ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

MORE ABOUT THE STORY OF THE CARMELITE MARTYRS OF COMPIEGNE, 1794

Last Sunday for our bulletin and also in my preaching I drew attention to the Martyrdom of the Sixteen Carmelite nuns of Compiègne who went to the guillotine on July 17th, 1794.

There is even more to the account, however, than the dramatic action of their imprisonment, their show trial before the revolutionary tribunal, and their noble deaths on the scaffold.

The back-story begins in the Carmel with a vision-dream of one of the nuns, who was considered by her fellow religious to have the gift of prophecy. This vision occurred in the year 1693. In it the nun perceived that the entire Community would one day be called to a collective act of martyrdom, to “follow the Lamb”, “except for two or three”. Thus, a tradition was founded within this Carmel and kept as their Community secret.

In the event, this vision dream was exactly fulfilled. The Community was called to a collective act of martyrdom, and, on account of particular circumstances, three of the nuns were away from the Community at the time of the mass arrest and so survived. One of these survivors, Sister Marie de l’Incarnation, lived until 1836 and collected a great many artifacts to document the martyrdom of her Community.

After their expulsion from their Carmel in mid-September, 1792, when they were dispersed among four residences but clandestinely living out their religious lives, the Prioress Sister Thérèse de Saint-Augustin suggested that they recite daily an act of consecration, offering themselves to God, body and soul, as expiatory victims for the sake of bringing to an end the evils presently afflicting France and the Catholic Church. The Sisters then were conscious co-operators with what seemed to be the actualization of the mystic vision which had been revealed within their Carmel a century before. In other words, these nuns accepted the invitation to “follow the Lamb”, to join their own life-blood to the Precious Blood of Christ. There is an agency here to which we Catholic believers of today need to take notice.

Exactly ten days after the Carmelites’ martyrdom, the master-mind of the French Revolution’s Reign of Terror, Maximilian Robespierre, was overthrown and himself ended up on the scaffold of the guillotine. With his fall, the bloody killing-frenzy came to an abrupt end. The common interpretation among Catholics in its aftermath was that the Sixteen Carmelites, by their offering, had obtained the grace from God for the Reign of Terror to cease.

Statement of the Massachusetts Catholic Conference In Opposition to House Bill 4954 and Senate Bill 2996

A fundamental teaching of the Catholic faith is that an unborn child is a human person with the inalienable right to life and this life must be protected from conception to birth. It is in this light that the Catholic Bishops of Massachusetts have always strongly opposed abortion and all legislative efforts to expand the practice. It is the reason we oppose House Bill 4954 and Senate Bill 2996.

Particular attention must be drawn to a provision (Section 10) in House Bill 4954. If adopted, late term abortions would become widely available, further expanding an already deeply troubling section of Massachusetts law. Specifically, by adding the word “severe” into existing law, abortions would be allowed based upon any physician’s own determination of what condition qualifies as “severe”. This undefined terminology further erodes the protection of life by creating the possibility of abortions at any time in a woman’s pregnancy.

On behalf of the four Roman Catholic Bishops of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts Catholic Conference urges the legislature and Governor Baker not to advance these bills into law.

“The rite in question, in its magnificent Latin text, has also inspired a host of priceless achievements in the arts—not only mystical works, but works by poets, philosophers, musicians, architects, painters and sculptors in all countries and epochs. Thus it belongs to universal culture as well as to churchmen and formal Christians.”

(Letter written to Pope Paul VI at the time of the introduction of the Novus Ordo, and signed by a number of British cultural figures, including the novelist Agatha Christie. The Pope, a fan of her novels, noted her name. The resultant 1971 Indult for England & Wales for the Latin Mass to continue was dubbed thereafter “The Agatha Christie Indult.”)

Congratulations to
Mr. & Mrs. Shawn and Taylor (Eyerma)
Hayes who celebrated their Nuptial Mass at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes on Saturday, July 16th, 2022.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 46:2 Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46:3 For the Lord is the most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 6:19-23. Brethren; I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:12,6. Come, children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 7:15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY: Daniel 3:40 As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O God who in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel, that what each one of us has brought here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 30:3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.
