temple, which had been profaned by the pagan Greeks, is the basis for the Jewish feast of Hanukkah.

The Maccabee wars ushered in an era of massive violence, which, in the long-term, set the stage for the Roman domination of Judea and the rise of the Roman’s loyal client, the tyrant Herod the Great, who held the title “King of the Jews” by Rome’s favor. Among the Jewish people, however, the story of the Maccabee Revolt took on a life of its own. It became, in legend, a heroic, mythical story wherein the “holy warriors” were the ones who acted as God’s avengers and saved Israel.

We see the effect of this in the way the Lord Jesus is measured up against the popular Maccabee-like expectations of the Messiah. Surely, he will be like Judas Maccabeus—only he will raise up an even greater army, of epic proportions, to restore the kingdom to Israel! Our Lord, for His part, recalls the legacy of the Hasidim of that time—those who suffered and died for the Law but did not resist—and rejects the Holy Warriors: “He who liveth by the sword, dieth by the sword.”

The Catholic Church canonizes the Hasidim and honors them with a liturgical feast: the Feast of the Holy Maccabees, celebrated on August 1st. She is much more ambivalent about the “Holy Warriors” and their legacy of violence.

“GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS.”—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI

(Missale Romanum 1970)

For this week's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the feast of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini ("Mother Cabrini") in the MR'70. The following is the ICEL translation of this prayer as found in the third typical edition of the Roman Missal (2010):

"God our Father, who called Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini from Italy to serve the immigrants of America, by her example, teach us to have concern for the stranger, the sick, and all those in need, and by her prayers help us to see Christ in all the men and women we meet. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

As you read this column, you may have already read about the prejudicial move by Mayor Bill de Blasio of New York to exclude Mother Cabrini from a group of historically notable women who are set to be memorialized in statues in the city on account of their significant social contributions to the people of New York. Fortunately, there was significant pushback to this move (especially since the woman who received the most votes from the populace was Mother Cabrini!) and so, the mayor was pressured to relent and include her in the group being memorialized. As we consider our divisive political climate, we might look to Mother Cabrini to provide a luminous peaceableness regarding the contentious issues of the day.

As Fr. Higgins has been preaching and writing about last month (October is "Respect for Life" month), we do well to reflect again on the truth that Catholicism is comprehensively pro-life. We are certainly not "one-issue" people, as we are commonly (and falsely) accused of being. In forming our consciences with the saving and joy-filled truths of Christ's Gospel, we are to care deeply about all life issues, even as there exist varying levels of gravity among them. One such issue that touches upon the life and dignity of the human person is immigration. While complex, it is not impossible for us to tease out some basic faith principles where this issue is concerned.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, immigration is a "natural right," and so, the plight of poor and oppressed immigrants must be taken seriously by governments and citizens. At the same time, compassionate concern and efforts of concrete aid does not mean that we fail to confront the practical and prudential matters related to such a crisis at the local and federal level (cf. Catechism no. 2241). The Church does indeed support the authority of the State, but it does not consider such civil authority to be absolute, especially if human rights or "the dignity of persons and the natural law" are being infringed upon (cf. Catechism nos 2235-37).

This means, then, that Catholics cannot ignore, despise, or trivialize the plight of migrants anywhere in our country or around the world. The Church is very clear: the direct and intentional continuation or worsening of the ongoing plight of oppressed immigrants ranks among the gravest of sins, "sins that cry to heaven" (cf. Catechism no. 1857, 67-8).

"I SAY, THEN, THAT THE SUPREME BEING IS OF A CERTAIN CHARACTER, WHICH, EXPRESSED IN HUMAN LANGUAGE, WE CALL ETHICAL. HE HAS THE ATTRIBUTES OF JUSTICE, TRUTH, WISDOM, SANCTITY, BENEVOLENCE AND MERCY, AS ETERNAL

—SAINT JOHN HENRY CARDINAL NEWMAN (+1890)

RAISED TO THE ALTARS, OCTOBER 13TH, 2019

Thus, the challenge for us as Catholics is to recognize and hold these various elements in balance, in a healthy tension. Care for the immigrant poor is not intrinsically incompatible with measured prudence in immigration reform. Mother Cabrini's example of sincere love and care for immigrants should challenge many professing Christians to reevaluate some of their political assumptions, and more importantly, to pray more sincerely and earnestly for those most in need who are beyond the immediate reach of our charitable activity.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Jer. 29: 11, 12, 14 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84:2 Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Absolve, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the sins of Thy people; that we may be delivered by Thy goodness from the bonds of sins, which by our frailty we have committed. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Philippians 3: 17-21; 4:1-3 Brethren, be followers of me, and observe them who walk so as you have our model. For many walk, of whom I have told you often (and now tell you weeping) that they are enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame; who mind earthly things. But our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Savior, Our Lord Jesus Christ, who will reform the body of our lowliness, made like to the body of His glory, according to the operation whereby also He is able to subdue all things unto Himself. Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and most desired, my joy and my crown: so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved: I beg of Evodia, and I beseech Syntyche to be of one mind in the Lord: and I entreat thee also, my sincere companion: help those women who have labored with me in the Gospel, with Clement and the rest of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GRADUAL: Psalm 43:8-9 Thou hast delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. V. In God we will glory all the day, and in Thy name we will give praise forever.

ALLELUIA: Psalm 129:1-2 Alleluia, alleluia. V. From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:18-26 At that time: as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, behold a certain ruler came up, and adored Him, saying: Lord, my daughter is even now dead; but come lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus, rising up, followed him, with His disciples. And behold a woman, who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment. For she said within herself: If I shall touch only His garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler, and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a tumult, He said: Give place; for the girl is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. And when the multitude was put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame thereof went abroad into all that country.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 129:1-2 From the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer: from the depths I have cried out to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET We offer to Thee, O Lord, this sacrifice of praise to increase our zeal in Thy service: that what Thou hast begun in us Thy unworthy servants, Thou wouldst mercifully bring to completion. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Mark 11:24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive, and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION We beseech Thee, almighty God, that Thou wouldst not permit us to be subject to human dangers, to whom Thou givest to rejoice in the participation of divine mysteries. Through our Lord.

Evangelization Focus

"The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born anew."

~Pope Francis
