ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)
Raised to the Altars October 14th, 2018

SAINT JOSEPH, TERROR OF DEMONS

At a time when folly has reached such a level that there are people who would actually use ritual satanism as a way to épater la bourgeoisie (that is, doing things to shock conventional people), it is a solace to us to consider the Patronage of Saint Joseph under his title Terror of Demons. Historically, this Sunday in the Easter Cycle belongs to Saint Joseph. In 1847, at the beginning of his long reign as Pope, Pius IX introduced a feast of Saint Joseph during Eastertide. He called it the Patronage of Saint Joseph and it was appointed for the Third Sunday after Easter (4th Sunday of Easter). Then in 1912, Pope Pius X changed the practice by having a Solemnity of Saint Joseph celebrated on the Wednesday of the third week of Easter and making this a feast with an Octave. Thus, the Sunday of the Patronage of Saint Joseph falls within the Easter Octave of Saint Joseph.

This Easter Solemnity of Saint Joseph remained in place until 1955 when Pius XII superseded it with a new feast of St. Joseph the Workman, which he appointed for May 1st, "May Day"—the very day which the Communist parties had appropriated as their show-of-force in the streets, with mass marches and parades. The Catholic Church's Saint Joseph the Workman was to be the counter-point to a very powerful political ideology which claimed speak to exclusively for the working class and which, following Karl Marx, despised religion, particularly Christian religion, as the opiate of the people.

Devotion to Saint Joseph, and the faith-belief that is expressed through it, directs us to a confidence in prayer. Writing in the 1800s, Dom Prosper Guéranger says of Saint Joseph:

Extraordinary as is this power, need we be surprised at its being given to a man like Joseph, whose connections with the Son of God on earth were so far above other men? Jesus deigned to be subject to Joseph here below; now that He is in Heaven, He would glorify the creature to whom to whom He consigned the guardianship of His own Childhood and the honor of His Mother. He has given him a power which is above our calculations. Hence it is that the Church invites us on this day to have recourse, with unreserved confidence, to this all-powerful Protector.

St. Teresa of Avila (+1582) was instructed by Heaven with regard to the powerfulness of Saint Joseph's intercession. She says:

I took for my patron and lord the glorious St. Joseph, and recommended myself earnestly to him. I saw clearly...that he rendered me greater service than I knew how to ask for. I cannot call to mind that I have ever asked him at any time for anything which he has not granted: and I am filled with amazement, when I consider the great favors which God hath given me through this blessed Saint, the dangers from which he hath delivered me, both of body and soul. To other Saints, Our Lord seems to have given grace to succor men in some special necessity; but to this glorious Saint, I know by experience, to help us in all: and Our Lord would have us understand that, as He was Himself subject to him upon earth—for St. Joseph, having the title of father, and being His guardian, could command Him— so now in Heaven He performs all his petitions. I have asked others to recommend themselves to St. Joseph, and they too know this by experience; and there are many who are now of late devout to him having had experience of this truth.

“IF YOU ARE WILLING TO SERENELY BEAR THE TRIAL OF BEING DISPLEASING TO YOURSELF, THEN YOU WILL BE FOR JESUS A PLEASANT PLACE OF SHELTER.”—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

LATIN MASS PROPERS: THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Psalm 65. 1-3 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia: sing ye a psalm to His Name, alleluia: give glory to His praise, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Say unto God: How terrible are Thy works, O Lord! In the multitude of Thy strength Thine enemies shall lie to Thee. V̄. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Shout with joy ...

COLLECT: O God, who to those that go astray dost show the light of Thy truth, that they may return to the path of justice: grant that all who are enrolled in the Christian faith, may both spurn all that is hostile to that name, and follow after what is fitting to it. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son...

EPISTLE: From First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 2. 11-19) Dearly beloved: I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain yourselves from carnal desires, which war against the soul, having your conversation good among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by the good works which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation. Be ye subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake: whether it be to the king as excelling, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of the good: for so is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not as making liberty a cloak for malice, but as the servants of God. Honor all men: love the brotherhood: fear God: honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy before God: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Psalm 110. 9; Luke 24. 46 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 110. 9.) The Lord hath sent redemption to His people. Alleluia. (Luke 24. 46.) It behooved Christ to suffer and to rise again from the dead, and so to enter into His glory. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 16. 16-22 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: A little while, and now you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me: because I go to the Father. Then some of His disciples said to one another: What is this that He saith to us: A little while, and you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me, and, Because I go to the Father. They said therefore: What is this that He saith, A little while? We know not what He speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him. And He said to them: Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said: A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me. Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also you now indeed have sorrow: but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man shall take from you. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 145. 2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: in my life I will praise the Lord: I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, O Lord, by these Mysteries, that checking our earthly longings, we may learn to love heavenly things. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: John 16. 16 A little while, and you shall not see Me, alleluia; and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the Sacraments which we have received, we beseech Thee, O Lord, renew us with spiritual refreshment and defend us with bodily help. Through our Lord ...
