ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)
Raised to the Altars October 14th, 2018

SAINT MARGARET OF CASTELLO: AN "EQUIPOLLENT" CANONIZATION

On April 24th of this year, which was Saturday of the Third Week of Easter, Pope Francis "raised to the altars" as a canonized saint Blessed Margaret of Castello. She had died on April 13th, 1320 and was beatified (declared a "Blessed") in 1609.

St. Margaret of Castello's canonization was done without any formal process. It was, instead, what is called an "equipollent" canonization. Pope Francis pronounced her life one of heroic virtue and confirmed that devotion which already exists towards her.

Such a way of canonizing a saint is outside the norm but it is not unheard of. Some examples of Saints long venerated as such who have received an "equipollent" canonization are: Saints Cyril and Methodius, St. Albert the Great, St. Hildegard of Bingen, St. Thomas More, and St. Bede the Venerable.

"Little Margaret's" life-story is an example of how God chooses the lowliest and the "little ones" in place of the strong and the wise in human terms. She was, as we would describe it now, a "special needs" child. She had dwarfism, severe curvature of the spine, and was blind. Her well-to-do parents were horrified that they had a defective child. When she was only six they had her walled up in a room beside the family chapel. They sealed the room's door after she was placed inside. Bereft of any human care or comfort they passed food into her on a tray but abandoned her to die there. When she did not die soon enough the family allowed a priest to speak to her through the food window. In this way she was catechized and received the Holy Eucharist. Here is a picture of the place in which she was immured as a six-year-old child:

When she was fifteen her parents took her to a Franciscan shrine in the town of Castello where people had been experiencing miracles. There her mother asked for a miraculous cure of all of the girl's infirmities. The miracle not occurring the family abandoned her then and there.

The abandoned Margaret slept in doorways or in the streets. Local beggars taught her how to beg. People in the town began to compassionate her, giving her shelter in bad weather. Eventually she was given shelter in a convent. She came to know the Dominican friars and became herself a Third-Order Dominican, wearing the habit of a Dominican.

Of her disposition: "Despite her suffering, Saint Margaret remained serene, calm, cheerful and courageous. She never became bitter, complained, criticized others or became discouraged. She went to Mass daily, and prayed fervently to Jesus, Mary, Joseph and St. Dominic. St. Margaret accepted her sufferings with the eyes of faith. She did not know why God allowed her to suffer from so many afflictions, yet she did know that He was

All-good, and did not allow evil without a good reason and always turned evil into good for His children. She wondered why people pitied her: Was it not a privilege to suffer with Christ? Suffering for her was her way to Heaven.

Margaret returned the compassion shown her by the people of Castello with her own loving heart:

Margaret loved the people of Castello who loved her when no-one else had. After she became a Dominican she resolved to spend the rest of her life serving them. She opened a kind of school in town to catechize children. She visited local prisoners, and brought back at least some, who had abandoned the faith, to repentance and confession. She took care of sick and dying people. She was present and prayerful among the people of Castello, and the entire city grew to love her.

When she died at age 33, the people of Castello demanded she be buried inside the church—an honor reserved mostly for nobles and priests. The entire town attended her funeral; and a young girl unable to walk was said to be cured during the Mass.

As a further sign of Heaven's favor, her body remained incorrupt.

How fitting Pope Francis's canonization of St. Margaret of Costello is in a world where the dignity of human life is so devalued and the experience of human abandonment so rampant.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Ecclesiasticus 36:18. Give peace, O Lord, to them that patiently wait for Thee, that Thy prophets may be found faithful: hear the prayers of Thy people Israel. Psalm 121: 1 I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. V. Glory be to the Father...

COLLECT: In Thy tender mercy, direct our hearts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, because without Thee we are not able to please Thee. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: I Corinthians 1:4-8 Brethren, I give thanks to my God always for you, for the grace of God that is given you in Christ Jesus, that in all things you are made rich in Him, in all utterance and in all knowledge, as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, so that nothing is wanting to you in any grace, waiting for the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ. Who also will confirm you into the end without crime, in the day of the coming of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 71: 1. 7. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of our Lord. V. Let peace be in thy strength, and abundance in thy towers. ALLELUIA: Alleluia, alleluia. V. The nations shall fear Thy name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth Thy glory. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:1-8 At that time, Jesus entering into a boat, passed over the water and came into His own city. And behold they brought Him one sick of the palsy lying in a bed; and Jesus seeing their faith, said to the man sick of the palsy: Be of good heart, son, thy sins are forgiven thee. And behold some of the scribes said within themselves: He blasphemeth. And Jesus seeing their thoughts said: Why do you think evil in your hearts? whether is it easier to say: Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say: Arise and walk? But that you may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (then said He to the man sick of the palsy): Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thy house. And he arose and went into the house. And the multitude seeing it, feared, and glorified God who has given such power to men.

OFFERTORY: Exodus 24: 4. 5. Moses consecrated an altar to the Lord, offering upon it holocausts, and sacrificing victims: he made an evening sacrifice to the Lord God for an odor of sweetness, in the sight of the children of Israel.

SECRET O God who, through the communion in this venerable sacrifice, dost make us partakers of the one supreme Godhead: grant, we beseech Thee, that having come to the knowledge of Thy truth, we may obtain it by worthy lives. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 95:8-9 Bring up sacrifices, and come into His courts: adore ye the Lord in His holy court.

POSTCOMMUNION Nourished by Thy sacred gift, we return thanks unto Thee, O Lord; beseeching Thy mercy to make us worthy to partake of them. Through our Lord.
