ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

MEMORIAL DAY, 2020

I am pleased to announce that we will be able to have our traditional Memorial Day outdoor Mass at St. Mary's Cemetery this year after all, as Cardinal Sean has lifted his suppression of public Masses. The Mass for the Dead will be offered at 10 o'clock A.M., outside the Cemetery garage, in sight of the Veterans' rock-shrine of Our Lady of Sorrows, Monday, May 25th, 2020. Due to the on-going COVID-19 restrictions, however, we will not be able to offer any refreshments this year. The Memorial Day Mass is offered for the repose of the souls of all of our nation's war-dead, for the souls of all those buried in the consecrated ground of St. Mary's, for our own beloved dead, and for all the faithful departed. Requiescant in pace.

+KATHARINE ALLEN, R.I.P., Mother of our Lay Pastoral Associate David Allen.

With sorrow I announce the death of Katharine Allen, mother of our lay Pastoral Associate David Allen, who died on May 15th at her home in Philadelphia. Katharine has been on our prayer list for the Health of the Sick since her cancer diagnosis two years ago. Mrs. Allen was buried last week at a private funeral. Our condolences to David and his wife Ellen, to David's father Marlan Allen, to David's sister Rebecca and her husband Luke and their two boys Stephen and Andrew.

+JOAN OF ARC DOUGHERTY (MRS. DOMINIC JR.), R.I.P.

On Monday, May 18th, on the octave day of her 100th Birthday, our oldest parishioner Mrs. Joan of Arc Dougherty died peacefully at her family home in Newton, surrounded by five of her fifteen children. At the time of her death she has 225 descendants (children, grandchildren and great grand-children.) She was named "Joan of Arc" because she was born at the time when Pope Benedict XV canonized Joan of Arc as a new Saint of the Catholic Church. Mrs. Dougherty's funeral Mass will be offered here at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes on Thursday, May 28th, at 10:30 o'clock A.M.

RE-OPENED CHURCH, RESUMED PUBLIC MASSES, BUT STILL UNDER COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS

It was unexpected but wonderful news earlier this week when Gov. Charlie Baker lifted his restrictions on Houses of Worship, followed by the Archdiocese of Boston announcing that public Masses could soon resume. To nobody's surprise, long-lists of conditions are attached both to the Governor's and the Archdiocese's announcements.

Based on these conditions I decided not to ask for permission to resume our Sunday public Masses for today, May 24th. We need more time to try to meet what is being required of us. Therefore, our Sunday Mass schedule will not resume until May 31st, 2020, which happens to be the great feast of Pentecost.

One of the COVID-19 restrictions is limiting the attendance at any Mass to 40% of the church building's registered capacity, which for us is 400-seats. I do not think this will be a problem as no Sunday Mass outside of our 10:30 Latin Mass normally exceeds 160 people. In order to help with this I have decided to make the following alterations in our regular parish Sunday Mass Schedule.

- Beginning on Sunday, May 31st, the 10:30 A.M. Latin Mass will become the 11:00 A.M. Latin Mass at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.
- The 5:30 P.M. Sunday Mass will be offered as a second Traditional Latin Mass, instead of a Novus Ordo Mass, also beginning on Sunday, May 31st.

The Parish Sunday Mass Schedule will be:

4:00 P. M. (Saturday Vigil)

7:30 A. M.

9:00 A. M.

11:00 A. M. (Traditional Latin Mass)

5:30 P.M. (Traditional Latin Mass)

COVID-19 restrictions also mandate “social distancing” inside the church building. I have determined that it will be easier and safer to “social-distance” by family household here inside the main church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes if all of the pews remain accessible.

Both the Commonwealth and the Archdiocese oblige the wearing of what amounts to “plague masks” for all people inside the church building, outside of small children and people with personal medical issues. (The priest when he is saying Mass is not obligated to wear a plague mask.)

Among other constraints placed upon us:

- No (or very little) congregational singing.
- No Processions.
- No fellowship time before or after Masses, (i.e., coffee hours.)

Speaking for myself, I bristle at being scolded or condescended to by officialdom, as if we are incapable of acting responsibly—both personally and socially—to manage the risks inherent in a time of contagion, but there it is. No amount of safety-ism, however, can make us completely safe. The only way to be completely safe is to be dead.

The Cardinal-Archbishop has not re-instated the Sunday obligation for Mass attendance on account of the risk of disease-spread. Therefore no-one who feels unsafe coming to church in these days should do so. Any one who judges it would be imprudent for them to return to the assembly at Mass should stay home and not scruple about it. We are well-aware that this time of trial is not over.

But let us rejoice that the Mass is restored to the People of God. In the words of Padre Pio: “It would be easier for the earth to carry on without the sun than without the Holy Mass.”

