ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

Pastor's Note

Fr. Higgins

ETERNAL LIFE OR “DEATHLESSNESS”?

Living as we do at a time of technological innovation it is not surprising that we should find people who are obsessed with finding a technological “fix” for human mortality. Apparently in the new field of biology known as parabiosis there are experiments being done to give older people blood transfusions from younger people to see if it has any effect on the ageing process.

Even if it were possible, however, to reverse the ageing process and extend the human life span indefinitely, such a breakthrough would not come close to giving us the Eternal Life of Christian promise. Instead, it would be tantamount to “deathlessness”. Life would go on and on, with all of its pain and problems, and people would soon be yearning again for the release of death.

It is very important, therefore, that we have a clear-eyed understanding of what death is in the light of Christian Revelation.

Let us review the important points here:

- ◆ “Death” so-called really means bodily death. Our souls are directly created immortal by God and therefore no-one can ever really die.
- ◆ Death was not part of God’s original design. It entered the world as a result of sin. As we read, for example, in the Book of Wisdom: “For God created man incorruptible, and to the image of His own likeness He made him. But, by the envy of the Devil, death came into the world: And they follow him that are of his side” (Wisdom 2:23-25). Death, therefore, has a penal character. It is the universal price every human being has to pay for Adam’s sin. It is “the debt to which every man is subject” (Recommendation of the Departing Soul).

- ◆ Jesus Christ Our Lord, by dying an atoning death on the Cross and then on the Third Day rising from the dead by His own divine power, has transformed the experience of death from being merely the penalty for sin to becoming, instead, the gate to a higher and permanent life. Death is the gateway to Eternal Life. In order to live forever in Heaven, one has to die.
- ◆ Our Christian faith life on earth involves a continuous process of death and resurrection as preparation for the definitive actual experience of them. For example, we have to learn in so many ways to “die” to the egocentric self in order to be free to “live” for God. The selfish ego has to give way to “Christ living in us”. And the beauty of it is that by dying-to-self, Jesus gives us our true self. It is one of the central paradoxes of Christianity: one has to die in order to live.
- ◆ However much progress a soul has made in dying to the “old Adam” so as to live for Christ in true freedom, the sinful wound of the “old Adam” cannot be completely cured until we have experienced bodily death and our soul is rent from our body.
- ◆ Therefore, a Christian should be ever-mindful of the all-important hour of his death, for with death it is no longer possible for us to change. Our will is fixed, for God or against God.
- ◆ In addition we should seek to have a higher view of our life on earth while it lasts, as it is said of St. Martin of Tours (+A.D. 397): “He was neither afraid to die, nor unwilling to live.”
- ◆ Finally we should both seek to train our minds and ask for the special grace not to be afraid when we perceive that the Hour of Death is making its approach to us. St. Francis of Assisi spoke in grateful terms of “Sister Death”, as he concluded his Canticle of the Sun: “Praised by my Lord for our sister, the death of the body, from which no man can escapeth...Blessed are those who die in Thy most holy will, for the second death shall have no power to do them harm. Praise ye, and bless the Lord, and give thanks to Him and serve Him with great humility.”

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SIXTH (RESUMED) SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

INTROIT: Jeremias 29. 11, 12, 14; Psalm 84. 2 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84. 2. Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — The Lord ...

COLLECT Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that thinking everything over in our minds, we may accomplish, both in words and works, that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the first Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians, 1. 2-10. Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all, making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith and labor and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father: knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election: for our Gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much fullness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that you were made a pattern to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you was spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves relate of us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven (whom He raised up from the dead), Jesus, who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GRADUAL: Psalm 43. 8-9 Thou hast saved us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. In God we will glory all the day long: and in Thy Name we will give praise for ever. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 129. 1-2 Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, 13. 31-35. At that time Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds: but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable He spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables He did not speak to them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying: I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 129. 1-2 Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: May this offering, O God, we beseech Thee, cleanse and renew us, guide and protect us. Through our Lord ...

COMMUNION: Mark 11. 24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have been fed, O Lord, with heavenly delights, and beseech Thee, that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through our Lord ...
