ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

(Missale Romanum 1970)

“Keep Your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by Your protection. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.”

While the Pre-Lenten season of Septuagesima was dropped in the Pauline liturgical reform of 1970, this Collect nevertheless sets a fitting tone for the next two and a half preparatory weeks prior to the beginning of Lent. As we think about what discipline(s) we will undertake this Lent, the Church gives us a timely reminder of two central components of Christian life: hope and grace.

The Church teaches that the virtue of hope is a divine gift which God infuses into our souls in baptism. As such, it is not merely a worldly notion of wishing or desire which may or may not be fulfilled. Worldly hope depends principally upon us or upon others (and we often disappoint ourselves and one another!).

Christian hope, by contrast, is a virtue coming directly from God, and is “the confident expectation of divine blessing and the beatific vision of God” (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 2090). In other words, God equips us in baptism with the ability to trust that He will fulfill his promises, and give us the grace to become saints and get to heaven. As we pray in the common “Act of Hope” prayer, “O my God, relying upon Thine infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon for my sins, the help of Thy grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and redeemer.”

Far from being presumptuous or care-free about sin (refer again to Catechism no. 2090), hope is characterized in every way by having a God-ward orientation. The posture of the baptized person who hopes in God is one of relying principally upon God’s mercy and goodness in Jesus Christ, not on one’s own merits. And the joyful thing about hope is that it “does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us,” as St. Paul teaches in Romans 5:5.

In all the uncertainties of life, hope is a virtue we do well to cultivate and bolster, because God will not fail us. Hope rests firmly on God himself, who is infinitely good and has rock-solid promises, as we see above.

What is the object of our hope? God Himself, principally, but secondarily His gifts of grace, which enable us to become the saints He has created us to be. As we have just seen, hope terminates in the generous outpouring of His very own life within us: the grace of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Catechism nos. 1996-9 elaborates on the subject of grace:

1996: “...Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help that God gives us to respond to His call to become children of God, adoptive sons, partakers of the divine nature and of eternal life.”

1997: “Grace is a participation in the life of God. It introduces us into the intimacy of Trinitarian life... [the baptized person] receives the life of the Spirit who breathes charity into him and who forms the Church.”

1998: “This vocation to eternal life is supernatural. It depends entirely on God’s gratuitous initiative, for He alone can reveal and give Himself. It surpasses the power of human intellect and will, as that of every other creature.”

1999: “The grace of Christ is the gratuitous gift that God makes to us of His own life, infused by the Holy Spirit into our soul to heal it of sin and to sanctify it. It is the sanctifying or deifying grace received in Baptism. It is in us the source of the work of sanctification.”

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.*

LATIN MASS PROPERS: APPARITION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY IMMACULATE AT LOURDES

INTROIT: Apocalypse 21. 2, Psalm 44. 2 I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Psalm. My heart hath uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — I saw...

COLLECT: O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin didst prepare a worthy habitation for Thy Son; we humbly beseech Thee, that we who celebrate the feast of the Apparition of the same holy Virgin, may obtain health of both soul and body. Through our Lord ...

EPISTLE: From the Apocalypse of St. John II. 19., 12. 1, 10 And the temple of God was opened in heaven; and the ark of His testament was seen in His temple, and there were lightnings and voice, and an earthquake and great hail. And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying: Now is come salvation and strength and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ.

GRADUAL: Canticle of Canticles 2. 12, 10, 14 The flowers have appeared in our land, the time of pruning is come, the voice of the turtle is heard in our land. V. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come; my dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hollow places of the wall. TRACT Judith 15. 10, Cant. 4. 7 Thou art the glory of Jerusalem, thou art the joy of Israel, thou art the honor of our people. V. Thou art all fair, O Mary, and there is no stain of original sin in thee. V. Truly happy art thou, O holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all high praise; for with thy virgin foot thou hast crushed the serpent's head.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Luke 1. 26-31 At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the angel being come in, said unto her: Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Who having heard, was troubled at his saying and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a Son: and thou shalt call His name Jesus.

OFFERTORY: Luke 1. 28 Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou amongst women.

SECRET: May the sacrifice of praise, which we offer Thee, O Lord, by the merits of the glorious and Immaculate Virgin, rise up to heaven as a sweet savour: and may it obtain for us that physical and moral health which we desire. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Psalm 44. 10 Thou hast visited the earth, and hast plentifully watered it; thou hast in many ways enriched it.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the right hand of Thine Immaculate Mother raise up those, O Lord, whom Thou hast fed plenteously with food from heaven, that through her help we may come to our everlasting home. Who livest and reignest ...