COLLECT

(7th SUNDAY OF EASTER)

(Missale Romanum 1970)

“Graciously hear our supplications, O Lord, so that we, who believe that the Savior of the human race is with You in Your glory, may experience, as He promised, until the end of the world, His abiding presence among us. Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.”

This prayer appropriately reflects the prayerful waiting and anticipation of Our Lady and the Apostles in the Cenacle in Jerusalem between the time of Christ’s Ascension and the descent of the Holy Spirit. These nine days are the origin of the tradition of making a novena (contains the Latin root for “nine”), or a period of intensified prayer and supplication for a specific intention. Even the word order in the Latin text of our Collect speaks to this time of urgency with which the Church prays for the divine Spirit: “Supplicationibus nostris, Domine...” are the first words in the text. This Sunday affords us a time of more intensive prayer.

We are praying for a renewal of the Holy Spirit in the Church- certainly- but our Collect conveys more. The ascription clause, usually formulated in reference to God is, in this case, a motive clause related to us. It describes an article of faith we profess in the Creed: “we, who believe that the Savior of the human race is with You in Your glory.” We affirm the mystery of Christ’s Ascension which we celebrated a few days ago.

This affirmation/motive clause is important, for the exalted Christ in heaven is what gives account for the efficacy of grace in His Church here below. This is what the letter to the Hebrews is all about (and mystogogical catechesis like Blessed Marmion’s Christ in His Mysteries). It is precisely because Christ is ascended and glorified that He dispenses “infinite treasures of love” to us here below, to quote the Collect for the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

This ascription-motive clause of our faith in the mystery of the Ascension serves, then, as the basis of our petition: “that we may experience, as He promised, until the end of the world, His abiding presence among us.” Faith and hope in Christ’s promises form the rock-solid basis of our pressing “supplicationibus nostris.” Specifically, Jesus’ promise to remain with us, which can be found in the Last Supper discourses of John 13-17, frequently center on His gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit, sent by the Risen Christ, makes Him present in His Church sacramentally (most importantly) and otherwise (i.e., the doctrine of the faith, the scriptures, prayer, the virtues of Christian discipleship, etc.).

Indeed, we might say it even more simply: this Collect argues that we are awaiting and asking for the gift of the Holy Spirit, so that He may grant us the gift of the Blessed Sacrament, Christ Himself abiding substantially in His Church. We must not fail to remember that without the presence and action of the Holy Spirit in the Church, there would be no deposit of grace, the “summit” and “font” of which is the Eucharistic Liturgy, as the Second Vatican Council teaches us (cf. Sacrosanctum Concilium no. 10). May this novena prompt us to adore the Blessed Sacrament more devotedly, for Christ Himself in this Sacrament is truly present to us as the Bridegroom and life of the Church, His Bride.

Mr. David Allen, M.T.S., is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

“IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCES OF JOY OR SORROW, HOPE OR FEAR, LET US AIM AT HAVING HIM IN OUR UTMOST HEART; LET US HAVE NO SECRET APART FROM HIM. LET US ACKNOWLEDGE HIM AS THRONED WITHIN US AT THE VERY SPRINGS OF THOUGHT AND AFFECTION.”

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION

INTROIT: Psalm 26. 7, 8, 9, 1 Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee, alleluia; my heart hath said to Thee: I have sought Thy face, Thy face, O Lord, I will seek: turn not away Thy face from me, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Hear, O Lord ...

COLLECT: O Almighty and everlasting God, make us always bear towards Thee a devoted will, and serve Thy Majesty with a sincere heart. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee...

EPISTLE: From the First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 4. 7-11) Dearly beloved, be ye prudent and watch in prayers. But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves: for charity covereth a multitude of sins. Using hospitality one towards another, without murmuring: as every man hath received grace, ministering the same, one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak, as the words of God: if any minister, let him do it, as of the power which God administereth: that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Psalm 46. 9; John 14. 18 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 46:9) The Lord hath reigned over all the nations; God sitteth on His holy throne. Alleluia. (Jn. 14:18) I will not leave you orphans: I go away, and I come unto you, and your heart shall rejoice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 15. 26-27; 16. 1-4 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: When the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony to Me: and you shall give testimony because you are with Me from the beginning. These things I have spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. But these things I have told you, that, when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 46. 6 God is ascended with jubilee, and the Lord with the sound of a trumpet, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may be ever grateful for having filled us with Thy sacred Gifts. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ ...

PREFACE OF ASCENSION

COMMUNION: John 17. 12-13, 15 Father, while I was with them, I kept them whom Thou gavest Me, alleluia; but now I come to Thee: I pray not that Thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from evil, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may be ever grateful for having filled us with Thy sacred Gifts. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ ...
